Provincial Bonspiel.

It has been definitely decided to hold a provincial bonspiel at St. John beginning January 25 next, under the auspices of the Commercial Club. Con tests will be carried on at St. Andrews Thistles and Carleton ice. Rinks are expected to compete from practically every town in the province.

The Vancouver Election.

Capt. George Black, a Fredericton oy and a former Governor of the Yukon, was a conservative Candidate in Vancouver in yesterday's election and seems to have met defeat. Attorney-General Farris, a son of Hon. L. P. Farris of Queen's County, was one of his successful opponents.

Ice is Very Soft.

The rain which set in last evening has made travelling very difficult on has made travelling very difficult on the country roads and also has weak-ened the ice of the river to a marked extent. The zero weather of the week-end made the river ice sufficiently strong for horses and sleds to cross. Today the ice is weak, however, and one teamster named McSorley went through with his horses near Scott's mill in the west end.

Fined for Loitering A local man arrested Tuesday night by Police Sergt. Jones for loitering in the streets and refusing to move on when so ordered, appeared in the po lice court yesterday afternoon and contested the case, C. L. Dougherty appearing in his behalf. The accused had been let go on a deposit of ten dollars. He was convicted and a fine of twenty five dollars and costs was
