HOLLAND HAS REFUSED TO SURRENDER EX-KAISER

Declares That She Cannot be Bound by the Peace Treaty—Full Text of the Reply to the Demand of the Allies—Holland Was Not a Party to the Peace Treaty—Cannot Betray the Faith of Those Who Have Confided Themselves to Her Free Institutions.

Paris, Jan. 23—Holland's reply to the Entente demand for the extradition of former Emperor Wilhelm, declares that she cannot be bound by the Peace Treaty, to which she is not a party.

The Dutch minister delivered Holland's reply to the Allies demand for extradition of the former German emperor to the foreign office today.

The reply was as follows:

"By verbal note dated January 15, 1920 given to the envoy of the Queen at Paris to the Allied Powers, referring to Article 227 of the Treaty of Versailles demand that the government of Holland give into their hands the former Emperor of Germany so that he may be tried.

"Supporting this demand if the former emperor had remained in Germany the German government would under the terms of Article 228 of the Treaty of Versailles have been obliged to deliver him.

Kaiser Responsible

"In doing as premeditated violations of international treaties as well as a systematic disregard of the most sacred rules of the rights of a man for some acts committed during the war by German authority, the Powers place the responsibility, at least morally, upon the former German emperor.

"They express the opinion that Holland would not fulfil her international duty if she refused to associate herself with them within the limit of her ability to pursue or at least not to impede the punishment of crimes committed.

"They emphasize the special character of their demands which contemplate not a judicial accusation but an act of high international policy and they make an appeal to Holland's respect of law and love of justice, not to cover with her moral authority violations by Germany of the essential principles of the solidarity of nations.

"The Queen has the honor to observe first, that obligation which for Germany could have resulted from Article 228 of the Treaty of Peace cannot serve to determine the duty of Holland which is not a party to the treaty.

"The government of the Queen moved by reasons cannot view the question raised by the demand of the Powers except from the point of view of its own duty. It was absolutely unconnected with the origin of the war and has maintained not without difficulty its neutrality to the end. It finds itself then face to face with the facts of the war in a position different from that of the other powers.

Sovereign Right

"It rejects with energy all suspicion of wishing to cover with its sovereign right and its moral authority

WM. JAFFREY, Town Clerk.
Devon, N. B., Jan. 16, 1920.

violations of the essential principles of the solidarity of nations; but it cannot recognize an international duty to associate itself with this act of high international policy of the Powers.

"If in the future there should be instituted by the society of nations an international jurisdiction competent to judge in case of war deeds, qualified as crimes and submitted to its jurisdiction by statute ante-dating the acts committed it would be fitting for Holland to associate herself with the new regime.

"The government of the Queen of Holland cannot admit in the present case any other duty than that imposed upon it by the laws of the kingdom and by national tradition.

"Now neither the constituent laws of the kingdom which are based upon the principles of law universally recognized nor a respectable secular tradition which has made this country always a ground of refuge for the vanquished in international conflicts, permit the government of Holland to defer to the desire of the Powers by withdrawing from the former German emperor the benefit of its laws and this tradition.

"Justice and national honor, of which respect is a sacred duty, oppose this. The Netherlands people, moved by the sentiments to which in history the world has done justice could not betray the faith of those who have confided themselves to their free institutions.

"The government of the Queen is pleased to believe that the Powers will recognize the good grounds of these considerations, which rise above any consideration of personalities and which seem to it so peremptory that they could not reasonably give rise to wrong interpretations."

SEVERAL NEW CASES BEFORE DIVORCE COURT

ton-mill. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. W. J. Lane at Moncton in December 1913. Infidelity since 1917 is alleged by the plaintiff who names Richard W. McDonald as co-respondent.

Parker vs. Parker.

In Sidney Albert Parker vs. Bertha Mabel Parker, the plaintiff is living at Chipman and the defendant at Minto. They formerly resided at Gibson now part of the Town of Devon, York County. The maiden name of the defendant was Hazlett. The marriage was performed by Rev. Reginald J. Flint at Chipman, Queen's County. The plaintiff asserts that soon after the marriage the defendant began to absent herself from home for two or three days at a time. In December 1913 the plaintiff found the defendant in bed with Lawrence Whitlock. Acts of infidelity in April 1916, once at the home of Amos Whitlock, are alleged, Harry Boone of Fredericton being named as co-respondent. Since December 1917 the defendant has lived at Minto with Clarence Parker who also is named as co-respondent.

Coburn vs. Coburn

In the action of Bella Louise Coburn vs. Ernest Maynard Coburn the plaintiff who before marriage was Miss Clark, alleges infidelity with a woman known as Julie Jacquet, specifying that one act took place in an automobile on the highway, during September 1917. The parties were married March 27th, 1915 at Fredericton by

HIS LIFE RUINED BY DYSPEPSIA

Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES"
The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

MR. FRANK HALL

Wyevale, Ontario.

"For some two years, I was a sufferer from Chronic Constipation and Dyspepsia.

I tried every remedy I heard of without any success, until the wife of a local merchant recommended 'Fruit-a-tives'.

I procured a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and began the treatment, and my condition commenced to improve immediately.

The Dyspepsia ceased to be the burden of my life as it had been, and I was freed of Constipation.

I feel that I owe a great debt to 'Fruit-a-tives' for the benefit I derived from them."

FRANK HALL.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Rev. Thomas Marshall. One daughter and two sons were born of the union. Both parties belong to the Parish of Sheffield, Sunbury County, the plaintiff having lived at Ripples since 1918.

In all these cases divorce is sought on statutory grounds.
