Organization Needed.

12. Another is a need for a thor little doubt that a large majority wil be given in its favour again especial now since women have an equal vote with the men.

13. The announcement was made on May 7th, officially by the Premier that the referendum on the Prohibi tory Law of this Province would be taken some time early in July. He also announced that the questions to be submitted had been prepared, but would not be disclosed until the date for the vote had been fixed. We have every reason to believe the questions will be satisfactory. 14. It is now our duty to see that a Considerable progress has been made in this direct. on as will be seen from the following report of the Secretary. (The re-port gives an account of meetings already held and notice of those to be held, also organization by counties.) Value Proven.

15. In spite of all the unsatisfactory conditions in regard to the en-forcement of the Prohibitory Law such great advantages have accrued to the country as to have proved its great value and to make it worth while in the best interests of the country to retain it ,and once the law preventing importaton is carried and which is sure to come at no distant date, the advantages of our Provincal Law will become more apparent to every observer.

16. In view of the seriousness the situation and the important results dependent on a large majority vote, the challenge comes to our best citizenship to do everything possible to ensure success. What is now needed ed is a united and energetic province-wide effort by those who believe in Prohibition to ensure the bringing about of a crowning victory.
