SATURDAY YACHT RACE HAD TO BE DECLARED OFF

Boats Failed to Finish Within the Time Limit—Resolute Had the Best of the Challenger from the Start — Had a Good Lead When "No Race" was Signalled—New Captain for the Shamrock.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 18—Expiration of the sailing time limit saved the Lipton challenger Shamrock IV from apparent defeat at the hands of the cup defender Resolute in the second meet yesterday of the 1920 regatta for the America's cup.

The defender had put more than a half hour's sailing between her and the challenger and was breezing home under main sail, club topsail and balloon jib, when the race was officially declared off at 7.25 o'clock.

Under the rules, the thirty mile triangular course had to be covered within six hours by the leading yacht to make it a race. The time limit would not actually have expired until 7.46.28, but a little more than 20 minutes before that hour Resolute still had nearly eight miles to sail—an impossible feat—and the committee boat, hoisted the "no race" signal. At that hour Shamrock was more than two miles from the stake that would have sent her on the last leg of the race. The score still stands Shamrock IV, 1; Resolute, 0; Shamrock IV, having captured the first race last Thursday when Resolute was forced to drop out because of an accident to her rigging.

Yesterday's near race was run under conditions ideal in every particular save the essential one, of a stiff breeze.

A bright sun shone down on the glassy surface of the Atlantic from a sky almost devoid of clouds. The great armada of pleasure craft rode leisurely at rest, their brasswork and varnish glinting in the sun and their flags and pennants flapping idly in the still air when the contenders came out from behind the horseshoe of Sandy Hook for the start. A little fleet of air-planes and one lone silver-sided navy blimp droned overhead. Shamrock—towed by a tug—led Resolute to the starting point at Ambrose Lightship. So still was the air that Shamrock had to call on her tug for aid a second time after she had been cast off and a few minutes before noon, when the race was scheduled to start the committee ordered a postponement. At 1.30 a breeze came in from the south east and the committee hoisted the preliminary signal and ordered a beat south east against the wind for the first leg, a reach, west by south for the second, and a run home before the wind, north east one-half east for the finish.

Captain Adams, of Resolute again appeared to have out-manoeuvred Captain William P. Burton, of Shamrock IV in the manoeuvres at the start and got Resolute off in the coveted weather berth 9 seconds ahead of the challenger. The defender began a steady gain on Shamrock IV, almost immediately as the two sloops headed out to sea on a long port tack.

Challenger Outpointed

Resolute steadily outpointed Shamrock IV, edging into the wind while her rival fell further and further to leeward. When Resolute made her first tack to starboard, after traveling about nine miles and Shamrock IV followed her around, it was seen that Resolute had gained an advantage of nearly a mile. Enthusiasm ran high among the thousands of spectators, crawling along behind the racers in craft of ever size from tiny power boats to sea-going steam yachts and passenger steamers.

Shamrock spurred ahead then, and almost up with Resolute as they neared the first stake. But Captain Burton was caught in a cum and was not able to round the bobbing buoy until thirty six minutes later. By this time Resolute, heading directly into the sun, was so far away that she looked like a gaunt black spar, rising at a slight angle from the shimmering sea.

The spectator craft broke formation here, many of the boats putting on speed to overtake the scurrying Resolute while a few lingered behind to watch Shamrock's effort to overcome the long lead.

Shamrock rewarded the lingerers by putting on more speed and cutting the lead down by about two miles. She was still far astern, however, when Resolute made the second stake, about five miles off Long Branch, and broke out her balloon jib for the run home.

Race Ended

But it had become obvious that she could not make the remaining ten miles within the allotted time and the spectator craft, including the air-planes and blimp, began turning their noses homeward. A few minutes later the committee boat, hoisted the "no race" signal and the yachts were taken in tow for the run back to the Hook.

Resolute led from the start, just as she led on Thursday up to the time her accident put her out of commission in that race. Furthermore, she held together, and it was the wind yesterday which cracked.

May Be New Captain

Sir Thomas Lipton plans to take Captain William P. Burton from the wheel of the cup challenger Shamrock IV. The decision to supplant Captain Burton as skipper of the Lipton sloop was practically decided upon at a series of conferences today of Sir Thomas Lipton Captain H. I. Garrett, representative of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, on board the Resolute; Charles Charles Nicholson, designer of the Shamrock, and Colonel Duncan F. D. Neill, personal representative of Sir Thomas on board the Shamrock.
