BROOKLYN BEAT CLEVELAND 2 TO 1 THURSDAY, TAKING THE LEAD IN THE WORLD'S SERIES

Trolley Dodgers Showed Marked Class in the Game—Enthusiasm Rises as Series Progress—Weather Conditions Were Most Favorable—National League Seems to Have the Edge—Incidents of the Game.

New York, Oct. 7.—Sherrrod Wilson, Brooklyn left hander, won a place in the baseball hall of fame today when he held Cleveland batters helpless in the third game of 1920 world's series, and led the Dodgers to a 2 to 1 victory over the American League pennant winners. Last night the name of Burchell Grimes, spit ball expert, was on the tongue of every Brooklyn fan. Smith is the hero tonight, for he duplicated Grimes' feat of yesterday and gave the Dodgers their second victory in the series.

Early tonight baseball historians recalled the uncanny fact that Smith's engagement with Brooklyn is the thirteenth of his professional career. Tonight they are confident that the south paw has transferred the "jinx" from his person to the ball. Cleveland, not Brooklyn, felt its baneful influence today. "Sherry" Smith has admittedly won a place with Mathewson, Coombs, McGinnity and Bender of former world's series, and in so doing, the Brooklyn players backed up their pitcher nobly. It was almost impossible for Cleveland batters today to get a drive through the combinations that shifted with lightning speed from place to place, wherever the ball was hit. Three hits and only three were made off the winning pitcher. Steve O'Neill getting two of these and Tris Speaker one. Speaker made his hit a double in the fourth.

O'Neill followed with a single in the fifth and another in the eighth. But for an error by Wheat in fielding Speaker's double, the game would have been a shut-out. Here is what happened to the Cleveland batters.

Of the twenty-eight Indians who faced Smith, only five reached first base, three on hits, two on passes. Speaker scored on an error, two were left on base. O'Neill was one of the victims of a double play and Jamieson who ran for him in the eighth met the same fate. Smith threw 109 balls, of which twenty-nine strikes, forty-one balls, eight foul strikes, five fouls five field outs and eighteen ground-outs. Brooklyn won its game in the first inning.

Pitcher Taken Out.

Ray Caldwell, who started for Cleveland gave away a base on balls, and two hits before Speaker took him out and sent in "Duster" Mails. An error contributed to the two runs won by the Dodgers at the very outset of the battle. Mails, Brooklyn cast-off pitched sizzling ball, and prevented further scoring, backed up as he was by an impregnable defence in the field.

The game, it was generally admitted, measured up to the best traditions of world's series contests. Although marked by two errors, evenly divided, it scintillated with thrilling individual and combination defensive plays that brought the 25,000 spectators to their feet time and again.

SOME VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR THE "CONSERVATIVE LADIES"

They are Reminded of the Great Sacrifices Made by France and Little Belgium During the Great War—A Despicable Canvass Strongly Condemned.

To the Editor of the "Daily Mail"

Sir,—
With reference to the statements printed in your issue yesterday in regard to the raising of the race and religion cry by certain Conservative "ladies" of Fredericton, backed by the Honourable Colonel McLeod, M. P. for the purpose of influencing votes in the pending election, I would crave space in your paper to ask those good ladies and the gallant colonel, if, before entering upon a campaign of that character, they stopped to consider for a moment that it was Belgium—little Catholic Belgium, at once the victim and saviour of Europe—that interposed its strength and stopped the onrush of the enemy hordes, long enough at all events, to allow of France rearranging her lines of defence. France, as is now well known, never expected an attack through Belgium, but had made all her preparations to meet an attack from an entirely different quarter.

Then, let me ask those good people, if their memories are so short that they forget that it was Catholic France that gave two millions of the very flower of her manhood, and by prolonging the conflict long enough to allow of Great Britain concentrating her full military strength in the field, practically saved the British Empire from annihilation? These are historical truths of so recent a date that no sane person can fail to remember them. The time would seem to me, therefore, to be extremely inappropriate for a Canadian electorate having any sense of decency or of gratitude left, to raise the race and religion cry.

The census of 1911 discloses that New Brunswick is forty-two per cent Catholic; today, a census would probably show that it is fifty-two per cent Catholic. Would the good Conservative ladies and the gallant colonel deny to this large percentage of the people, representation in the Legislative Assembly of the Province? Do they forget that Sir John MacDonald, their greatest chieftain, tory of the Tories, as he prided in calling himself, held office for two parliamentary terms I think, certainly for one, by reason of his parliamentary following from the Catholic and French Province of Quebec?

Yours truly,
Fair Play.

It is when the temperature makes a sudden fall-spin out of a sunny sky that people are caught with their goose flesh unprotected.
