

RUFFLED FEELINGS ARE SOOTHED

POLICE COMMISSION ON MARYSVILLE PROTEST

Communication to be Sent to Town Council re Chief Finley's Remarks—Another Matter.

The Police Commission of Fredericton was in session Monday afternoon. The principal matter of business was a communication from Marysville concerning alleged remarks of Chief Finley of the Fredericton police force at a recent joint meeting of the Police Commission and the Fredericton City Council. The feelings of the Marysville people were ruffled by the impression that Chief Finley had said or insinuated that liquor was sold or had been sold within the town limits of Marysville.

The Commission passed a resolution to the effect that nothing derogatory to any citizen of Marysville had been said by Chief Finley.

Matter of a Coat
The Commission also considered a communication from Mrs. John Powers relative to a coat owned by her son. This coat was stolen from Regent street school at the same time that a bicycle had been stolen elsewhere.

Both were found together in Wilnot Park, the bicycle seriously damaged. Chief Finley held the coat as a clue in an attempt to find who had stolen the bicycle. Time passed on and the coat was not returned. Mrs. Powers asked for the coat and Chief Finley informed her that it was at the police station and could be obtained there. This reply caused ill feeling and the matter finally was placed before Ald. Cain who laid it before the Police Commission.

After consideration of the whole matter the Commission instructed Chief Finley to have the coat taken to Mrs. Powers' residence.
