Kingston Whig: The Minister of Labor said that the investigation into the cost of living has been gong on for two months, and that some day soon the people will be told why things oright colors waterrelon and China red are as they are. We would respect fully suggest that the people do not want to know why things are so high in price. What they are most likely interested in is when they can look for a reduction. They want to know wha the government is going to do to re duce the cost of living.
