OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

LACE AND LINEN FAVORED

This year, says Delineator, lace is used in boudoirs for chaise longue covers, for boudoir pillows and bedspreads. It is used, too, for the table. A very sensible style has decided that old pieces of odd lace can be made up into a sort of patchwork cloth or set of dollies.

Linen is in good taste, also the unpretentious substitutes that modern housewives are using these days of limited materials and curtailed help. There are the crocheted dollies, easy to launder, and the embroidered natural colored linen sets, consisting of two oblong pieces that are simply laid one across the other at right angles. The one with the center design on top, forming the centerpiece, and cleverly shaped individual dollies that fill in the spaces left by the centerpiece, which extend out to the table edge. The most practical of all are the luncheon-sets of hand-painted enamel-cloth, which is not very far removed from the old-fashioned oil cloth of our grandmothers' time.

HATS NEED SPECIAL CARE

Not only because it is an economy, but also because the condition of the hat and the way it is worn will make or mar your appearance, your hats should be properly cared for.

After each wearing, the hat should be carefully brushed with soft brush to remove all dust from the hat itself and from the folds of the trimming. A piece of velvet should be used instead of a brush for silk or satin hats. If the hat is of straw, a cloth dipped in alcohol may be used to remove the dust.

For a hat with a brim which is easily marred, a hat stand is an essential. It may be made from a strip of heavy paper about nine or ten inches wide and rolled so as to be narrower at the top than at the base. Tissue paper laid over the top of the hat will protect it from dust. For the "best" hat a dustproof box should be provided.

Hats that have been badly wet and dried may often be improved by careful steaming. Hold the hat over the spout of a steaming tea kettle or over a wet cloth placed on a hot inverted iron.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD

Remove the center of medium sized ripe tomatoes by cutting a slice from the top and scooping them out. Fill the cups with the following mixture: For five tomatoes use one peeled diced cucumber, one diced cold potato and one-half medium sized onion grated; pour over this filling one cup of mayonnaise dressing, mixing well, then stuff the tomato cups, chill on ice, and serve on a bed of tender lettuce leaves.

CARAMEL BREAD PUDDING

Stir one-half cup of sugar over a quick fire until caramelized. Add gradually one quart of milk, and cook over boiling water until the caramel is dissolved. Pour the liquid over two cups of stale bread crumbs, add two beaten eggs, one cup of dark brown sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt and one teaspoon of vanilla. Turn into a buttered baking dish, dot with one teaspoon butter, cut into bits and bake one hour in a slow oven. Serve with or without cream.

PROHIBITION IS ENDORSED

The following resolution was adopted at a recent meeting of the District Sunday School Association at Prince William:

"Resolved that the District Sunday School Association, representing the Parish of Prince William and Dumfries, in the County of York, place its self on record as being in hearty sympathy with the present Prohibition law now in force in the Province of New Brunswick.

And further resolved, that we urge upon all our people who are above the age of twenty one years, and have been residents of the Province for the past six months, to see that their names are upon the Voters list so they can vote for the retention of the present Prohibition law in the Referendum that is to be held on the 10th of July next.

Scored Great Success

"Everywoman" the picture shown at the Gaiety Theatre for the past two days, was a great success. The fact that the play was seen here some time ago attracted the public and the picture itself was far above the average. W. A. Walsen of this city, well known as a reader, took the part of "Nobody" and recited a brief introduction.

GOLD STRIKE AT SING SING

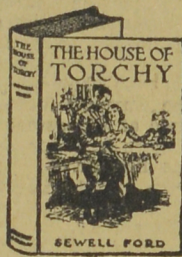

The Sing Sing Bulletin announces that gold ore, at the worst a good looking vein of yellow metal, has been uncovered in the quarry across the road from the enclosure. Men of the honor gang made the discovery, and while there has been no rush of prospectors from the prison gate there is little doubt in the minds of the Bulletin's editors that the news will bring miners in large numbers. Samples of the ore have been sent to a metallurgical laboratory for analysis.

Concerning the discovery the Bulletin reflects on the possibility of another Yukon Valley strike and recalls ancient prison traditions that say the construction of the cell block led to the discovery of both gold and iron. The minerals were found in paying quantities, but as the building of the prison and the quarrying of stone for the State Capital were more important nothing was done.

CARDBOARD BERRY BOXES

Waltham, June 23—Strawberry growers in Eastern Massachusetts have been having difficulty getting strawberry quart baskets, because of the poor transportation. The Middlesex County Bureau of Agriculture and Home Economics here has made arrangements to manufacture cardboard boxes to meet the emergency.
