

RELIEVED

IN FIVE MINUTES

Consumption can be traced back in most instances to a bad cold or catarrh that was neglected. Don't court this white plague—ensure yourself at once against it by inhaling Catarrh-one, a pleasant antiseptic medication that is inhaled into the lungs, nasal passages, throat, and bronchial tubes, where it kills disease germs and prevents their development. Catarrh-one heals in flamed surfaces, relieves congestion, clears the head and throat, aids expectoration, and absolutely cures Catarrh and bronchitis. Quick relief, cure guaranteed, pleasant to use. Get the .100 outfit of Catarrh-one, it lasts two months; small size 50c. All dealers or the Catarrh-one Co., Kingston, Ont.

LIEGE'S DEFENDER
PASSES AWAY

Brussels, Oct. 18—Lieut. Gen. G. M. G. Leman, heroic defender of Liege, who was frequently called the "grain of sand that threw out of gear the wheels of the formidable German war machine," died today of pneumonia in that city. He was born there sixty-nine years ago. In addition to his military genius, he was an authority on Roman law, military architecture and engineering.

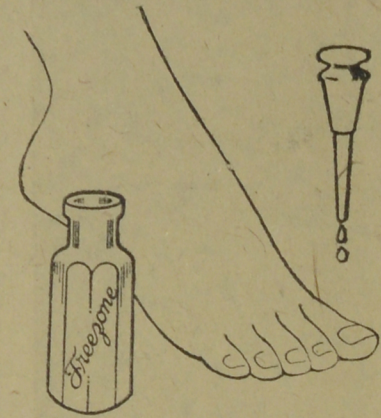

Gen. Leman has been classed with King Albert, Cardinal Mercier and Burgomaster Max of Brussels, as one of the outstanding figures of Belgium's participation in the world war. He was governor of Liege at the outbreak of the war, had forseen the hostilities, and had even told those under him the very word from which the first blow would be struck at the chain of forts he commanded. His own fearless zeal inspired 25,000 soldiers in the Belgian garrison, and for thirteen days they blocked the way of 300,000 men in seven German divisions massed in front of them.

The gallant defence Gen. Leman directed gave Belgium time to strengthen its little army, and gave France the opportunity of mobilizing hers. It disconcerted the German General Staff, which had not looked for such resistance on the march to the Marne.

The weight of the German 42 centimeter guns told, however, and Ft. Loncin fell. Gen. Leman was wounded and taken prisoner. He was released through Switzerland in 1917, because of ill health, and reached Bel-

"FREEZONE"

Lift Off Corns! No Pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit. Drop a little freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

It is the widow who marries for better or for worse. It is not where a man lives that counts. It's where he hangs out.

It is in time to participate in the triumphal march back into his native city.

PROTECTING
THE PUBLIC

(From the Toronto Star).

"Sugar is putting on a performance which attracts attention and draws crowds. Everybody is watching sugar instead of listening to the doctrines elaborated by the experts who attend the tariff enquiry. American sugar is selling for rather more than half the price charged in Canada. But it is being kept out of this country because this country is stocked up with high-priced sugar which must be worked off on the public before the price is allowed to come down. Otherwise there would be a loss on sugar which would fall upon those in the sugar business, and the theory on which protected industries proceed is that gains are theirs, but losses must be borne by the consuming public. The government at Ottawa is using its powers to save this country from the disaster of having the people supplied with cheap sugar."

PASSED AWAY IN THE WEST

Moncton, Oct. 19—Very many friends throughout the province will sincerely regret to learn of the death of Mrs. James C. Jordan which occurred on Sunday at her residence in San Francisco. The Hon. C. W. Robinson, Minister of Lands and Mines, received the sad intelligence on Sunday evening from San Francisco.

The deceased Mrs. Jordan, who was formerly Miss Jeanette Stiles, was born in Albert County, but after her marriage she resided with her husband, Mr. James C. Jordan, of the well known firm of Jordan, Marsh Co., Ltd., Boston, Mass.

Some years ago Mr. and Mrs. Jordan took up their residence for the summer months at River Glade, where they built a beautiful home, and resided during the summer months until their removal to San Francisco, where since which time Mrs. Jordan has made her home. It will be well remembered that the Jordan Memorial Sanatorium, which is one of the most generous gifts to the province was donated by Mrs. Jordan after her husband's death, to the province of New Brunswick some years ago, since which time Mrs. Jordan has spent considerable money in the way of improvements, and which institution has been of the greatest benefit, not only to tubercular patients but as a military hospital.

Mrs. Jordan was a generous and public spirited woman. Not only in New Brunswick did she show her generosity but in Boston where she spent the greater part of her married life, and also in her new home in San Francisco, has she contributed largely to public funds and all worthy institutions. Her goodness is known throughout the Maritime Provinces, being a generous giver, many institutions throughout the provinces having profited by her generosity.

Mrs. Jordan leaves to mourn a large number of relatives throughout Albert and Westmorland Counties, some of whom reside in this city. The news of her sudden demise will occasion sincere sympathy for the large number of relatives and friends whom she leaves to mourn.

UPROAR AT PENITENTIARY

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 18—As a startling aftermath to the attempted general jail delivery at the Portsmouth penitentiary, between 150 and 200 convicts at the penitentiary went on strike on Saturday and since then have absolutely refused to work.

Late on Saturday the construction gang, known as the "stonepile" gang and tailor shop gang refused to work, and were locked in their cells. All Saturday night and most of Sunday they kept up an uproar, shouting and hammering on their cell doors with their eating utensils. The ring-leaders of the two gangs were locked up in separate places but the uproar continued.

This morning the mason gang refused to work and they also were locked up. Throughout the day the shouting by this gang continued and could be heard for blocks.

This afternoon was a half-holiday at the penitentiary and every phase of work in the institution was stopped. The uproar, however, continued, and it is likely that stringent measures will be taken to put down the strike.

A HUSBAND'S BRUTAL ACT

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 19—The police today prepared to conduct a search in Manville for the grave of a woman reported to have been buried alive by her husband. With them the police planned to take Mike Cuiak of that town who has been held here since he is alleged to have told friends that a boarding house proprietor there beat his wife, tied her hands and feet and then buried her. The police have not made public the name of the boarding house keeper or the wife, he is supposed to have killed.

According to the authorities, Cuiak appeared in a rational state of mind and was not unwilling to accompany the searching party.

Ships that Pass in the Night

Foreign Trade is Essential to Domestic Prosperity.

Else—stagnation at home. New routes must be opened, Canadian Trade Lines must be established and maintained. With ships, the markets of the world are open to Canadians. Canada produces a surplus of necessities. Commercial supremacy means—the ability to carry where and when required, to sell without interference, and

Demands the Freedom of the Seas.

By willingness and ability to provide ships, Canada this year has drawn the West Indies closer to herself and to the Empire. She can make preferential trade agreements with other peoples under the British Flag without arousing international complications.

The trade of 45,000,000 people in British Tropical Africa is waiting for us to-day.

Trade Follows the Flag.

The very existence of the Empire proves it. But to secure trade there must be ships and men with adventurous spirit to man them—and men with vision to seek out markets.

The Navy League advocates a Merchant Marine, officered and manned by Canadians trading from Canadian ports.

Politics have no place in this work. It promotes a national ideal. Commercial and agricultural prosperity depend upon it.

Unless we develop Overseas Trade, we may become mere hewers of wood and drawers of water for other nations.

To carry on this work costs Money.
The money must come from the Public.
