OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

SPRING DESSERTS.

Maple mousse—Boil one large cup of maple syrup until it ropes. Pour slowly over the well beaten yolks of eight eggs, beating constantly until smooth. Put into a double boiler and scald, not letting it boil. Remove from the fire and let it become cold, then stir into one pint of whipped cream. Turn into a freezer pack well in ice and salt and let it stand for three or four hours.

Chocolate Pie—Use a deep pie dish, be sure that the crust is done before you add the custard filling and then be sure that the custard is firm and jellylike before you add the meringue. Then your chocolate pie will be a success. Needless to say, a thin, dry chocolate pie or one that is so nearly liquid as to have to be eaten with a spoon is a different proposition.

Orange jelly—Soak two tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatin in cold water until soft. Then add a cupful and a half of boiling water, the juice of one orange and sugar to taste. Heat and strain and add a teaspoonful of sherry. Cool half of the jelly in a cup. When the other half begins to harden add a stiffly beaten egg white and heat again. Pour this frothy, half stiff mass into a mold and turn out the little cupful mold of jelly, which should be quite hard into the center of the other. Let all harden in the refrigerator and serve with custard and whipped cream.

BLEACHING LINEN.

Linen which has become an ugly shade owing to bad washing can be improved by bleaching. Soak the cloth for twenty-four hours in water in which a tablespoonful of borax to every gallon has been dissolved. Then wash them thoroughly in hot water. Wring out, place in the boiler, cover with cold water, add a pound of soap cut in shreds to every four gallons, a handful of soda and a tablespoonful of cloudy ammonia or turpentine. Bring slowly to the boil and leave for about fifteen minutes. Do not put too many things in at once, as the articles must have sufficient room to toss about. Turn them into a tub, cover them with the water in which they were boiled and leave them to cool. Wring the water slightly from them and spread in the sun or hang up to dry. Sprinkle from time to time with water as they dry. When a good color is obtained rinse in several tepid waters, blue them and dry again.

FASHION VAGARIES

The cape still hold its own.
White garbardine is much liked.
Dancing frocks are still short.
Coat dresses are of black taffeta.
Spanish combs of jade are charming.
Formal tea gowns show long clinging lines.
Many huge scarf-like effects of tulle are seen.
Pleatings are used even on lingerie this season.
The length of skirt depends upon the style of the gown.
Cock feathers are preferred to paradise for day wear.

CHURCH ADV. ON SPORT PAGE

(Philadelphia Ledger.)
Soon when you turn over the pink sheet to snatch the latest million dollar offer for the Carpenter-Dempsey fight, the ringside narrative of that Cream city k. o. bout, reminiscences of big league stars and stove league sharks—well, brother right among all that live sport dope and Quin Hall's cartoons you'll see—
"Come to church Sunday! Attaboy! The Rev. John Bunyan's gonna whip 'em over the plate—one, two three and out!—next Sunday at the church Grab a grandstand seat, all you hymn fans! Snappy time promised!"

Extensive church advertisements on the sporting pages of Chicago newspapers was advocated today by A. D. Brush, superintendent of the Summerdale Congregational Sunday School, at the weekly conference of Congregational ministers. He urged that $75,000 be spent on religious ads.

WOMEN IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Frank J. Gould, No. 2, who was Edith Kelly, an actress, when she married the son of old Jay a few years after the society girl also named Kelly had divorced him, won the opening round in her fight in this country last night. Justice McAvoy of New York signed an order to serve Gould by publication in number two's two suits, one for separation, and the other for divorce. Thus starts a fight expected to be memorable in divorce court annals, with reflex on international marriage and divorces. Could divorced the woman in Paris a year ago, after a bitterly fought case, basing his charges in the action of the Paris police court which fined the woman and a Brazilian for not conforming to the none too rigid Parisian morals. Now the worm has turned, so her lawyers say, and Frank faces accusations lengthily. The ladies mentioned list like a couple of pages from the telephone book. Also, Frank is accused of being pickled constantly, just 'going from one bottle to another,' as the consort claims. Then she asserts he threatened to kill her without mercy and feed her to the Seine fish in small nibbles. He is in Paris, and service is impracticable. The legal nub is this. She refuses to recognize the French divorce; he has property here; he refuses to recognize the right of American court to inquire into a divorce granted in Paris on police evidence. The erstwhile defendant's millions are quite incidental, of course.

Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons, the former Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, who wed her boy's chum last year, has changed her mind again, and instead of summering at the new legal taxation home, the old French home in Chester, N. H., she and Mr. Paul will summer at Newport. There is to be a regular old-home week at Newport all summer, with more princesses and countesses and duchesses than ever before gathered under any one canvas.

while the side show will be replete with ex-husbands. Old-timers rejoice at her decision, as she who was considered the representative year-round Newporter.

Miss Ida Jane St. Leon, the actress, is accused of disrupting the home of the rich George McIntyre, of New York, head of the Metropolitan Credit Company, and his wife has sued for absolute divorce. The wife claims the husband completely lost his head over the stage woman, left her ill with an infant to gallivant around with the actress, and then threatened to skip out with the oldest child and go to Alaska. When the judge heard this, he at once issued a warrant of arrest and held McIntyre in $10,000 bail to keep him in New York. He was careless in being careful, it was disclosed. Being a business man, he kept careful record of the money he gave Ida. In 12 days it figured up $1225—and then the poor fish left the memo in his coat pocket, and the wife found it. Then, comrades, forbearance ceased and the scene shifted to New York's Pemberton square.

Spring sportswear is made simply and on slender lines.

WANT TO BREAK VICIOUS CIRCLE

London, May 11—The continuous demands for higher wages in one trade after another are beginning to alarm the Labor leaders themselves, and they are realizing that they can only lead to disaster.

The Executive of the "Triple Alliance" of miners and transport workers, which is now in session here, although it has before it several wage demands, has embarked upon a determined effort to break the vicious circle of high wages and the increase in the cost of living.

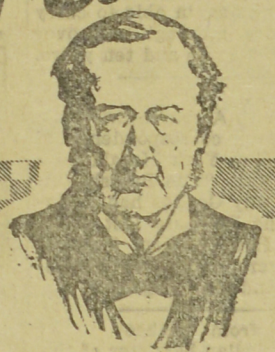

Another Big Three, the Parliamentary Committee of the Trades Union Congress, the Labor party and the co-operative movement, are to be called upon to join the alliance in an exhaustive inquiry into the reasons for the high cost of living, and to evolve a plan for its reduction.

The members of the alliance discussed this question, which they regard as the "most vital affecting our social life," for the greater part of this afternoon's meeting.

They will meet again at an early date to receive the report of the joint body, and their views will be submitted to the Government with a view to the latter taking "such action as will substantially reduce the present high cost."

Afternoon dresses are a trifle longer than usual.
