THE LAST CHANCE

I have still a few imported Barred Rock Cockerels of high laying strain which may be seen at my yards, corner of Brunswick and Northumberland streets. These birds come from the best bred-to-day stock in New England and are possibly the best ever brought into this province. They were hatched on May 4th and some of the pullets in the flock started laying on November 6th. One of them laid six eggs during the first seven days, beating all the birds in the egg-laying contest at the Fredericton Experimental Farm.

OWNERS WHO HAVE ACHIEVED NOTABLE SUCCESS WITH THEIR OWN HORSES ON THE TRACKS

Samuel J. Boyle of This City Among Them—Nata Prime Moved from a Milk Wagon in Connecticut Directly to Fame—Some

Ohio Notables Also Recalled—A Few Owners Still Get Up

Behind Their Horses.

(Boston Globe.)

It was an ordinary occurrence before the autos forced the trotters off the roads for an owner to appear in races behind his horses and frequently campaign them for several seasons. At that time, the majority of the horses were kept in the home stables and driven on the road, except in the racing season.

Of the owners who bred and developed their trotters, few had more spectacular careers than Charles Wagner and C. H. Nelson. The former was a Canadian farmer from Dickinson's Landing, Ont. He raced Phyllis all over the country and won in all kinds of company. One of her first starts was in a half-mile heat race at Ogdensburg, N. Y., and one of her last at Montgomery, Ala.

Without experience in race driving or training, Wagner whisked the big brown mare into all kinds of races and did what he thought was best for the Wagner family. Phyllis never failed to respond when called me for a little more speed, even when her owner resorted to swimming her in a lake or river for exercise instead of track work.

Nelson of Maine.

C. H. Nelson was a Maine contribution. He wore a Grand Army button and loved his native State. Few owners ever had a more beautiful pair of trotters than Aubine and Nelson. They were a revelation to the Western racegoers when the pair appeared at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1889. When they caught the eye of Maj. Dickinson he gave $15,000 for Aubine as a pole mate for Lady Wellington. He also offered $50,000 for her stable companion, but Nelson refused to part with the stallion, which he afterward made a champion.

John Carey was another owner that drifted on to the mile tracks with a stallion. His mount was behind the Michigan bred horse Junemont. There never was a finer individual and very few had a more consistent racehorse than the big chestnut son of Tremont.

Sonoma Girl.

In 1907 J. Springer, from the Pacific Coast, attracted National attention by the brilliant series of races in which he drove Sonoma Girl against Highball. No such pair of record breakers had ever appeared in the slow classes prior to that date, and the "Girl from the Golden West" more than held her own in her bouts with the pride of the Geers stable.

Their first meeting was at Libertyville, Ill., where Highball won in 2.06 1/4. A few weeks later, at Detroit, in the $10,000 M. and M. the name of Sonoma Girl appeared at the top of the summary in the same time, after Highball landed a heat in 2.07 1/4.

Iowa and Ohio Successes.

To Iowa belongs the honor of sending out two of the most successful owners that were ever seen in the sulky in C. W. Williams and M. D. Shutt. Williams won his spurs behind the stallions Axtell and Allerton. He bred and developed them. Both of them became champions and both founded families of trotters, the Axtell strain being a leader today through the sons of Axworthy.

The name of Shutt is linked with Penisa Maid. She was a trotter of the watch charm type, with a winning habit that made all fields look alike to her. When in the zenith of her career a broken bone resulted in her death and deprived the turf of what looked like a two-minute trotter.

Ohio is credited with three amateur owners who earned turf honors with stallions. George Ketchum led with Crescens. He bred and developed him. No one ever saw a better race horse. From his first start, as a three-year-old, he was raced early and late. All tracks looked alike to him.

The other two Ohio amateurs are H. K. Devereux and David Shaw. When the League Driving Clubs, was operating on the mile tracks the former made a sweep with John A. McKernon, while the latter duplicated the Ketchum and Williams showing by breeding and marking Peter Mac. Hitched to a cart he drove him to a record of 2.03 1/4, the three-quarter mark being passed at a two-minute gait. Very few horses ever made such an exhibition of speed.

