VIENNA PROFESSOR CAN MAKE OLD PEOPLE YOUNG

Claims to Have Discovered the Fountain of Youth—Revival of the Germ Glands Made Possible by a Simple Operation—Began Experimenting on Rats Ten Years Ago and Succeeded in Renewing Their Youth.

By Lydia Kingsmill, Commander Staff correspondent of Daily Mail, Cross Atlantic News Service.

London, Sept. 1st—Ponce de Leon was a fine old man with a fine old idea. But alas! he is gone and his idea remains only an idea. The Fountain of Youth is pointed out in several places at St. Augustine, Florida, but so far all the fountains together have failed to make one old man young. Every little while a modern Ponce de Leon rises up and offers to restore to us youth and beauty after old Father Time has been scratching at our faces for so many years that the marks have sunk deep. The latest man to offer the one best boon to humanity, the Vienna University Professor Dr. Eugen Steinbach, has just disclosed some remarkable particulars with regard to his discoveries in the direction of making old people young again.

He is a typical scientist, with a long grey beard, sharp features, and energetic eyes, and looks keen and clever enough to have discovered anything. So let us hope he has found out how we can be forever young and lovely.

The revival of the germ glands that supply us with youth is he claims, made possible by a simple operation, while a similar result can be obtained by the repeated application of the Rontgen Ray and X Ray.

Dr. Steinbach states that he began experimenting on a rat ten years ago. After two years he discovered that senile rats showed renewed youth within four weeks after an operation on the germ gland or treatment with X rays. He now has a big collection of photographs of rats before and after the operation. Senile animals after being treated, carried their heads high and became regular gay Lotharios. Their eyes were bright again, and their fur coats thick and woolly. Descendants of the rejuvenated animals developed splendidly.

Dr. Steinbach performed operations on three men on occasions when they were receiving surgical treatment for some other reason. He kept the fact of his having also performed this special youth-renewing operation a secret and the patients were and still are perfectly unaware of what happened to them. The three experiments were successful, and after two months the patients regained their vital energy, but to this day they have no idea why they again feel so cherio.

Youth Renewed

He has a letter from a seventy-one year old man, who says: "I am feeling rejuvenated in every way; my hair and nails are growing quicker than before my appetite is similar to that of a thirty year old man, and my general appearance is like that of a man in the fifties. The trembling of my hands has disappeared entirely."

Women treated with X rays showed similar results. It is now suggested that Ninon de l'Enclos, the famous French beauty of the 17th century, who was in her hey-day as a fascinator when she was over seventy must have had this germ gland renewal secret and let it die with her at the ripe old age of ninety two; for the Professor says that the lifetime of the animals he experimented upon was in every case prolonged by one-fourth, and they retained their vigor to the end. He also says that his funds for further experiments are exhausted, and that he is now only making his discovery public in order that rich philanthropists may step forward and assist him. Queen Elizabeth slipped away 317 years too soon. Her last words were "Millions of money for a moment of Time!" And if Dr. Steinbach had been on hand that would have been her opportunity—and his.
