REDS NEED BUT ONE MORE GAME FOR WORLD'S TITLE

Eller, White Sox Castoff, Won Yesterday's Game for Cincinnati—Score Was 5 to 0—White Sox Made Costly Errors—Red Fans Confident of Final Victory—Good Weather Conditions Reported for Today's Game, Which May End Series.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—"Pat" Moran telegraphed this evening to have the big staff in Redland Park at Cincinnati measured for one latest style world championship flag.

The Reds today won the fifth game of the World's Series, defeating the Chicago White Sox five to nothing in a contest that developed sensational pitching, sharp fielding, one-sided batmanship and very nearly deprived the Sox of their last glimmer of hope.

The National League champions have won four games, and therefore need but one to clinch the bunting. By the same token the Sox can annex the major share of the money only by winning four straight. The teams left for Cincinnati tonight for two games if that many are required.

Eller, a White Sox cast-off of four years ago, gratified the dearest wish of his heart by attaining the victory. He held his former team-mates practically helpless throughout the game. He allowed them only three widely separated hits, gave but one pass, and established a record for consecutive strike outs in a world series game. In the second and third innings he fanned six batters in a row, and in the fourth he was going so strong that the first two Sox who faced him dribbled the ball to him for easy outs at first, and the third man struck out. He delivered two more doses of the same medicine before the game was over, a total of nine strike outs for the game.

Williams, who was defeated in the second game of the series at Cincinnati, hurled for the Sox, and did about all that a pitcher could do to win. He walked but two men and did not allow a hit until the fifth inning. The Reds delivered only three more hits off his delivery, but these, after the World's Series fashion of the Reds were coming in the one inning in which were most needed. In this instance the avalanche descended in the sixth round.

The air was fairly foggy with hits, helped along by a walk and an error and when the air cleared the score board showed that four Red legs had reached the counting station. It was enough—plus. In the eighth Williams retired to allow Murphy to appear in the role of pinch hitter, but he merely fanned, and in the ninth Mayer went to the mound for the Sox. His wildness was partly responsible for the final run with which the visitors capped their score.

Sixth Inning

First half—Eller up. Eller again got a great ovation when he walked to the plate. Strike one, strike two. Eller doubled to left centre, and took third when Felsch threw wild to third. It was a terrific drive that went clear to the fence. Rath up. Jackson and Felsch once again moved over to left for Rath. Ball one, strike one, strike two, foul, ball two, Williams' fourth pitch to Rath was very wide and almost got away from Schalk. Rath singled to right scoring Eller. The Chicago infield was playing in at the time, Daubert up. Strike one. Daubert sacrificed, Weaver to Gandil, Rath going to second. The bunt was perfectly laid down. Groh up. Ball one, ball two. Williams and Schalk both protested that it was a strike but without avail. Ball three. Williams lost temporary control and walked Groh. Rousch up. Strike one. Rousch sent a high fly that went to Felsch for a three base hit, scoring Rath and Groh. The play at the plate was very close and Schalk jumped up and bumped himself into Umpire Rigler. Rigler motioned Schalk to the bench and Lynn went in to catch, for Chicago. Felsch got his hands on Rousch's fly but was running hard toward the fence and could not hold it. Duncan up. Strike one, strike two, foul. Duncan lifted to Jackson and Rousch scored, the throw to the plate being wide. Duncan is credited with a sacrifice. Kopf up. Kopf ended the inning by popping a fly to Felsch. Four runs, three hits, one error.

The Cincinnati rooters began to yell "One, two, three, four."

Second half—Liebold up. Groh snatched Liebold's grounder and threw him out at first. E. Collins up. Ball one Rousch gathered in Collins' high fly. Weaver up. Foul strike one. Weaver's grounder bounced into Kopf's hands and he was an easy out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning

First half—Mayer went to the pitcher's mound for Chicago. Rousch up. Ball one, ball two, ball three, strike one, strike two. Collins fumbled Rousch's grounder and he reached first safely. Duncan up. Ball one, ball two, ball three. Duncan walked. Rousch starting to second. Mayer seemed very wild. Kopf up. Ball one. Loudermilk began to warm up for Chicago. Strike one, ball two, Kopf bunts for a sacrifice, Weaver to Gandil. Rousch taking third and Duncan second. Neale up. Rousch scored and Neale out. Risberg to Gandil. Duncan to third. Rariden up. Strike one, foul strike two, ball one, foul, ball two, ball three. Rariden out. E. Collins to Gandil. One run, no hits, no errors.

Second half—Liebold up. Foul strike one. Rath came in fast and threw out Liebold. Collins up. Collins out, Kopf to Daubert. Weaver up. Weaver tripped to right centre. Jackson up. Kopf threw out Jackson at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The attendance at today's game 34,479.

OBSEQUIES OF F. B. MEAGHER HERE MONDAY

The funeral of the late Inspector Meagher M. A. took place yesterday from St. Dunstan's Church, Rev. Father Carney officiating. Interment was made at the family lot at The Hermitage.

The mourners were Mrs. J. C. McKinnon, Sydney, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham, St. Stephen; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meagher, McAdam. Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. Graham are sisters of the deceased.

Among those in attendance were representatives from the University, Normal School and Board of Education, besides many of his friends and classmates.

The late Mr. Meagher was an instructor in the Fredericton High School previous to his appointment to the Inspectorship twenty-seven years ago.

The late Mr. Meagher in his work was regarded as being very efficient and progressive. This was recognized in his selection by the Board of Education last summer as a provincial representative to take advanced courses in pedagogy at Columbia University.

Mr. Meagher returned from the special work very enthusiastic and seemingly much improved in health. At the opening of the school year he entered upon his regular inspectorial work, but the stress was too great and he suffered a breakdown which resulted in his sudden death.

The late Mr. Meagher had endeared himself to every one with whom he associated by his kindly manner and his pleasant social qualities.
