

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

MOVEMENTS OF THE STARS
IN FILMLAND

Mary Anderson spent her first vacation in a long while in a novel way. Equipped with a camping outfit she and a camping party toured the coast of Southern California and for a fortnight lived the life of hoboes.

Elise Janis's contribution to the upkeep of the moral of the doughboys in France, not only in the rest regions back of the lines, but up at the most dangerous sections of the actual front, is well remembered throughout the entire country. It has made her the most beloved member of the theatrical profession that America has known for several generations; she captured the hearts of the entire A. E. F., and all the countless millions whose hearts were bound up with the boys who went "over there."

Miss Peggy Hyland, the piquant young star received her early training in Great Britain, and made her first appearance on the screen in that country. She had to jump into the Thames in February during the making of her first picture, and almost gave up photoplays because of it. Miss Hyland is the favorite screen star of the British royal family.

Two thousand head of cattle are being used by Director Norman Dawn in making the stampede scenes of "Lasca," a current feature based on the famous poem by Frank Duprez. The scenes are now being shot in the ranch country near Ventura. Frank Mayo is playing the principal role, with Edith Roberts and Veola Harty as his chief support.

When Alice Brady arrived at Syracuse, where she was recently the guest of honor at the New York state fair at the invitation of the mayor's committee she was met at the train by the officials of Syracuse. When she reached the clubhouse later in the day where she was the honor guest at the mayor's luncheon she was presented with a handsome hand-painted sash by Melba Ingalls, a local artist. The gift was made in the name of the Artists' club of New York city and Miss Ingalls. Miss Brady was delighted with the beautiful bit of silk and promised to wear it in the very next picture which will permit such adornment.

The next release of the United Picture Theatres of America will be "The Eternal Mother," a feature starring the great stage and screen favorite, Florence Reed. The picture was directed by Will Davis, while Lionel Atwill, who has scored such a success in Belasco's "Tiger! Tiger!", Jere Austin, Gareth Hughes and Robert Broderick.

Agnes Ayres, who plays opposite William Russell in "Sacred Silence," after a hard day's work at the studio, went home and undertook a man's job. She bought a new floor lamp, and, being anxious to see how it looked illuminated decided to connect it herself. Everything worked finely until the clever little actress struck a live wire—then Miss Ayres was simply shocked.

In the cast of "Partners of the Night," by Leroy Scott, will be Emmett Corigan, William Ingersoll, Rockliffe Fellows Mario Makenoni and Vincent Coleman. This is the first Eminent Authors picture to the produced in the Eastern studios of the Goldwyn company. Paul Scardon will direct the production.

Boston Globe: An American woman will be a member of the British House of Parliament beginning Monday. The American Congress will meet Monday with only mere men as members.
