MONTHLY INCOME INSURANCE

On May 7th a woman lost $18,500 in bills, which she was transferring from one bank to another in New York. The money was the insurance left by her husband, who had lately died, for the maintenance of herself and her children. An advertisement about the loss and a reward for recovery "and no questions asked" appeared in the New York papers. The occurrence illustrates very forcibly the "unwisdom" of leaving large sums of money to be handled by women, whose ideas on business are mostly very hazy. This woman, for example, didn't know enough to transfer her cash from one bank to another by means of a cheque. Most women are better and more safely provided for by a policy which pays them a monthly or quarterly income. Special income policies are sold by practically all of the life insurance companies, or the proceeds of an ordinary "lump sum payment" policy can be arranged to be paid in annual or other instalments. The advantages in the case of policies for large amounts, are obvious. Not many women would be likely to lose a large sum as in this instance at New York, when transferring it from place to place, but there are other dangers—wild stock salesmen, poor and unfortunate relations or friends asking for a loan to assist a business venture, etc. The monthly or quarterly income plan is a safeguard against such.

THE INDEMNITY GRAB

Mr. Grattan O'Leary, the parliamentary correspondent of the Ottawa Journal, a Tory paper thus gave his impressions of the closing of the recent session of parliament:

"During the last few days members acted as a lot of children. There are, of course exceptions; men who realize that such chaos as now prevails is both bad and dangerous. But they are in a sad minority. The overwhelming bulk of all parties, seemingly oblivious to the storm that is gathering in the country, are pocketing their indignities and rushing vital legislation through at a rate that prohibits consideration. One wondered what an already restless public would say were it possible to assemble it all in the galleries of the House to watch how its representatives played the part of trustees of its interests. The truth is that this Parliament is tired and out of touch with public thought. Its action in digging down into the public Treasury for half a million dollars was not, as many believe, a matter of cynicism. It was simply one of many outward manifestations of ignorance of what the public is saying and thinking."

New York Herald: Admiral Lord Fisher, who died in London on Saturday, was one of the innovators who made the British fleet what it is. He cared nothing for precedent when precedent meant ignoring the possibilities of modern equipment. He was a forward looking sailor man, anxious to scrap the obsolete and the obsolescent and substitute for them the latest engines of offence and defence. He swung a heavy club and for administrative dodderers he had no mercy. In the war he was for destroying the German fleet wherever it could be found, and his advocacy of a surprise attack brought him into continual conflict with the Admiralty, which must have smarted under his literary slashes.

The Meighen cabinet was sworn into office at Ottawa yesterday afternoon. The much talked of "new blood" consists of Hon. F. B. McCurdy of Colchester, N. S. who becomes Minister of Public Works, Hon. Rupert W. Wigmore of St. John, Minister of Customs, and Hon. E. K. Spinney of Yarmouth, N. S. without portfolio. Quebec is represented by Hon. P. E. Blondin, Postmaster General, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, and Hon. C. C. Balantyne, Minister of Marine. There have been no changes affecting Ontario and the Western provinces. Those who expected little from the new premier will not be greatly disappointed in the personnel of his cabinet.

Former Empress Eugenie who died recently at the age of 94 years, was the widow of Napoleon III of France and was of Spanish birth. For years the most pathetic figure in Europe, Empress Eugenie lived to see France crushed by the Prussians in 1870, rise to strength and influence, again invaded by the enemy in 1914 and struggle through four years of wars horrors until the Allies great victory in 1918. She had been accused of responsibility of the outbreak of 1870 and her enemies used to say she was the cause of the calamities which befell France. In her young days she is said to have been very beautiful.

What does the term "Soviet" mean, asks a subscriber. It is the name given to a group movement in Russia, as distinguished from the Duma which was the official Parliament, and from the Zemstvo the rural common council. The Soviet is a development of the Russian "Mir" or mass meeting. It was an official assembly, but following the Revolution of 1917 when the reins of government were seized by a few men of the radical Socialist party—the Bolsheviks—the "Soviet" came again into prominence.

