FRIED CHICKEN.

Dress, clean and disjoint two young chickens (fryers). Cut one-half pound of fat salt pork in small cubes; try it out in an iron frying pan and remove the brown scraps. Rub chicken over with one-half lemon cut lengthwise, sprinkle with salt, pepper and dredge well with flour. Saute in hot pork fat until richly browned; turning chicken often. Reduce the heat, add one cup of boiling water, cover closely and let cook until tender. Remove to hot serving platter and surround with sweet potato croquettes. Pass cream gravy in a warm sauce boat.

CREAM GRAVY.

Into a saucepan put two tablespoons each of chicken fat and butter; add one slice of onion and cook until delicately browned. Remove onion, add four tablespoons of flour mixed with one half teaspoon of salt and one-eighth teaspoon of white pepper; stir until smooth and delicately browned. Add gradually one and one-half cups of hot chicken stock, and one half cup of hot cream, stirring constantly until smooth and glossy. The color of this gravy is that of cafe au lait (a light tan). To prepare the chicken stock, cover the giblets, the necks and the tips of wings (pinions) with cold water, bring to the boiling point and cook until tender, adding salt to season.

APPLE CARAMEL.

Pare and core the required number of apples add one teaspoon sugar to each apple, a sprinkling of cinnamon put in baking dish. Fill halfway up with water around the apples, put in oven. When almost done cover the apples with a fair sprinkling of bread or cracker crumbs dash of cinnamon, several small pieces of butter and over all a layer of brown sugar. If the oven is very hot, care must be taken that the sugar does not burn but that it just reaches the caramel point.

INDIGESTION CAN'T STAY

Stomach Pain, Sourness, Gases, and Acidity ended with
"Pape's Diapepsin"

Out-of-order stomachs feel fine at once! When meals don't fit and you belch gas, acids and undigested food. When you feel indigestion pain, lumps of distress in stomach, heartburn or headache. Here is instant relief.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress caused by acidity will end. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapepsin always put sick, upset acid stomachs in order at once, and they cost so little at drug stores.

HON. MR. KING HAMMERS THE MEIGHEN GOVERNMENT

His Entire Speech at Aylmer, Ont., Devoted to Condemnation of Premier Meighen and His Party—Says the Government of Canada is Carrying on Without a Mandate from the People—A Rousing Speech.

Aylmer, Ont., Nov. 19—Delays on the railway beyond London delayed the arrival of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King more than an hour last night. The crowd filled the Town Hall to capacity, and a couple of hundred people were turned away from an adjoining theatre. Where Mr. King addressed an overflow meeting.

The Liberal leader's address was a sweeping condemnation of the Meighen Government, and he urged the electors of East Elgin to register their disapproval of that Government's record by defeating their candidate. The election of the Government candidate, while it would in reality be merely a measure of the folly of the progressive forces in allowing themselves to be divided in the face of a reactionary nominee, would nevertheless be construed by the Government as a ground for their continuing in office irrespective of the wishes of the people of the Dominion as a whole.

Liberal Leader's Address.

"The present is a by-election," said Mr. King. "It ought to be one election among many constituting a general election. The only reason that it is not such is that the present administration have treated the public of Canada as a whole with the same degree of contempt of constitutional rights and privileges as they have this particular riding. It is true that the framers of the Canadian Constitution fixed a limit upon the length of time any Government could stay in power. They foresaw the danger of gentlemen like those who occupy the Treasury benches today, holding on to office indefinitely providing some arbitrary limit was not fixed, but it was never the purpose of the Fathers of Confederation, much less is it in accord with the spirit underlying British parliamentary institutions, that an entirely new ministry, framed without reference to any particular policy and having no mandate whatever from the people of Canada should have power to usurp the rights of the people in the matter of self-government, and that at this period of time in Canadian history, the people should be denied, after the sacrifices which men and women of all classes have made during recent years, the right of a Parliament that is truly representative and a Ministry that is genuinely responsible. At the present time we have in Canada neither the one nor the other, and the real question at issue today is whether we shall longer continue to be governed from Ottawa by a self-constituted oligarchy, or whether we shall have a parliament that is broadly representative of all the electors of Canada, irrespective of class, race, sex or section.

"The old Unionist administration was chosen only for the purposes of the war. Practically all of the ministers whose names helped to win for it public confidence at the time it was returned to power, have severed their connection with it. All that remains today is an irresponsible remnant who have decided to hold on to office at any cost.

"In view of these resignations from the ministry elected in 1917, is it not a little contemptuous of public discernment on the part of the present Prime Minister to base his claim to continue in office upon the record of colleagues in whom he has either no confidence, or have no confidence in him?

Asks Nine Questions.

"Let me ask another question. Is it conceivable that a new political party could come into existence with a new platform and a new leader and be able to gain control and carry on the government of the country without some powerful influence being at work? The truth is that a very powerful influence has been at work; it is an influence, however, that dare not disclose itself because it is not a popular influence; it is not an influence representative of the will of the people; it is not a social influence or an unselfish influence. It is the influence of a certain element identified with the big interests of this country that is not satisfied with sharing in government along with the rest, but who wish to dominate and control. It is this monopolizing group of wealthy and powerful individuals whose advice has alone been sought in the creation of the present Government, and who today are responsible for its retention in office.

"Another reason why the present administration should receive no expression of confidence from the electors of this riding is that the remnant of the old Unionist administration of which it is composed appears to have retained all the bad habits, while they have lost the virtues of those of their colleagues who were members of the old Unionist administration."

Boston Transcript: A Belgian woman, who lost her husband in a railroad accident, received from the company $2,000 by way of compensation. Shortly afterwards she read of a traveler getting twice as much for the loss of a leg. She went to the company and protested that the difference was unfair.

"Madam," said the official, "the two awards are perfectly fair. Four thousand dollars won't provide the man with a new leg, but for $2,000 you can easily get a new husband."

PRICE AND QUALITY

Everybody wants lower prices. Nobody wants them more than WASHINGTON—but not at the expense of quality.

WASHINGTON'S prices are low, considering the quality, and will automatically go lower as costs decrease.

But whatever the price may be, the quality will always justify it.

For the WASHINGTON policy is to provide the best of food, service and sanitation at a reasonable price.
