

TOOK SEVERE COLD ON HIS LUNGS Coughed Phlegm and Blood.

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not neglect it, but get rid of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse, and gets settled on the lungs, causing bronchitis, pneumonia and other serious lung troubles.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure the cough or cold on its first inception and perhaps save you years of suffering.

Mr. G. F. Stratyckuk, Canora, Sask., writes: "Last winter I took a most severe cold on my lungs and was coughing up phlegm and blood most of the time. I had the cough for over two months, and took a great deal of different medicines, but found no relief from them. At last a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I did, and it gave me great relief in a very short time, and today I am enjoying good health again."

The marvellous results that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has achieved in its cures of coughs, and colds has caused many so-called "pine" preparations to be put on the market, which do not contain any pine whatever. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

F. B. M'CURDY, M. P., FAVORS THRIFT PLAN

F. B. McCurdy, M. P., who represents Colchester in the House of Commons and is also known as one of the prominent financial men of Canada, endorses the War Savings movement in the following statement, recently issued:

"The advantage which systematic saving confers on the individual who practices economy and thrift is everywhere recognized. And the present necessities of the State demand the practice of these virtues, if Canada is to return to a sound economic position from which to embark on a renewed era of national production, growth and development.

"During the war Canada has been expending large sums of borrowed money in an effort which will not, in the material sense, be productive. This sinking of wealth can be made good only by increased production of commodities and services, savings on the part of Canadians, and the resumption and extension of our foreign trade.

"The war has been successfully ended, but the bills have, in the main, yet to be paid; participation in their liquidation is the duty of every citizen.

"Nearly everyone can help by avoiding some unnecessary expense, and investing the saving in War Savings and Thrift Stamps which afford a convenient and safe medium of investment within the reach of all.

"In fact, the Thrift campaign is so excellent and sound that I believe it could with advantage have been undertaken even earlier in the war without fear of deflecting our more direct military effort."

DR. CAMPBELL'S SPEECH BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE

Member for St. John City in Slightly Critical Mood—Believes Province Should Have Place for Entertainment of Official Visitors—Refers to Loyalty of Acadians.

MR. CAMPBELL, on the order of the day being called congratulated the Speaker on his appointment and on the urbanity and fairness which he had thus far displayed in the discharge of his important duties. He had been astounded a few days ago to see the Hon. Premier rise in his place and say that he allowed hon. members too much latitude in a debate. He (Campbell) was under the impression that the custody of hon. members was in the hands of the Speaker and what the hon. Premier had said had therefore been news to him. He wished to congratulate the mover and seconder of the address on the manner in which they had acquitted themselves and he felt sure that the compliments paid to them were well-meant and justly deserved.

He noted that the hon. member for Restigouche in his speech had attributed some words concerning the French people to hon. members of the opposition which he (Campbell) felt sure they did not use. Personally he had always thought that the Acadian people were loyal to the Crown and of a Conservative nature.

He felt that the most important matters in the hands of the government at the present time were the Valley Railway and the question of an increased subsidy. He agreed with the hon. member for Carleton that it was wrong to adversely criticize the Valley Railway property. It was undoubtedly a good property and ran through a fertile section of country. If the Hon. Premier would employ the hon. member for Carleton and play the government against the C. P. R. they might be able to obtain a satisfactory price for the property. The Hon. Premier's reply to an enquiry in reference to property along the railway line which the government had possessed itself of, was satisfactory. There were people who had an interest in a Beach at Westfield which had been badly torn up by the Railroad and he thought an injustice had been done to them. He thought the law which permitted the government to enter upon private lands without first arranging with the owners was a mistake. He hoped his remarks would not be misunderstood as they applied only to the Beach property. The matters which he had brought to the attention of the Minister of Public Works had always been promptly and politely attended to.

He concurred in the observations that had been made concerning the visits of Prince Arthur of Connaught and the Duke of Devonshire. In connection with that matter he was inclined to agree with the Hon. Premier that New Brunswick was the only province which was without means for the entertainment of distinguished visitors. He felt that the Hon. Premier was wrong when he stated that it was not for him to make a suggestion. He believed it was a matter for the Executive Council to deal with and he believed the people would welcome some reasonable method of dealing with the situation.

In referring to the purchase of seed grain the Hon. Premier had pointed out that his government had not given favors to friends in the distribution of that seed. He had in effect used the parable of the Pharisee and the Publican that he was not as other men were.

According to his hon. friend from Carleton somebody had been let in on the purchase of fertilizer. The Hon. Premier had held a certain newspaper in his hands and had dramatically asked what hon. members to the left of the Speaker thought of an article which it contained. It seemed to him (Campbell) that he would not have done that had the paper contained a reference to the Central Railway. An inquiry into the affairs of that Railway had shown an indebtedness on the part of somebody of $133,000. Were the government to give its new act a trial they might have more success in collecting that amount than the one they were now after.

