PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING YESTERDAY HAD THE GREATEST BIRTHDAY PARTY OF HIS LIFE

RECEIVED THE ELECTION RETURNS AT HIS HOME

A Flood of Congratulatory Messages Poured in Upon Him—Played on the Golf Links During the Day—Just Plain Ordinary Fellow But Is on the Square.

Marion, O., Nov. 2.—Warren G. Harding tonight had the greatest birthday party of his life.

Surrounded by members of his family and a circle of neighbors and personal friends, he received quietly at his home here the tribute of the millions who had voted to present him on his fifty-fifth anniversary with the Presidency of the United States.

The smile of confidence he had worn for weeks broadened as he read the early returns and began to receive a flood of congratulatory messages hailing him as President-elect. He deferred any formal comment, however, until the result should have been established beyond all doubt.

During the day he outwardly had concerned himself very little with the pending national decision. With Mrs. Harding he voted during the morning and then made off for a forty mile automobile ride and a game of golf at the Scioto Club near Columbus. He returned in the early evening, his face flushed by the raw fall air and his spirits heightened by the tramp over the muddy golf links.

While the Senator was at dinner late in the evening a committee of the employees of the Marion Star, his newspaper, called to present him with a gold printer's make-up rule and he came out on the front porch and with his voice choking with emotion thanked them for their devotion.

"I don't know of any call," he said, haltingly, as tears rolled down his cheeks, "that has aroused my emotions more than this. I have worked with you and I have tried to be honest with you, and God knows if I am called to responsibility I am going to be honest with everybody in the world. I don't know if I can meet these responsibilities fully, but I know that I can meet them with the same honesty that I have treated you."

"I am just a plain, ordinary fellow, but I can be on the square, and that's all there is to it."

PIPE SMOKER AN ENEMY OF CIGARETTES

Special Correspondence of C. A. N. S. London, Oct. 25.—London's most interesting pipe smoker has become the sworn enemy of cigarettes and fancy pipe "mixtures." He is "Sandy" a record-breaking, marvellous orang-outang in the London Zoo's Ape House, who hobnobs with a Duke and has a circle of many other distinguished friends.

"Sandy" likes his tobacco black—the blackest of shags—and no amount of coaxing can get him to smoke the fancy tobaccos that are brought to him, and he abhors cigarettes.

No orang-outang has ever lived so long in captivity, for this month Sandy has completed 15 years in the Zoo. No, orang has ever developed such wonderful facial growths it is said. He is said to be at least 25 years old and has the sleepy, eachgoing temperament that may give him another quarter of a century.

Perhaps "Sandy's" soothing habit of smoking may account for his long life. A friend of his, a major, brings a regular supply of special tobacco. His special pipe is filled for him by the senior keeper, he puts his lips to the mouthpiece, sucks and blows the smoke down his nostrils—at peace with the world.

A friend of Sandy's, the Duke of Orleans, recently held his own royal pipe to the bars. The great ape seized the mouthpiece with his fangs. The Duke tried to bargain for it with a banana. Sandy took it but kept his teeth clenched on the pipe. The Duke appealed to the keeper who held out an orange and another banana and said, "Give it back, Sandy." Then Sandy leisurely removed the Duke's property and passed it through the bars.

Returned From England. Mrs. John Graham of Forest Hill returned last week after a lengthy visit in England. She spent four months there.

ADJOURNMENT TO THURSDAY IN STABBING CASE

O'Ree Wants Mrs. Jas. Good, His Sister, Called as Witness—Complainant Sticks to Story.

The examination in the case of Edward Burke and Charles O'Ree on the charge of assault and attempt to murder laid by Arthur H. Estey of this city was continued before Police Magistrate Limerick Tuesday afternoon. Adjournment was made until Thursday.

O'Ree asked that his sister Mrs. James Good be called as a witness an alibi evidently being intended.

Cross-Examination. The cross-examination of Estey by C. L. Dougherty counsel for Burke continued Tuesday afternoon.

Witness said he did not remember saying anything about being assaulted only to Wallace Crockett that day. He came to town again a few days later and was up again on the 26th.

He laid information, if he remembered rightly on the 28th, nine days after assault. He spoke to Chief of Police on Thursday or Friday of the week of the assault and saw the Chief at his office.

At the time of assault he did not believe either man was under the influence of liquor. He had none himself.

He said he never informed on anyone as the colored man alleged. He did not know the man who assaulted him was Burke until the following Tuesday night. He came to the Chief of Police that night. He went to the Police Magistrate on the 28th. Believed the man was Burke when he met the prisoner on the street, but never saw him in daylight until in court. He was positive Burke is the man who assaulted him.

To the Magistrate. Examined by Magistrate Limerick, witness said he saw Burke looking at photos in front of a studio. He was on the sidewalk at time. Burke turned his back. Later witness stopped and prisoner came down street on bicycle.

