In this town, where members of the tribe known as the "Long Pocket-books" come to be operated on, talk about these things had come to be a recognized thing—like golf, or divorce, for instance.

PREMIER FOSTER'S GREAT SPEECH IN THE LEGISLATURE

Fire Protection and a general carrying out of Conservation of Natural Resources.

Opposition Bear Garden.

Compare that with the barren and vain attempts of his friends coupled with incompetence, graft, rake-offs, deceit and deception. The miserable failure ended in disaster in February 1917, when the ship went on the rocks with the barnacles on her bottom. The ship had to be repaired and what more fitting place than the Seamen's Institute in which to start repair operations? The captain, the first and second mates and the men who slushed the decks all were present. Before repairs could be undertaken there had to be investigation of the conduct of the mutinous crew which had cancelled the certificates of the chief officers. The investigation was held and action challenged and a verdict of traitors returned. A change in command was to be made and of course the chief whip, the hon. member for St. John City, was the one to lead the way. He was reported by the press to have told the convention what manner of leader it should have. A Sunday school teacher was not wanted although that qualification would harm no person. Neither was there wanted a man who would whisper behind closed doors or talk around the lodge rooms. The man wanted was one who would speak out in public. Naturally the qualifications suited the hon. member himself, who stated further that a leader was wanted who would advocate upon the floors of the House that but one language should be used in this province. He (Foster) had thought that the last had been heard of that. What New Brunswick wanted was unity. He hoped his hon. friend would cease trying to stir up a sectional feeling. It could not be forgotten, however, that the hon. member still was chief whip of the opposition party, which folded him to its bosom and applauded him when he arose and sat down. All the front benches were at that convention—those who had denounced their leader as neglectful and incompetent, those who had publicly charged him by resolution with making improper returns to the Comptroller General. There were some who thought the party never could, after having censured their leader, choose him or any others identified with him. Still others were there who waited only the call to the Moses to lead the party out of the wilderness. All were doomed to disappointment, for the party whip had been cracked by the first mate, and all followed. Here they are. But imagine how they must feel, particularly the ones who waited the call to leadership!

In discussing the opposition leaders amendment for an increase in the rate of stumpage in the House yesterday Premier Foster announced that the present rate would continue in force until August 1st, and if conditions at that time remained as they are

Can Make Herself Pretty and Attractive

EVERY GIRL SHOULD THINK ABOUT.

Probably you know just such a girl.

Perhaps she is sixteen—good to look at, and pretty—quite interesting because she reflects the graces and charm that gives promise of happiness to herself and others. But she is not strong. The color in her cheeks, once so rosy, has faded away—her eyes are listless—the buoyancy of spirit and vigor she once possessed are sadly lacking. Parents, friends, this girl needs Ferrozone—needs it that her blood may be renewed—needs it to restore the nerve force that growth, study and the development of her fresh youth have exhausted. This girl will become queen with Ferrozone—which will restore her color—bring back her oldtime energy—give brightness to her eyes and vivacity to her spirits. In Ferrozone every girl finds strength—then she can do things. In Ferrozone there is endurance—that drives away morning tiredness and languor. For the girl or woman that wants to be happy, healthy, winning—who values rosy cheeks, laughing eyes and abundant good spirits, nothing can compare with Ferrozone. 50c. per box, or six for $2.50. now there would be an increase. His statement as embodied in the official report is as follows:

The hon. leader of the opposition had thought it good tactics in view of that convention, to come to this House and propose an amendment to the Address, hoping that it would bring all his followers into line and enable him to tell the country that the party was reunited. The wonderful effect which that amendment had had upon the House was shown by a report which appeared in the St. John Standard. The Speaker proceeded to quote that in full.

The Stumpage Question

If the Hon. member who moved the amendment had really desired to increase the revenue and benefit the Province instead of embarrassing the administration he would have chosen some other time during the session when it would be possible for hon. members to vote without prejudice. Nobody knew better than the hon. member if that amendment to the address was adopted, it would be an expression of want of confidence in the government, and no matter how meritorious the principle of the amendment may be its adoption was not possible. The question of stumpage having been introduced into the debate it might be well to recall a certain dark page of the history of the Province placed upon record by a report of a Royal Commission appointed by the Government in which the hon. member held office in 1914. It was surprising to note that the hon. leader of the opposition was proposing a $7 rate of stumpage although in the spring of 1914 he was one of the Executive Council which completed a deal whereby in return for some $100,000 paid into a campaign fund, an order in council was passed which gave the right to cut lumber on Crown Lands for ten years at a stated rate of stumpage of $1.50 per year. That order in council was passed April 2nd 1914 and was not rescinded until June 1, 1915. Had it not been for the charges preferred by his hon. friend the senior member from Madawaska that order in council would have never been cancelled and the increased revenue obtained from stumpage in 1918-19 would have been lost. The hon. member having drawn attention to stumpage on private lands compared with that on Crown Lands might have made his comparison as complete as possible. He should have told the people that Crown Land Licenses made payments in addition to stumpage. He should have said they pay $8.00 per mile per annum as a fixed charge, a wild land tax on every acre a fire protection tax and a bonus. In addition he might have said that the big lumbermen have heavy investments in permanent plants whereas private lands are frequently lumbered by portable mills. His hon. friend made no pronouncement on the question of stumpage in the campaign of 1917 nor at the St. John Convention. Had the famous or infamous order in council remained the present Government could not have increased the stumpage rate in 1917 and 1919.

The stumpage rate must be fixed each year prior to August 1st. In 1917 the Government increased the rate $1.00. In 1918 he (Foster) wrote for information to four of the largest shippers of the Province. Owing to the submarine warfare conditions were precarious in the lumber trade and it was decided not to disturb the rate. In 1919, another increase of $1.00 was made making the rate $3.50 for Spruce. He was free to admit that conditions had changed materially. Since that time, the price of lumber had advanced but he proposed to deal with public business as he would with private. He would stand by the agreement which had been made and the stump-age would remain as it was until the time came for a change. If conditions continue the same until August 1st, 1920 there will be an increase in stumpage. Hon. members opposite could not fix the stumpage rate. The Government could and would at the proper time. For that reason he would ask his followers to vote down the amendment. He believed the people of the Province had confidence in the Government.

Continuing the Hon. Premier said: We have before us as a people many problems. The burdens of the war will be felt for many years to come and the only way in which the exchange situation can be righted is by increasing our production and thereby our sales abroad. As a government, we will continue the development of our water powers, making good roads, promoting colonization, safeguarding our Crown lands and the revenue therefrom, aiding education, establishing technical schools, fostering agriculture and the expenditure of our income therefrom in the best interests of the people. With these things in view, we will ever have before us that aim to carry on the government of the province based upon the principles of peace, justice, harmony and tolerance, guarding to our utmost the rights of any class which goes to make up our population. These things we will do while our friends opposite can continue their quarrels brought about by the division of the spoils when in office and endeavor to patch up the fragments of their party."

MR. SMITH (Carleton) moved the adjournment of the debate, which was made the order of the day tomorrow at three o'clock.

MR. MURRAY (Kings) said that the Hon. Premier had not confined his remarks to the amendment, but had discussed the Address. Other hon. members would have like privilege.

Adjourned at 5.26.

Before the discovery of mechanical flying few believed it possible. The trouble is that now everybody believes everything possible.

Summer feminine fashions have not yet made an actual appearance, but we can take the optimistic view—we feel they can't be any worse.