From the Milk Wagon.

A unique character fitted across the screen when Prime Wright unhitched Nata Prime from a milk wagon and started for the races. She made her debut at Goshen, Conn., where the horses were raced on the road. When shon Wright moved on to other fair where Nata Prime kept in the mone until she touched 2.10. No one ever saw a trotter trained or cared for as she was. Still Nata Prime gave all she had in the matter of speed until out-classed.

Sam Boyle Among Them.

The Canadian trotter Bill Sharen that was recently sold for $25,000 was driven in all of his races in 1919 by his breeder S. J. Boyle of Fredericton, N. B. He won all of them without losing a heat.

Of the owners who made a bid for the leading fixtures of the trotting turf, the returns show that George Forbes won the Charter Oak purse with Oliver K., and that Harvey Ernest landed that event and the Transylvania with Ima J. E. E. Smathers won the gold cup at Memphis with Maj. Delmar, while Lou Dillon, the first 2-minute trotter, swept off in front in a number of brilliant amateur events to wagon with C. K. G. Billings behind her.

Owners Who Still Race.

Of late years J. L. Dodge, Frank Jones, C. W. Lasell, Thomas Hinds and H. S. Crossman are among the few owners who drive in races. Mr. Dodge has bred and developed the most of his racing material, the best known being Hollywood Bob, Hollywood Kate and Hollywood Naomi, while of his other winners he purchased Lady Wanetka Periscope, Great Britton, and now has a remarkable prospect in My Choice by Siliko.

Frank Jones has at different times driven almost all of the leading members of Geers' stable, a number of which were owned by him. The latter includes Highball, Dudie Archdale Anvil, Etawah, Ardelle and Baron Grat-tan. This year his health has kept him in the shadow, but he expects to be back next year and enjoy a few rides in es behind the Dudie Archdale foals Wiki Wiki, Dudette and Geers.

C. W. Lasell.

Of late years C. W. Lasell has devoted all of his time to the development of the Henry Setzer trotters. In 1915 he won the National Stallion Stake with Henry Todd over the Empire City track, while in 1913 Nowaday Girl was the champion 3-year-old trotter over the two-lap courses. Terrill S. was his most consistent performer, and Judge Lee his fastest.

H. S. Crossman maintains a stock farm and training camp at Monroe, N. Y. Starting with a few polo ponies he shifted to the New York speedway and from there to the race tracks. The past season, he had a number of winners on both the mile and half-mile tracks, the star of the stable being the gelding, Worthy Chief, with which he reduced the half-mile track record for three-year-olds to 2.08 1/4 at Mineola, N. Y.

Boston has several capable amateur reinsmen who do considerable race driving every Summer: Allan J. Wilson, John W. Coakley, Walter Newbert, James Hennessey, Sam Hastings, John J. Kingsley and W. J. McDonald are a few who get a world of pleasure over the home half-mile tracks.

ADVERTISING INCREASES THE HEIGHT OF A MOUNTAIN

HOW MANY PEOPLE know the names of the highest mountain peaks in the world?

FOR INSTANCE, "Kinchinjanga" is the name of one of the highest mountains in the world. It is 28,156 feet high.

PIKE'S PEAK is only 14,108 feet high—but it gets credit for being higher because it is advertised.

ADVERTISING will bring many unknown things into prominence during the coming years.

NOW IS THE TIME, when so many articles and commodities of trade are flooding already overstocked markets, for the man with goods to sell to let the people know all about it.

THE BEST WAY to let the people know is to advertise in the newspapers.

YOU HAVE SEEN THIS in the Daily Mail—let the public know what you have to sell through the advertising resources of this newspaper.

WILL FIGHT TO THE DEATH

Special to Daily Mail. Copyright 1920

By Cross Atlantic News Service.

Milan, Dec. 7.—With Italian troops massed near Fiume it is believed that the Government has ordered reoccupation of the territory seized by D'Annunzio. The latter declares his troops are ready to fight to the death. He has called out all men between the ages of 18 and 52 and it is feared a conflict between his forces and the Italian government is unavoidable.
