TO LIFT BAN ON AVIATORS

London, April 25.—The ban on civil aviators will be raised May 3rd in Great Britain. The Air Ministry in preparation has mapped out various aerial routes along which the civilian aviators will find airdromes and mechanics for their machines.

These thoroughfares will not only enable direct communication between London and Ireland and London and the north, but also will cater to some of the more important towns in the industrial districts.

ICE IN DVINA BREAKING UP

Archangel, April 25.—The ice in the Dvina river began breaking up yesterday near the junction of the river Va-ga, and according to information at Archangel, action may be expected by the Bolshevik gunboats within a short time. The fronts yesterday were generally quiet.

Men who concede that there are two sides to a question never have much to say that is convincing on either side.

I fell from a building and received what the doctor called a very bad sprained ankle, and told me I was not to talk got MINARD'S LINI-was out to work again.

I think it the best Liniment

NAMES IN U.S. OVERSEAS ARMY RANGE A TO Z

Paris, March 30.—The first name on the alphabetical list of the American expeditionary force is Private Aaaa and the last is Corporal Zzeppenfelt.
Between the two names are more than 2,000,000 others.

George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, General Ulysses S. Grant, Robert E. Lee, Woodrow Wilson, several Caesars and a few Bismarcks adorn the ranks with intermittent frequency.

Excluding the commander-in-chief of the army and navy, there is but one Lodrow Wilson, he is a private and according to the Stars and Stripes, has just been placed in the working personnel of Base Hospital No. 27, which was organized in Pittsburgh.

There is an abundance of the names of great men, including seventy-four George Washingtons. The name of the first president is surpassed by seventy-nine Robert E. Lees, who hold the record for bearers of the name of great men. There are but two Abraham Lincolns and seven Grants; twelve Caesars and four Bismarcks.

Among the "common people" there are about 51,000 Smiths. True to their traditional predominance of the directories of most cities, they dominate the American expeditionary force in numbers. There are 39,000 Johnsons

Irritable Nerves Restored and Health Regained in a Simple Way

The man or woman who is rundown, not feeling up to the mark, perhaps irritable, nervous or sleepless can well afford to learn about the wonderful results the newly discovered blood-food is giving to folks that use it.

There is wonderful power in this new blood-food, and every weak, pallid person can be quickly nourished back to health that uses it as directed.

After each meal, with a sip or two of water, you simply take two little chocolate-coated tablets, sold in all drug stores under the name of "FER-ROZONE."

The effect is noticeable at once.
You feel happier, brighter, more contented. That old-time feeling of weariness departs—you forget your "nerves" and no longer get irritable or cross over trifling annoyances.

There is a reason for this change and that reason consists of the fact that Ferrozone contains blood-making materials you can get in no other way.
Ferrozone makes the blood tingle and sing with new vitality. This ensures lots of nourishment and strength being supplied to every part of the body.

No wonder the eyes brighten and the cheeks radiate color and happiness: With abundance of strength, a keen appetite, good digestion, and plenty of sound sleep—all the result of Ferrozone—you quickly feel as if life held new charms and pleasures.

HUMBLING HUN INDOOR SPORT FOR CONQUEROR

Does the German Good to be Pushed Off the Sidewalk Occasionally, Says Correspondent at Coblenz—Huns Glad to be Saved from Their Own War Folly—Are Being Taught Some Real Civilization by English Soldiers.

London, March 12.—The emotions and impressions of British playing the part of conquerors in Germany appear to differ widely.

"I find that I am getting the habit of not looking people straight in the face writes a correspondent of the Manchester Guardian at Coblenz. "There is a kind of fear of something which is just behind their eyes. When a man looks at me across the table in one of the cafes I have to look away, and the only reason I can think of for this is because I have won and he has lost, I am afraid of him because he is helpless and cannot hurt me. Many people would think that they would not feel like this; but they would."

Another point of view is given by a correspondent of the Westminster Gazette at Cologne.

"The Huns love us dearly," he writes "because we save them from themselves. Also they think us wealthy because we tip waiters."

Makes Germans Furious

"Every time I go to the municipal baths there is a crowd of Huns waiting, and I always go in front of them.
Makes them furious, but if they would give the attendant half a mark I dare say it wouldn't happen unless I did as I saw a proper "Bairnfather gorbimey do. As a Hun was going into a vacant bathroom he pushed in front with indescribable contempt, and said:

"Ere, 'oo won the bloody war?"

"It does them good occasionally to push them to the pavement, and what fills them with surprise more than anything else is to pull one up by the ear in a tram to let a woman have his seat."

An Englishman who has visited Bonn, Cologne and other Rhine points tells the Guardian that, although frater-nization between the English troops and the German inhabitants is forbidden, there is a good deal of friendly intercourse between them.

Deceived Concerning War

The Germans say they were deceived concerning the war, but that they would have won if the United States had not been "forced into it." The visitor was impressed by hearing factory girls who were leaving work shout, "Good night," as they passed some English soldiers, and he adds: "The Hun is always as 'slim as the Boer and clearly sees now that geniality is better than poisoned gas."

Arthur Pollen, the naval writer says "It is in the suburbs of Bonn and Cologne, in Duren and in the villages that one sees the real devastation of these people. The fat man is gone and all adults seem peaked and thin, but the children are really a horrible sight.
Those who have been both here and in the occupied parts of France say the state of the French children is worse.
"There seems to be plenty of children, but none under 3 years old, and

It is always amusing to hear a rich
