

Girls! Have Wavy, Thick, Glossy Hair, Free From Dandruff

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments—try this!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet country; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

Boiling is one of the most satisfactory methods of preparing the cheaper cuts of meat. To secure best results entirely submerge the meat into rapidly boiling water. Let it boil hard for five minutes and then reduce the heat nearly one half. Continued rapid boiling will destroy the connective tissues and make the meat hard and tough. For boiling select a piece of the round, the clod or the lower end of the loin.

Those who decree men's fashions have troublesome experiences trying to enforce them. Master Fashion is not allowed to be the relentless tyrant that Dame Fashion is.

QUEER CUSTOMS FROM WORLD'S FAR CORNERS

When a young man of the Dayaks inhabiting the Island of Borneo, finds a young lady who comes up to his standards of what a wife should be he begins paying her visits, whereupon his friends say that he has gone to look for tobacco, the saying arising from the custom of the women of a Dayak household to present comers with cigarettes made from tobacco and wrapped in dried banana leaves.

When he finds that she looks favorably upon his suit, the young man makes a regular business of calling until at last she confers upon him the favor of removing all the hair from his face with a small pair of brass pincers. This being one of the customs of the tribe, that a man is not considered complete in his dress until all his eyebrows and eyelashes are pulled out.

If the young gentleman has been somewhat of a lady-killer and has bestowed his affections on many fair maidens, there are times when he is sadly in need of some eyebrows to supply this latest love with something to do.

However, if this crisis is passed the youth prevails upon some of his friends to inform the girl's parents of his intentions. If they favor the match the young man presents them with some article of value, usually a brass gong or a glass bead.

So far everything may have gone smoothly, but the chief of the village has next to be consulted. Some friend or relative tells him of the proposed marriage; if he sees no objection he allows the ceremony to proceed. Which it does, after dozens of omens are considered, always with an eye to the bride's future happiness.

The day previous to the wedding the bridegroom spends his time in obtaining a plentiful supply of betel nut, so that the guests may not lack something to chew during the ceremony.

The bridegroom arrives at the girl's house by boat, and together with his friends tries to force a way into her room. Here a sham fight takes place between his friends and some friends of the bride. He finally enters only to find the girl has disappeared. He then takes his place in a corner of the room and smokes cigarettes until she decides to come back.

When she does a pig is killed, the blood sprinkled over the entire company by a Dayong who blesses the young couple and wishes them good fortune, after which, save for the feast in the evening, the ceremony is complete.

One curious phase of the wedding is that the bridegroom lives with his wife in the household of her parents for the first few years of their married life, where the newlywed husband works in the fields for his father-in-law.

Suit dresses of simple tailored lines are shown with vest effects of either matching satin or of contrasting colors.

Shock Left Her Weak and Nervous

COULD NOT SLEEP.

When the system receives a shock of any kind, the heart becomes weakened the nerves unstrung, the appetite poor, faint and weak feelings come over you, you can't sleep at night, and you wonder if life is worth living.

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the best remedy to tone up the entire system and strengthen the weakened organs.

Mrs. J. J. Bunyan, Pilot Butte, Sask writes: "I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, after having suffered from a terrible shock to my whole system. I was so utterly weak and nervous I could not sleep at night, and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling all over."

I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on the second box of your Heart and Nerve Pills, I began to feel that they were doing me good, so I kept on until I had used six boxes, when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house, and highly recommend them to all who suffer with their heart."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., as it was about the only remedy he kept, and I can certainly say that I was more than pleased with the results, as I got better right away. I will always recommend it to other sufferers."

Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LIBERALS NAME A MANAGING COMMITTEE

Mr. D. D. Mackenzie is Receiving Many Telegrams of Congratulation—The Personnel

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—The management committee of the Liberal party met this morning under the chairmanship of Mr. Jas. A. Robb, chief whip. The personnel of the committee includes the following:

Prince Edward Island—J. E. Sinclair, Queens.

Nova Scotia—J. A. Sinclair, Antigonish and Guysboro.

New Brunswick—A. B. Copp, Westmorland.

Quebec—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Maisonneuve; Hon. J. Bureau, Three Rivers; Hon. Dr. Beland, Beauce; Mr. Lapointe, Kamouraska.

D. Mackenzie, the new leader, and J. A. Robb are also members of the committee.

A laurel wreath was laid on the desk of the late Liberal leader today by the Hon. Chas. Murphy and Hon. Jacques Bureau, and it is probable that it will remain there until a permanent successor to Sir Wilfrid Laurier is named. Mr. Mackenzie will occupy his own seat in the commons, which is on the left of the seat of the opposition leader. One of the reasons for the choice of a laurel wreath is that the word laurel in French is "Laurier."

One of the first visitors to Mr. Mackenzie this morning was the Hon. W. S. Fielding, and they had a chat for a few minutes alone.

Telegrams of congratulations to Mr. Mackenzie have begun to arrive from all parts of Canada. The first came from Nova Scotia Highlanders who are located in Cobalt.