Hon. R. W. Wigmore a former City Commissioner for St. John, becomes Minister of Customs in the Dominion cabinet. Compared with men of the stamp of Hon. William Pugsley, Sir Douglas Hazen and Hon. F. B. Carvell the new Minister is in the light weight class. Still the people of New Brunswick should be thankful for small mercies these days.

In Georgia and Alabama the moonshiners have formed a union and hope to enroll in their ranks all the cellar brewers and kitchen distillers in the country. The union button shows a raisin about to bite a bottle capping machine.

The local graft organ will no doubt take due notice of the fact that Hon. Mr. Wigmore, the new cabinet Minister is a director of the Standard, Limited.

 THROUGH OUR SIEVE **

Fredericton now has its West End and its Wet End.

Some men believe that the other fellow does all the blundering.

It seems too much to hope that works will ever become as fascinating as the movies.

There are not so many nocturnal husbands abroad in the land as in the old wet days.

As we recall the days on the farm the old dinner horn was the horn of plenty.

Nearly every family keeps a Bible where the pastor can see it when he makes an unexpected call.

Lots of people are criticized because they are unable to carry a tune. An advantage of this fault is that they make desirable neighbors.

They are still called Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford. Both being stars, there is no occasion to call them Mr. and Mrs. Mary Pickford.

"I'd like to see the country get back to the days," remarked the Man on the Car, "when the butcher gave away liver as an evidence of good faith."

One handy thing about a ruffled skirt is that it can be made to fluctuate with the rise and fall in the height of skirts from the ground. One ruffle more or less keeps it in style indefinitely.

When a married woman returns from a wedding and sleeps with a piece of the bride's cake beneath her pillow it is time for the husband to begin to think about preserving his health.

Take it from us, ten dogs can do more damage in a little cost-reducing garden in ten minutes than ten thousand ants can do in ten days.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE SHOWS COMING BY C.P.R.

Two Specials Before Daylight
—To Show at Trotting Park
—Street Parade in the Morning.

Tomorrow Fredericton will witness the first old time circus of the season when the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows which is today performing in St. John will arrive. According to arrangements the two circus trains will arrive via C. P. R. at two o'clock in the morning and will at once proceed to unload. It is not yet known definitely where the unloading will take place, but it is understood that the circus people are considering Bebbington's siding at the foot of Charlotte Street. This will mean quite a long haul to the Trotting Park where the show will be held and it is just possible that the C. N. R. will be used here. If that is the case it is possible that the trains will be run to the western end of the city.

The parade will probably start about 10.30 a. m. from the grounds, and this, according to reports from other towns and cities where the show has been will be one well worth seeing.

This circus, although noted for its large aggregation of wild animals is of particular interest on account of its horses, both show and draught. Of these horses there are 600, of which it is said the best of care is taken and these sleek, well groomed animals will alone be a heavy attraction to all lovers of dumb animals. The parade will include clowns, animals, heralds, bands, floats, and without a doubt one or two calliopes to add to the noise of the festive occasion.

A large crowd is expected in the city from outside districts and no doubt the best efforts of the show people will be appreciated.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE MOVIES

The mid-week play at the Opera House is "Judy of Rogues' Harbor" with Mary Miles Minter the featured player.

"Judy of Rogues' Harbor," with Mary Miles Minter. Story by Grace Miller White, and directed by William Desmond Taylor, concerns a girl who believes she does not have everything she should have, although in reality she possesses the things many other girls do not have. Perhaps it is an attack upon selfishness as found in some little girls. A touch of the modern has been inserted in this novel story by the addition of some bolshevistic material.

Charlie Chaplin is also shown in the Count.

At the Gaiety is Robert Warwick in Jack Straw. Since Robert Warwick has returned to the screen his roles have been of a higher order than he had before entering the army in this he is appearing in a part which John Drew once acted. Warwick does the part with good effect. The plot has a nobleman playing in the role of ice man and waiter. Amusing complications ensue. There is also a good comedy.

Bustard-Hargrave.
At Christchurch Parish Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. A. F. Bate united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rutherford Bustard, son of Arthur W. Bustard of Bellisle Creek, Kings County and Agnes Hargrave daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hargrave of Minto. The happy young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Capen and will leave this afternoon on their honeymoon.
