LIBERALS AND THE TARIFF.

Hon. Mackenzie King, the Liberal leader, in his great speech at St. John on Friday, devoted considerable attention to the Liberal tariff policy and declared himself favorable to the abolition of the duty on instruments used in the development of the natural resources of the country. In this connection the Telegraph reports him as follows:

"In the last analysis all taxation must come from wealth, and greater wealth would come from a greater development of natural resources. Products of the sea, of the mine, of the land must be increased, and it must be made so that the worker could carry on his labor at the least cost possible. To this end he would favor the abolition of all import duties on instruments of production in industries based upon the natural resources of the country, such as mines, fishing, lumbering and agriculture, the development of which was essential to the progress and prosperity of the country. The cost of living was measured by the cost of clothing, food and footwear if the tariff caused these high prices, then the tariff should be modified."

The principal industries of New Brunswick are lumbering, agriculture, mining, and fishing, and there is not a man connected with one of those great industries who should have any fault to find with Hon. Mr. King's pronouncement on the tariff. Agricultural implements are the raw materials of the farmer, and they should be made duty free. The farmers of this province do not fear competition, and derive no benefit from the duties now imposed on farm produce. If these were abolished along with the protective duties on agricultural implements, the industry in New Brunswick would undoubtedly be greatly benefited.

The New England States is the natural market for the surplus lumber products of New Brunswick, and since the United States government abolished the duty on lumber a few years ago, the industry has gone ahead with leaps and bounds. In the memorable campaign of 1911 the majority of the lumbermen of the province worked and voted for reciprocity, while many farmers, particularly in York county, opposed it. Since that time, as a result of the abolition of the lumber duties, many farmers who were frightened into voting against reciprocity by the loyalty cry, have disposed of their standing timber at prices greater than they would have gladly accepted for the entire farm ten years ago. The Liberal policy on the tariff, as so clearly set forth by Hon. Mr. King, is sound and will undoubtedly meet with the cordial support of those identified with New Brunswick's principal industries.

The Liberals of St. John are certainly to be congratulated on the grand success of the mass meeting held in that city on Friday evening, at which the Liberal leader, Hon. Mackenzie King, and Mr. Ernest Lapointe, M. P., were the speakers. Secretary Hannebery worked hard to make the affair a success, and saw to it that the large number who journeyed from outside points to greet the Liberal chieftain were provided with seats on the platform. It is admitted on all sides that the meeting was one of the most successful ever held in St. John, and that is saying a good deal.

Some political economists assert that the high prices are due to the abundance of gold, but Mr. Vanderlip believes that they are chiefly due to the excessive issue of paper money by the United States and other countries during the war. Meanwhile, some of the rest of us will continue to believe that the chief underlying cause is human nature.

The St. John Globe in commenting editorially on the Liberal meeting at St. John on Friday evening, says: "It was one of the greatest and most successful political meetings. St. John has ever known, and the Liberal leader undoubtedly made a favorable impression on an audience not hostile, but naturally disposed to be critical."

"Will you walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly," was the very apt quotation used by Mr. Ernest Lapointe, M. P., at St. John in describing the attitude of Union government towards those who are forming the new political groups. The audience showed its hearty appreciation by an outburst of applause and laughter.

DESCHANEL IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Versailles, Jan. 17.—Paul Deschanel was elected president of the French republic today by 734 votes of the 889 members of the national assembly voting. His majority was the largest since the election of Louis Adolphe Thiers, the first president after the fall of the empire, who was chosen unanimously. The result was certain since the caucus of yesterday at which M. Deschanel was chosen the candidate of the senate and the chamber of deputies, comprising all the various parties. The election took on, besides a holiday character, the atmosphere of a patriotic manifestation.

NIGHT COUGH

You know it! It begins with a tickling, irritating sensation in your throat. You cough to clear the throat. In a moment there it is again!

A minute's peace, then again you cough, and so on until you cough your throat sore, and by the time the cough is sufficiently alayed to permit you to sleep, you are thoroughly worn out. This kind of experience is particularly trying to old people.

Peps make this sort of thing quite unnecessary.

Put a Peps pastille on your tongue and allow it to slowly dissolve. Healing fumes are then liberated, which mingle with the breath and are carried to the remotest parts of the air passages and lungs, allaying the irritation and soothing the inflamed membranes, thus ending the cough and making sleep possible.

Peps are also best for bronchitis, laryngitis, asthma, sore throat and colds. Try Peps at our expense. Send this advertisement and 1c stamp (for return postage), to Peps Co., Toronto, and receive FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. All dealers, 50c. box.

ILLINOIS HAS BARRED BOOZE FROM HOMES

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 19.—The Illinois search and seizure act has put all owners of stored liquor in this state "out of luck." Club members and others who planned to move their private stocks to their homes on federal permits were given a jolt when they learned the State law prohibits transportation of liquor in any form on all public highways.

"The government is perfectly willing to let the owners of liquor remove it to their homes," said Major A. V. Dayrmpyle, Federal Prohibition Commissioner, "but a permit would have no effect on the Illinois law. Furthermore that law applies before January 1 as well as after that date."

Major Dayrmpyle said that the same provision would forbid an owner to move liquor from one house to another if he changed his residence.
