LEST WE FORGET.

Commenting on the German Peace Treaty and the rather pointed little note over the signature of President Clemenceau which accompanied the same, the Toronto Saturday Night makes this timely comment:

"Premier Clemenceau and his colleagues did well to expose the colossal impudence of persons like those who constituted the German Peace delegation, talking of a 'peace of justice.' It is well for a good many Germans that the Big Four did not take the enemy at his word and insist to the letter on a 'peace of justice.' In that case Germany would have been dismembered in punishment for what Clemenceau in terms of moderation calls 'The greatest crime against humanity and freedom of the people that any nation calling itself civilized has ever consciously committed for many years.'"

"It will be remembered that Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau did not rest his case on the allegation that this was a war of Germany's rulers and not of the German people; but that she was not the aggressor. Either contention is equally absurd; and Clemenceau did well to briefly review the details of the enemy conspiracy against the peace and liberty of the world for the strengthening of forgetful minds.

"If the penalty which Germany must pay is severe, let us not forget her crimes; the ruthless drowning of thousands of unarmed men, women and children at sea; the unspeakable barbarities practiced against the helpless in occupied lands and in prison camps. As Clemenceau says: 'The conduct of Germany is almost unexampled in human history. The terrible responsibility which lies at her door can be seen in the fact that not less than seven million dead lie buried in Europe, while more than twenty million others carry upon them evidence of wounds and suffering, because Germany saw fit to gratify her lust for tyranny by resort to war.

"The Allied and associated powers believe they will be false to those who have given their all to save the freedom of the world if they consent to treat war on any other basis than as a crime against humanity and right.

"Such crimes had the approval of the German people so long as they promised victory.

"The demand of this criminal among the nations that she be permitted to step out of the prisoner's dock and sit down as an equal among her judges to decide her own future, was one not to be endured. Germany escapes dismemberment in order that she may be given a chance to expiate her crimes. When expiation is complete, she is to be given a chance to regain equality with the nations she hoped to destroy. This is not a 'peace of justice,' rather is it a 'peace of mercy.'"

The St. John Standard, in referring to the wretched news service supplied to the Maritime Province papers by the Canadian Press Limited, has this to say: "The annoyance which all these newspapers feel would not be justified were the difficulty one of money, but we are today paying for our telegraphic news much more than at any previous time; we are meeting what are practically annual increases on promises of increased services, and instead of improvement at these higher costs we are receiving less matter, poorly edited, abominably transmitted, and are missing almost every day news of the utmost importance which other papers in Upper Canadian cities are able to enjoy." The Canadian Press seems to be going from bad to worse, while the cost keeps steadily climbing. The Maritime newspapers should cut clear of it and endeavor to procure service elsewhere.

The Liberals of York-Sunbury will meet in convention in the Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow (Saturday) at 2 o'clock to select delegates to the National Liberal convention to be held at Ottawa early in August. As a single member constituency York-Sunbury is entitled to three delegates and that number will be chosen along with alternates. It will be recalled that the last National Liberal convention was held at Ottawa in 1893. A comprehensive platform was then drawn up in which the party was swept into power at the general election which followed three years later. The Liberals held office for fifteen years and Canada during that time had the best administration of affairs in the history of the country.

At a convention of Ontario Liberals held in Toronto yesterday, Mr. Hartley H. Dewar, K. C., M. P. P. for South Toronto, was elected leader of the party in the provincial Legislature. He received 156 votes out of a total of 312. Major Tolmie, of Windsor, was second with 121, and Mr. William Proudfoot, who was leader of the opposition in the recent House, received only 23 votes. Mr. Dewar, who is a leading lawyer of Toronto, was elected to the Legislature at a by-election three years ago. He accompanied the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his tour of the west during the Federal campaign of 1917.

The House of Commons yesterday, by a majority of 71, went on record as favoring prohibition for full twelve months after the war. The bill will be sent back to the Senate, and that body is expected to reverse its vote of a few weeks ago and pass the measure.

BIG YIELD OF STRAWBERRIES IN ONTARIO

Toronto, June 26.—One thousand one hundred and seven quarts of strawberries were picked in one day from three-quarters of an acre on the farm of Isaac Jolly, of West Hill. These were sold up to eight o'clock in the evening at 23 cents a quart, and the sum totalled $185.

This is but one instance of the amazing crop of strawberries which are being harvested all over this fruit district.

The strawberries will, it is expected, be done in another week, unless the weather should turn cool, with the exception of a few districts. Raspberries and cherries will be ripe by that time.

NEW YORKER ARRESTED FOR 160TH TIME

New York, June 27.—For the 160th time in his 40 years of married life, John Kelly has just been arrested at the request of his wife.

"You are charged with beating Mrs. Kelly and throwing her out of the house," said Judge Blair when John was arraigned before him. "What have you to say?"

"Nothing to it," John replied. "My wife has a romantic disposition and four times a year since we have been married she has me pinched."

"Discharged," said the judge. "I'm sorry for you."

VALEDICTORY AT H. S. CLOSING EXERCISES

are deeply sorry for any inconvenience we may have caused you. To you all our teachers, we extend our sincerest wishes for a long and happy life with Success ever smiling upon you.

To you fellow schoolmates whom we leave behind, a parting word. As we have reached the top and have the benefit of our experience we counsel this: Keep ever before your mind the traditions and principles which go hand in hand with the renown of the F. H. S. Honesty and Fair Play in your sports, which we urge and incite you to continue for sport forms a large part of High School training, play fair. Win or lose, play fair. So that the honor of the old Yellow and Black may never be tarnished by any misconduct on your part. Live up to the golden record which those heroes of ours, who have gone forth from these walls fought for, and in many cases paid the Supreme Sacrifice to establish, in the words of Carlyle: "Triumphing over Death and leading it captive, converting its physical victory into a moral victory for themselves, into a seal and immortal consecration for all that their past life had achieved." Truly and faithfully they bring home the principle which makes this High School that which it is, and which is embodied in our inspiring motto: "Palma non sine pulvere."

We extend to you our best wishes for a happy and successful course at F. H. S., and we will always think kindly of the school pals we left behind when we set out from these paternal walls. Now and then think of us; as those who did their best to maintain and keep unspotted the purity of their shields and the sheen of their swords at F. H. S. Think not of our faults but of our virtues, and keep stored within your hearts the brief words of advice from the class of '19.

Having paid our last respects to our Alma Mater, for so we shall always consider her, there remains little to be said. We draw near the end of our journey. The long day is done and our sun at F. H. S. is setting. The dying monarch pauses for one last view at the radiant and happy scenes he is leaving at the golden dome of Heaven fretted with the dying splendor of the sun set cloud, loathe to leave, yet called by duty to another sphere. Deeper and deeper grow the hues which make the glorious background for the tragic masterpiece. The yellow to orange, orange to red, tinged with deep purple and frosted o'er with the foam flecks of silver. Beautiful, yet sad. Lo, he is gone, and Night's wings come fluttering slowly down.

FREE—Dry kindling wood. Apply to Judson Barker at Exhibition grounds. Quick action.