O'Ree Questions. O'Ree put some questions to the witness who said he saw O'Ree at the Cathedral with Burke and would swear that O'Ree was the man. When asked if they had anything to say O'Ree said "not guilty" and Burke said "no." O'Ree then asked that his sister Mrs. James Good be called as a witness and the court adjourned.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN U.S. SWEEP BACK INTO POWER BY A GREAT TIDAL WAVE

States of the East and Middle West Roll Up Great Majority for Senator Warren G. Harding—Republicans Will Control Both Houses of Congress for the Next Four Years—Maine Gives a Record Majority for Republicans—Contest Regarded as a Solemn Referendum on League of Nations.

(Special to the Daily Mail.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Today's ballot counting brings still more evidence of the tremendous sweep made by Senator Harding. The Democrats concede their defeat both in the Presidency and Congress. Harding is assured of 328 votes in the electoral college against Cox's 127.

A despatch at noon says: One of the most sweeping Republican victories in party history today stood recorded for Senator Warren G. Harding for President and a Republican Congress. Tremendous and unparalleled Republican pluralities beginning with the first count of ballots in yesterday's election continued mounting today. Defeat in their fight both for the Presidency and Congress was conceded early by the Democratic national leaders on the basis of the crushing Republican vote, and despite the absence even early today of final and official figures with the Presidency and Congress went lost to the Democrats of governors, state legislatures and other state and local candidates. The break even threatened to extend into the border states, the hitherto "Solid South" with Republican gains in some southern states larger than any since the civil war.

Senator Harding's victory in what Governor Cox of Ohio, his Democratic opponent, and other Democratic leaders and many prominent Republicans hailed as the "solemn referendum" upon the League of Nations, was impressive.

In the absence of final figures, the swelling tide of huge pluralities early today gave him assurance of 329 votes in the electoral college as against 127 for Governor Cox, with 75 doubtful inclusive of states where the Republican tide was running strong.

MINISTER OF FINANCE GIVES OUT STATEMENT

Up to the End of March the Amount Expended was 180,000,000 Francs—Germany Has Paid a Portion of the Cost—Extensive Building Operations to be Carried On.

(By H. W. Francis, staff corr., by Cross-Atlantic Service.)

Paris, Nov. 3.—In the Chamber of Deputies the Minister of Finance stated that the cost of the occupation of German territory up to the end of March, 1920, amounted to 180,000,000 francs. Towards this amount Germany had so far paid 1,388,000,000 marks. The sum of 180,000,000 represents at the present exchange, 7,200,000,000 marks. This sum, however, represents only cash payments made to the French government, the other expenses cannot ever be estimated. The values commandeered amount to at least six billion marks.

Claims are Increasing. The French claims increase on an upward scale. Near Kaiserslautern (Palatinat, near Alsace), a valuable wooded plot of land of 600 hectares has just been commandeered for the erection of a munition depot which will cost Germany at least 110,000,000 marks. Germany has been requested to erect a benzine tank, the installation of which will at the lowest estimate cost her 40,000,000 marks. These two constructions will suffice for an army of millions.

Near Treves the French plan the erection of a field bakery which will supply bread for 400,000 men; furthermore a drilling hall for railway troops is now in course of erection. For the latter 300 acres of fertile land, mostly cultivated by small farmers, are demanded.

The German government intends to ask the League of Nations if these military establishments are really necessary for a peaceable occupation in accordance with the Versailles treaty.

SMUGGLERS MADE USE OF ARMORED CARS

Special Correspondence of C. A. N. S. Paris, Oct. 25.—Desperate smugglers in armored motor-cars and armed with automatic pistols, rifles, and hand grenades are making the work of the Customs guards on the Franco-Belgian frontier very dangerous. These cars are laden with tobacco, spirits, lace, saccharin and other highly dutiable articles which can be obtained cheaply in Belgium and have a ready sale in the populous regions in the north of France.

Reorganized since the war, the Customs guards have captured some of the cars but, have not arrested any leading members of the gangs. The smugglers first send scouts on motor cycles ahead of the expedition. They see if the way is clear, and, if there are no awkward barriers to cross, send back the signal and the motor-cars dash over.

At Bailleul the Customs men had a running fight with the crew of one of these cars. The smugglers threw burning cans of petrol into the road behind them to try to stop their pursuers. The frontier guards, however shot and killed the smugglers on the driving seat. The other members of the gang escaped across the country. The car contained three tons of tobacco.

Another car, in which were six men armed with rifles, broke across the frontier at Valenciennes through the guards amid a hail of bullets. A short distance along the road another detachment of Customs men had been warned by telephone and set up a barrier of barbed wire. The car dashed into this, but, owing to the fact that its front axle carried powerful wirecutting blades, it got clear. A chance shot from one of the guards, however, penetrated its petrol tank and it was found abandoned and burning a couple of miles away. The smugglers escaped.

Another Sugar Cut. A despatch from the Dominion Sugar Company, Limited, Montreal, announces that they have reduced their price by one dollar per hundred, effective this morning, on cane and beet sugars, to the basis of $14.50 at Montreal, St. John and Halifax.
