RETURNED MAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 20—Ernest Smith, a returned soldier aged 41, employed in the I. C. R. at Moncton was yesterday visiting his wife's relatives at Turtle Creek. He was staying with George B. Lutz. While walking in the woods he saw a squirrel and drawing a German automatic revolver shot it, returning to the house he was explaining to the family how the automatic worked. He had not removed all the cartridges as he thought he had. The revolver went off, the bullet passing through his head, killing him instantly. He leaves a young wife.
