OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Norma Talmadge Picked a Cheater at Stud Poker—Miss Helen Taft Advocates a Strike of College Profs.

Miss Talmadge knows just how lots of women feel over these card parties the men will have, with loud talk and arguments at 1.30, giving the neighbors food for gossip. Miss Norma, you may or may not know, in private is Mrs. Joseph Schenck, and Mr. Norma is the motion picture magnate who likes to play stud poker. The papers have lately told of big games and of charges of cheating, with expose of marked cards, whereby someone of the players claims someone else trimmed him for a little less than a half million. Those boys play a game in which the late John W. Gates might have qualified as doorkeeper, and if Miss Talmadge hadn't talked about one such game in wifely wrath it perhaps would not have become known that it was at her house that the "cheater" was well warmed. Now the parties are going to law over the talk and Miss Talmadge says she doesn't care if they do. She says if her husband lost money it served him right, and if he "licked" a guest who for six months had been winning with marked cards it served them both right. Mr. Norma isn't saying a word.

Miss Helen Taft isn't a Red by any means, but is head of Bryn Mawr and a sterling Republican at that. But she declares it will be far better for the entire body of college professors to unite and have a general strike than to continue as at present. She advocates real living wages for them and says their apparent only recourse is to unite and strike. "Why should Babe Ruth get $20,000 for six months work and Dempsey $300,000 for one fight," she asks, "while professors and teachers starve?"

Mrs. La Guardia, wife of the war hero president of the New York aldermen, heartily secinds her husband's plea for higher wages for patrolmen. "My husband's salary is $7,500 a year and I do my own washing. On that basis, a patrolman's wife would have to take in washing and ironing and go out scrubbing to make both ends meet," she says.

Mrs. Lucille Martinelli is having her private affairs quite well ventilated in the New York courts. She is defendant in a suit brought by John P. Van Dernberg, who seeks to get $15,000 back in some way. They were sweeties and John swears he expected to marry her. He gave her $15,000 to fix up a flat and buy a car—and then she gave him the derisive chortle, sometimes known as the hoot. Now, it appears from his lawyers, the lady once resided at another hotel as Mrs. Purdy, wife of an English officer, who showed up occasionally, and he is now suing her for divorce. Mrs. Lucille is using her wonderful eyes in the court room and one of the opposing counsel warns against the Mona Lisa stuff.

PRICES WILL REMAIN HIGH FOR YEARS

The prospect of any tangible reduction in high prices does not seem to be entertained by men in high financial positions in this country. The president of a prominent Canadian bank thus deals with the matter in his annual address to the shareholders:

In the case of many classes of wage earners there has been an adjustment of pay against this increased cost of living, but there are many instances in which there has been either no adjustment or one quite inadequate. There are, however, some classes of earners who are so highly paid, in comparison with the rest, that they have unusual spending power, and, along with all the others who have profited unduly by the war, they are spending their money in such a manner as to increase still further the troubles of the less well-off. Apart from this, after the giant's struggle of the war, the world has slackened its energies and is filled with unrest and unrest. All these elements move long an ascending spiral which nearly ends in ruin if we cannot arrest their course. Prices will be higher than before for many years to come, but readjustment to tolerable conditions is absolutely necessary if we are to enjoy the peace bought at such a cost. Governments must curb borrowing and keep their expenditures within their powers of taxation; both individuals and governments must spend less on things not absolutely necessary, and we must all work harder to produce the normal supply of all the commodities useful in life.

Canada won its big place in the world by superb co-operation in the one ideal of winning the war. Can we not compromise for the moment the differences between capital and labour, between farmer and manufacturer, between the various interests that are risking our future for the sake of their own particular grievances, and co-operate in another ideal equally great, the restoration of peace and the return of prosperity on a better foundation? With this accomplished the separate ideals of the industrial divisions of our society can be discussed with far more chance of fair adjustment than is possible in these difficult times.

AN EXCELLENT MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Baby's Own Tablets are an excellent medicine for little ones. They are a mild but thorough laxative which sweetens the stomach and regulate the bowels thus bringing relief in cases of constipation, indigestion, colic, colds and simple fevers. Concerning them Mrs. L. J. Chasson, Paquetville, N. B., writes—"I have found Baby's Own Tablets excellent for my young baby in the case of constipation and colic and it gives me great pleasure to recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Naturally wives do not want half of their husband's income. They don't feel that the wretches could be trusted with the other half.
