

HIGHER MILK PRICES VERY LIKELY HERE

PRODUCERS CLAIM THEY MUST GET MORE FOR IT

Meeting Saturday Afternoon to Discuss the Matter—Seventeen Cent Milk is in Sight.

There is every prospect of milk consumers in Fredericton and vicinity being called upon to pay more for milk during the winter and possibly after that. The milk-producers who supply the city have sent out a call for a meeting to be held in the Court House Saturday afternoon beginning at 2.30 at which they will discuss the situation and decide upon action. The meeting is announced as open to the public.

Claim Cannot Meet Cost

The claim of the milk-producers is that they cannot meet the cost of production upon the present scale of prices. Feed of all kinds is scarce and prices are high. For the producer to make a profit there must be more paid for the dairies and other milk-dealers.

Higher Elsewhere

The producers who are moving toward securing a higher price, claim that in other places the retail price of milk is seventeen cents per quart, and that the same price should hold good in Fredericton. The price to the producers now is thirteen cents per quart.

With this movement afoot there does not seem to be much chance of the cost of living falling in Fredericton as far as this important article of food is concerned.

Big Objective for King's

Winter at Atlantic City

Colonel G. Rolt White and Mrs. White passed through St. John on Wednesday evening en route from Halifax to Atlantic City, where they will spend the winter with their son, Harold. Seventy-one Years Young

James S. Neill, the well known hardware merchant observed his seventy-first birthday yesterday and received many hearty congratulations. Mr. Neill is in the enjoyment of remarkably good health and is apparently as young in spirit as he ever was. It is the earnest wish of his numerous friends that he will live to observe many more birthdays.

A Shabby Trick

Chatham World: A few ladies were at work, canvassing in front of the Town Hall, and a rather shabby trick was played upon one of them. An Opposition man taking advantage of a time when she was trying to persuade a new arrival to vote the government ticket, removed a bunch of ballots from her pocket and replaced them the Independent ballots the rest of the she innocently continued to hand out the Independent ballots the rest of the afternoon.

At the Picture Houses

The week end play at the Opera House is "The Slim Princess" with Mabel Normand the featured player. Miss Normand was never prettier, more graceful, or more charming than she is in this story by George Ade. The serial "Daredevil Jack" completes a fine program. The play at the Gaiety is "High Pockets" with Louis Bessie as star. This is a very entertaining play of the wild and woolly west. The weekly serial is as exciting as ever.

Old Friends Turn Up

The Industrial Number of the St. Maurice Valley Chronicle published at Three Rivers Que., contains group photographs of the Three Rivers baseball team and St. Maurice Paper Co.'s ball team. In the Three Rivers team are some old friends none other than Bob Conley, "Rube" Crain and Frank Harrington, who were with Fredericton in the New Brunswick & Maine League days of 1911-12-13. They all look as natural as life. This season they were playing semi-pro ball in the St. Maurice Valley League. The Three Rivers team first was known as the Shipyard team but later became a city team.

Special Industrial Number

A special industrial number of The St. Maurice Valley Chronicle, the English paper published at Three Rivers, Que., was issued under date of October 1st. The Chronicle is a weekly publication and the number certainly was an ambitious effort. All the important industries of Three Rivers which is one of the growing industrial centres of the sister province, and has in close proximity Grand Mere and Shawinigan, are described and extensively advertised. C. K. Stewart, formerly of Chatham, N. B., and for some time mechanical foreman of The Mail Printing Company, of Fredericton, is secretary and manager of the Chronicle.

FAMILY JAR AT BLANEY RIDGE REACHES COURT

GEORGE KING COMPLAINS AGAINST HIS TWO SONS

Row Over Storage of Potatoes Had Unusual Features—Complainant's Pocket was Cut Off.

A family jar at Blaney Ridge, Parish of Prince William, was ventilated in the police court here today. George King was the complainant against his two sons, Albert King and William King, whom he charges with assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. The trouble occurred on September 28th. The elder King had forbidden his sons to store potatoes in his cellar, they occupying a farm a short distance away. The two young men arrived with potatoes and proceeded to put them in the cellar. Their father sat upon the cellar door to prevent it being opened. His statement is that his son William seized him and dragged him off the cellar-door after which Albert carried potatoes into the cellar while he and his son William scuffled about the doorway and on the veranda. In the mixup the father was able to kick the cellar-door and close it narrowly missing Albert's head as he came out.

The father received sufficient rough treatment in the scuffle to tear his trousers down one leg so that the pocket protruded through the rent. His wife seeing the pocket sticking out grasped the opportunity and with a pair of scissors cut the pocket off. In the pocket book she found a cheque and fifty-five dollars in cash according to the statement which she made on the witness stand. She took the money and replaced the cheque, throwing the pocket book on the ground so that it would look to the owner as though he had dropped it.

One Case Finished

J. J. F. Winslow appeared for the complainant father this morning. William had no counsel and his case was completed this morning. The evidence of Mrs. King was to the effect that the complainant had not been struck but had been held by William. His own struggles had caused the damage to the clothing.

The case against Albert was to proceed immediately after the other one. The defendant said that he wished to secure legal advice. Magistrate Limerick asked why he had not done that in the seven days which had elapsed since service of a summons. Finally adjournment was made until 3.30 this afternoon.

Seriously Ill

The friends of Mrs. Charles Cremin will regret to learn that she is dangerously ill at her home on Westmorland Street from convulsions brought on by child birth. Her husband who has been in the Tobique woods arrived home on Wednesday. Two doctors are in attendance upon Mrs. Cremin but they hold out little hope.

RIDEOUT STILL SUB-INSPECTOR AT MONCTON

HAS BEEN NO CHANGE, SAYS CHIEF INSPECTOR

Controversy Between Mayor Chapman and Ex-Chief Because of Sub-inspector's Duties.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Chief Liquor Inspector for New Brunswick, stated positively today, when asked concerning the status of George R. Rideout, of Moncton, in regard to the Prohibition Department, that ex-Chief Rideout had not tendered his resignation as liquor sub-inspector for the City of Moncton and was still an official of his department as far as he knew.

When asked concerning a statement credited to Mayor Chapman, of Moncton, that he had communicated with the Chief Inspector relative to ex-Chief Rideout's status as a sub-inspector, Mr. Wilson said that he had received no official communication from the Mayor but had received from City Solicitor Allan what he considered to be a personal letter on the subject, which he had answered.

Controversy in Moncton

George R. Rideout, a former member of the Fredericton police force, who was chief of the Moncton police for several years, resigned recently as the result of a disagreement with the city authorities. Evidently he considers that he should not be called upon to enforce the Prohibition Act unless he is Chief of Police.

Moncton Transcript has the following on the controversy between Mayor Chapman and the ex-chief.

"Referring to a report that he was yet Chief Liquor Inspector in the city of Moncton, ex-Chief Rideout told The Transcript this morning that true it was when he was Chief of the Moncton Police Department, he received a small yearly stipend for the enforcement of the prohibition laws in this city, but when he retired as Chief of the Moncton Police Department it could hardly be expected of him that he enforce the provisions of the N. B. P. A. in this city on the small stipend, he then received from the government as chief inspector here in conjunction with his duties as chief of police.

"Speaking further he said: 'It would appear as though Mayor Chapman is attempting to make the best out of a bad bargain in defence of himself and his bone dry adherents.'"

Activity in Enforcement

As a result of activity on the part of sub-inspectors at Edmundston and St. John, there are numbers of cases ready for trial at both those places.
