OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Carrots and celery creamed together are good. Make a white sauce of one and a half tablespoonsful of melted butter and one and a half tablespoonsful of flour stirred smooth in it. Add one cupful of hot milk. When it begins to thicken add one cupful of cooked carrot cut in dice and one cupful of cooked celery cut in small pieces. Let the vegetables get heated through and serve hot. Carrots and green peas are another good combination creamed together.

Plums and crabapples make a delicious jelly. Wash and stew each fruit separately. Add a little water to each and stew until soft. Drain juice through a firm strainer like heavy cheesecloth. Measure and use equal quantities of each. To every two cupfuls of plum and every two cupfuls of crabapple allow three and a half cupfuls of flour stirred smooth in it. Add before being added to the boiling juice. Skim thoroughly and boil until it leaves a thick coating on end of a silver spoon which when nearly cool will "wrinkle" when pushed along by a finger nail. This is a good test for all jellies. Be sure it "wrinkles" and pushes ahead of the finger nail. Pour into sterilized glasses. When cool cover with paraffine and keep in a cool and dry place.

GRAPE CATSUP.

Take two and a half quarts of grapes wash mash a few in preserving kettle, cover and cook until very soft. Strain through a coarse strainer which will remove the seeds but allow some of the softened skins to go through. Add two pounds of sugar, one pint of vinegar, one tablespoonful each of cloves, cinnamon and allspice. Boil until thick enough. Seal like hot preserves.

PEACH MARMALADE.

Take two pounds of peaches, and if the skins do not peel off easily plunge fruit into boiling water. Cut fruit in small pieces, add two cupfuls of water and cook until fruit is soft. Rub through a sieve, add one and a half pounds of sugar (three cupfuls) which has been heated juice of one lemon and six peach kernels, finely chopped. Skim if necessary. Cook until thick, about twenty minutes, taking care it does not burn down. Pour into sterilized glasses. When cool cover with paraffine.

For peach jelly take the strained peach and lemon juice, boil down, then add an equal quantity of sugar.

BAKED PORK CHOPS.

Take the required number and place in a baking pan, add a slice of onion to each chop with a little salt and pepper then pour a little water in a pan and bake until fat is crisp. Do not put in enough water so the meat steams instead of baking. The pork and onion is an especially good combination.

FASHIONABLE FABRICS.

Pile fabrics such as duvetyn plush and velour abound, and leading colors are gray, brown, taups and navy. Novelty color favorites seem to be hectic tomato hues and turquoise blue.

A Whistler Story.

Dante Gabriel Rossetti one showed Whistler a sketch and asked his opinion of its merits. "It has good points Rossetti," said Whistler. "Go ahead with it by all means." Later he inquired how it was getting along.

"All right," answered Rossetti, cheerfully. "I've ordered a stunning frame for it."

In due time the canvas appeared at Rossetti's house in Cheyne Walk, beautifully framed. "You've done nothing to it since I saw it, have you?" said Whistler.

"No-o," replied Rossetti, "but I've written a sonnet on the subject, if you'd like to hear it."

He recited some lines of peculiar tenderness.

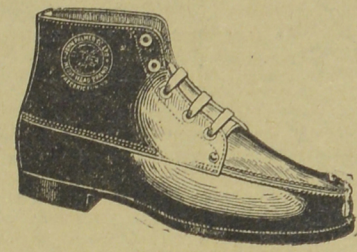

"Rossetti," said Whistler, as the recitation ended, "take out the picture and frame the sonnet."

Lima Beane says the surgeon is a strong advocate of the stitch in time. This is the season the feet of the well known fly fall heaviest on bald heads.