With reference to Union Government he thought that administration was deserving of a lot of credit for the efforts being made to assist the provinces. There was the Housing question, vocational education and the public highways, all receiving attention from the Federal authorities. He felt that the government at Ottawa was displaying a paternal interest in the welfare of the different provinces. The housing question was an important one in St. John and he hoped that provisions of the proposed act would be drawn with care. He thought that good settlements might be established in the County of Kent and in the district about Moncton where there were some very fine lands. To his mind it was most unfortunate that there were so many vacant farms throughout the province. Such a condition of affairs must be disheartening to the people. He thought it possible that some pain might be worked out by which those farms could be put to a better use. He looked forward to visiting the Hon. Speaker at his home sometime in the future and to have an opportunity to inspect the road in that vicinity which he had been told had cost $1,000 and was like a golden stairs.

He could tell hon. members that Woman's Suffrage was a tender subject to him. He had been opposed to it and had not thought that the time would come so soon when he would leap into the arms of the ladies. Like the hon. member from Sunbury he had not been converted. He did not know whether the conversion of others was an idea or a dogma, but it seemed to be quite in vogue on his side of the House. While he had not had a change of heart his mind had changed on the subject, and nobody could say that he had been intimidated. He had received no mandate from his Constituency to vote for Woman's Suffrage and at the last election the subject had not been mentioned. While he had no mandate the noble work accomplished in connection with the late war by the women of St. John as well as of the province at large made it impossible for him to withhold any boon they asked. He had not thought that women wanted the franchise but the use they had made of it at the last Federal election had caused him to abandon that idea. Personally he thought that the women would be happier without the franchise but he would say let them have it. Like the hon. member for Sunbury he was hopeful that he would get fifty per cent of the female vote in St. John. There were other subjects he would like to deal with but he thought the time had arrived when the debate should close and the House

IF BREATH COMES HARD, IF NOSE IS PLUGGED, YOU HAVE CATARRH

Perhaps you haven't heard of the new remedy—it's so pleasant to use—fills the nose, throat and lungs with a healing balsamic vapor like the air of the pine woods. It's really a wonderful remedy—utilizes that marvelous antiseptic only found in the Blue Gum tree of Australia.

The name of this grand specific is Catarrhzone, and you can't find its equal on earth for coughs, colds, catarrh or throat trouble. You see it's no longer necessary to drug the stomach—that spoils digestion—just simply inhale the balsamic essences of Catarrhzone, which are so rich in healing that they drive out every trace of Catarrh in no time.

For speakers and singers and persons troubled with an irritable throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh or la grippe, Catarrhzone is of inestimable value.

The inhaler can be carried in your pocket and may be used at any time or in any place.

Large size, guaranteed, and sufficient for two months' use, costs $1; smaller size, 50c; sample size, 25c. Sold by all storekeepers and druggists.

SOME POINTERS FOR THOSE WHO RAISE PULTRY

The following are pointers taken from the report of the egg laying contest at Mountain Grove Missouri:

Poultry do their part oftener than the poultryman.

Hens know the attendant as well as the attendant knows the hens.

Early moulters often prove to be lazy loafers.

Nature stimulates in the spring.

Man should help in the fall.

Ninety eggs pay cost. The 150-egg hen is worth six 100-egg hens.

Males in pen reduce the total egg yield for the year.

Too much sunshine is just as bad as not enough.

The trapness makes accurate pedigree records possible.

A sweet soil is just as necessary for poultry as for corn.

Medium weight hens of any variety are usually most profitable.

Early maturing pullets usually make good egg producers.

Reduction of yellow in shanks indicates egg production.

Color has little or no influence on egg production.

Incubation depends on the egg, incubator, building and operator.

The baby chicks is supplied with 36 hours food when hatched.

Water is worth just as much as feed in egg production.

The price of feed does not tell its value in making eggs.

A large red comb indicates health and egg production.

Birds neither eat nor drink at night.

Feed in daylight.

Feed, water and shade will keep hens in a yard.

Never sell poultry or eggs you would not use at home.

The broody hen works 24 hours per day. So do the others.

High producing hens are often wedge shape with point in front.

A hen's temperature is 106½; man's 98.3-5. Don't house them alike.

Hens go broody oftener in dark secluded nests filled with eggs.

The biggest part of the poultry business is in the egg.

Never give hens medicine unless they need it.

Guessing the disease and guessing the remedy bring uncertain results.

The loss from lice and mites is more than their weight in gold.

Half blue ointment and half lard or tallow makes a good louse killer.

IN ADVANCE, CERTAINLY.

Terms: $1 a year down in advance, before the paper is mailed.—W. Virginia paper.

This seems to be a deep, covert hint that they want their $1 before the paper is delivered.

After a bachelor has had the same solitary returned to him by two or three different girls, he begins to look upon it as "a lucky stone."

Mothers are as a rule lenient creatures. They allow children to continue to believe in fathers.
