ABILITY AND ITS REWARD.

In a recent issue the Ottawa Citizen has the following:

"When the research of one man adds to the wealth of the nation by at least $15,000,000, and the research worker does not take one penny of it for himself, how can the nation's gratitude best be expressed? Dr. Charles E. Saunders, Dominion cerealist at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has enriched Canada to this extent by the discovery of Marquis wheat alone. He has done more, and, provided it is possible for him to stay in the public service of Canada, can do still more."

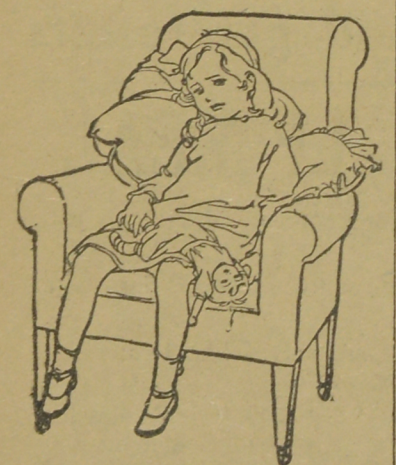

Dr. Saunders has indeed deserved well of the country for his self-sacrificing devotion to the cause of its primary industry. With him, in the same cause, are many whose ability and talent are being exercised in the public welfare. It is one of the ironies, indeed, in a sense, one of the tragedies, of our social and economic organization, that what ability creates can be and generally is exploited by craft and privilege to their own advantage. If all that we owe to ability had been and could be reserved absolutely for social service as the product of the ability of Dr. Saunders, there would be precious few millionaires in the world. Strictly speaking, whatever superiority civilization has over barbarism is due to ability, and if one wants to indulge in the pastime of speculation, a little figuring as to where the majority of us would be if the men of ability and their heirs had taken from society the full product of ability, might prove highly interesting.

In these days of monopoly wealth, watered stocks, individual appropriation of socially created values, and the popular notion that big fortunes are the creation of exceptional ability, it is comforting to reflect that real ability never does demand its full pound of flesh from society. We have hailed General Foch as the deliverer of Europe. Suppose he had estimated the value of his services in terms of the eulogies showered upon him, what would have been his fee? Suppose at a critical moment in the war he had turned to the Allies and said: "Gentlemen, I can defeat the enemy, and as by defeating him I 'make the world safe for democracy,' I demand as my fee for the service one-half of the indemnity to be imposed on Germany." It would have been a terrible thing for him to do, but would his action have been economically indefensible? If a man with goods to sell or land to rent, or money to loan, lay charge all that the market may allow him, why should not a man value his services not in terms of the cost to himself, but in terms of the advantage accruing to those who employ him?

It is very obvious that if humanity had never known men whose lives exemplified the spirit of service, if all

SYRUP OF FIGS CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and bowels.

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear. Mother! you must say "California Syrup of Figs."

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS OVERCOME BY SAFE METHOD

SUGGESTIONS GIVEN WHEREBY INSOMNIA CAN BE SAFELY AND QUICKLY CURED.

Worry, overwork, overstudy and indigestion cause insomnia. Healthy, natural sleep can't be produced by drugs.

First the blood circulation must be improved:

Congestion of blood in the head must be removed.

Irritation in the brain must be relieved.

It's because Ferrozone equalizes circulation, because it soothes the irritation, because it removes congestion that it does cure insomnia.

For building blood and nerve, for instilling force and life into over-worked organs, for establishing strength and vitality, where can you find anything so efficient as Ferrozone?

Remember, sleep is just as important as food.

You must sleep, or break down, but if you'll use Ferrozone and thereby remove the conditions which now keep you from sleep, you'll get well quickly.

Ferrozone is not a narcotic, not a dope; it is a health-giving tonic that any child or delicate woman can use. Absolutely safe is Ferrozone.

Take it for a month, take it for a year—no harm, but immeasurable good will result.

To sleep well, look well, feel well, to be free from depression, nervousness or blues—use Ferrozone. It's a food tonic, a healer to the weak and wretched, a boon to the sleepless—sold in 50c. boxes, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct from The Catarrh-ozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

had measured in a purely commercial sense their contributions to culture and civilization, the world would have been in a poor way today.

LEADER MURRAY'S BOMB.

A Yankee humorist employed on the staff of the St. John Standard, in writing up the scene in the Legislature which followed the explosion of Leader Murray's "bomb" on the stumpage question, got off the following:

"Stunned, bewildered, helpless, Premier Foster and members of his government found themselves today, when Hon. J. A. Murray, leader of the Opposition, fired a shell into their camp which exploded with telling effect. The shock to the sensibilities of the Government side of the House following the explosion was pitiful to behold. It turned a party of smiling, chuckling, joyous solons into a mournful looking one, upon whose faces were depicted helplessness and despair."

In describing the effect of the "terrible blow" on the Government and its followers, he said:

"The blow was delivered with cruel effectiveness. It was a wallop to the solar plexus. So stunned were Government members they failed to realize that the Speaker had declared the House adjourned."

It must have been a terrible blow to the Standard writer to discover, when the smoke of battle cleared away, that the casualties were all on the opposition side of the House, and that only thirteen of Leader Murray's followers were able to answer the roll call. In other words Leader Murray suffered the loss of two men in the attack, and four others were reported missing. For a government that was supposed to have been "stunned, bewildered and helpless" at the very beginning of the fray, it certainly achieved a great victory.

The St. John Standard goes far out of its way to make an attack on some of the officials of the Legislature. It insinuates that they are not familiar with their duties and "balled things up" when the first division was taken. The Standard is barking up the wrong tree. The newly appointed officials of the Legislature are hard workers and are performing their duties in a satisfactory manner. The new owner of the Standard should prohibit the new editor from giving vent to personal spleen.

WAR MEMORAL TO TAKE FORM OF MONUMENT

The motion was carried unanimously.

Judge Crocket raised the question as to whether the County of York should be included.

Bishop Richardson was in favor of the confinement of the project to the city. It brought the personal side closer.

Col. Loggie thought York and Sunbury Counties should be included.

To Include Counties

Dr. Jones thought the counties should be informed of what the city was going to do, and to be given an opportunity to come in if they wished.

Judge Barry and Mr. Jennings thought that if the counties were to be asked to come in that they should be given an opportunity to express themselves as to the form of the memorial.

Mr. Hanson thought that if the counties were asked to come in they would do nothing of their own accord. He thought it would be well to arrange to meet the County Councillors in July. In the meantime to gather data, sound opinion, etc.

Judge Barry thought it unnecessary to wait until July. He thought the Councillors of York and Sunbury and the Town Councillors of Devon and Marysville should be called to meet with the committee and discuss the movement.

Mr. Jennings thought it should be confined to York County.

It was moved by Judge Barry, seconded by J. J. F. Winslow, "That the County Councillors of the counties of York and Sunbury, and the mayor and aldermen of the towns of Devon and TWO MEMORIAL.....ze.o.5a.CRCr Marysville be invited to cooperate with the City of Fredericton in the erection of a monument to the memory of the sons of the city and of the two counties, fallen in the great war and to, that end, to meet this committee on Tuesday, the 6th day of April next at two o'clock, in the afternoon at the Council Chamber in the City of Fredericton."

This motion was carried unanimously.

After some discussion as to the probable cost the meeting adjourned until Tuesday, April 6th.
