FARMERS GUIDE REPLIES TO CRITICISM OF CALDWELL

Says His Remarks on the Loan to Roumania Were Simply a Repetition of a Statement Made in the House of Commons by Mr. Joseph Archambault, M. P. — Some Companies Which Benefited by the Loan.

(Moncton Transcript)

The Moncton Times some days ago printed a very offensive headline accusing Mr. T. W. Caldwell M. P. for Carleton of making asinine remarks. The United Farmers Guide of Moncton condemns the offensive remarks by The Times. It deals with the subject in these terms:

"In criticism of certain remarks made by T. W. Caldwell M. P. for Carleton-Victoria with regard to loans made by the Government of Canada to the Governments of Greece and Roumania, the Gleaner of Fredericton without any show of logic or reason passed as its judgment that these remarks if made in the House of Commons would be treated as asinine and the speaker as an ass. The Gleaner remarks were quoted generously throughout Canada in Government papers. Great care however, was taken not to state definitely the remarks which Mr. Caldwell had made.

"Now the substance of Mr. Caldwell's remarks were actually made by Joseph Archambault, M. P. for Chambly-Vercheres in the House of Commons in the presence of one of the Cabinet ministers concerned. The remarks were not treated as asinine. Neither was the speaker treated as an ass. On the other hand, Mr. Archambault was given a very attentive and respectful hearing. None of his statements were denied. None of his statements could be denied because he quoted from sessional paper No. 147 in support of his remarks.

"He called attention to the fact that these loans of twenty-five millions each to Greece and Roumania, two practically bankrupt nations, were not supported by adequate security. He showed that no interest on the loans had been paid. He showed that the goods thus sold to these bankrupt nations without adequate security would in all likelihood have reduced this high cost of similar goods to the people of Canada, if placed on the market of Canada. He showed on the other hand, that instead of being thus sold in Canada, they were exported in order to hold up prices in own the Government of Canada.

"He was not content with general statements but mentioned as also did Mr. Caldwell in his addresses at Woodstock and Fredericton, the names of some of the Companies who had sold these goods and the names of members of Parliament supporting the Government who were largely interested in these companies. He mentioned the Welland Vale Manufacturing Company and its account of $13,524.78, of which the President is the member for Lincoln, Ont.; he mentioned the Maritime Nail Co., ($89,168.73) of which the president and managing director is the recently converted free-trader, the member for St. John N. B.; he mentioned the Monarch Knitting Co. ($271,844.48) of which the president is the member for Haldimand; he mentioned the Sherwin-Williams Paint Co. ($1,490) and the Canada Paint Co. ($11,332) of which one of the directors and the vice-president is the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

"These statements were made in the House of Commons in the presence of the last named minister, and they were not treated as asinine nor was Mr. Archambault treated as an ass. These statements were made by Mr. Caldwell at Woodstock and Fredericton. He would not have dared to make them, he would not have been allowed his freedom after having made them if it were not known that they were true. If such statements are asinine then let it be hoped that Mr. Caldwell will have the courage to make similar asinine statements, if so be the Government of Canada should continue to be so remiss in its duty to the people of Canada as to give occasion for the publication of such damning commentary on the misgovernment of this country."

OBJECTS TO

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 13.—Edmonton's objection to the railway freight increases has taken form in a wire to Premier Meighen from the Board of Trade stating that there is no opposition to a reasonable advance necessary to supply additional revenue for the roads, but urging a more fair distribution of the increases in the case of western hauls. A reply from Hon. Arthur Meighen, just to hand, acknowledges the Edmonton board's telegram but states that an appeal along the lines indicated will have to be made to the governor-general-in-council, setting forth the objects of the appeal and the full grounds upon which it is made.
