

SUFFERED WITH BOILS LAST 5 YEARS

THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

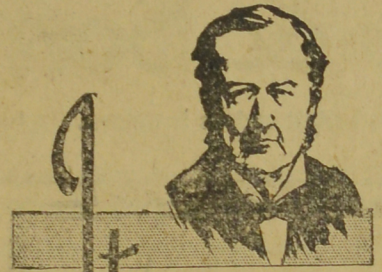

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get rid of the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery is at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robt. Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes: "I have suffered very much during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NEW YORK PASTOR HUNTING DOWN VICE TO HIS LAIRS

Rev. Dr. Straton Tells His Experiences to a Reporter — Says
He Purchased Liquor in Three Well Known Restaurants
While Disguised as a Layman—Sipped It to Make Sure It was the Real Stuff.

New York April 9—The Rev. Dr. Roach Straton, who made sensational charges regarding vice conditions in his sermon in the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday night agreed yesterday to repeat his story before both the Federal and county Grand Juries.

He will appear before the Federal body tomorrow with the two young men who accompanied him on his recent tour of resorts in the new ten-derloin. According to the clergyman, they will corroborate his statement that he succeeded in purchasing liquor in three well known restaurants.

They have agreed to go before the March county Grand Jury on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of telling about the flagrant violations of the State laws which, according to the pastor were observed in every place visited by the party, and which relate to the police graft situation that this body is probing.

The pastor conferred yesterday in his study in Calvary Baptist Church with Assistant District Attorney Jas. E. Smith, who is directing the Grand Jury's inquiry.

Some Vice Confessions.

To a reporter Dr. Straton made some startling amplifications of his previous statements, declaring that confessions made to him by members of his congregation and other stories that had floated to his ears from reliable sources had convinced him that "our young people are in danger every time they turn around," and that he is morally certain present evil conditions could not exist without protection of some sort. He said he did not believe conditions could have been any worse in the old "red light" days.

To show how widespread the conditions complained of are at the present time, the clergyman related a harrowing tale of how a young man associated with him had been referred to a disreputable house through a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association. He assured the reporter that he did not mean to imply that the persons connected with the Y. M. C. A. knew the character of the place but said it proved how many are the pitfalls that await the youth of today.

The young man he said, went to the Y. M. C. A. in quest of living accommodations and was referred to a house on the upper West Side, where he was to share the room of another young man. After two nights there he learned that the use of the premises were not altogether limited to bachelors, as he had at first been informed. He left the place and told the clergyman of his experience. This was one of the things that impressed Dr. Straton with the idea that if the monster vice were to be slain he must buckle on his shining armor and get after it in person.

Disguised as Layman.

The clergyman revealed some other things that he did not disclose to his congregation Sunday night. He said that when he set out to ascertain at first hand just how iniquitous conditions are he adopted a disguise. The reporter had visions of the clergyman in a checkered suit with a carnation in his buttonhole and a red necktie, but Dr. Straton assured him that the disguise consisted simply of some layman's clothes, a soft hat and a worldly air. "We just went to it as if we were there for business," he said.

The clergyman also explained that he knew it was whiskey that had been whiskey that had been served to his party in the restaurants he visited because he had "sipped every drink."

"Do you know the taste of whiskey?" he was asked.

"I certainly do," replied the clergyman.

Asked what became of the drinks that had been ordered for the young men who accompanied him, the pastor said: "They attended to that end of it."

Dr. Straton would not reveal the identity of these young men, but he said that neither is connected with his church. The affidavits they have made to support the statement in his sermon were withheld by the pastor who said the full details of his trip would be given to the grand juries.

"I have set myself the task of repeatedly hitting the rock of vice until I split it wide open," he said. "This vicious life gets one thousand women for every one that the church gets. I have done no more than any clergyman should do. From my observation the places where liquor is sold seem to run in chains. When you are leaving one place the waiter will tell you of another where you can get it. I don't favor a return to the red light system. I believe that the laws should be enforced. The responsibility for all of this comes back to the moral tone of our citizenship."

NOTICE TO QUIT CAUSED DEATH

New York, April 10—The delivery of a letter in which he was informed he must vacate his home at 405 North Main street, Port Chester, proved fatal yesterday to Carl Buelow, 52, a descendant of Gen. Von Buelow, the German military commander in the Franco-Prussian war. He was in bed ill with heart disease when the notice was delivered and was stricken with the attack that caused his death soon after reading it.

CANADA'S AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

Throughout Canada there is one automobile for every twenty-five people, the Dominion in this respect taking only second place to the United States, where there is one to every fifteen persons. Since the introduction of the car into Canada, the industry has made phenomenal strides. Just how remarkable the growth has been may be realized from the fact that whereas in 1903 in all the breadth of the Dominion there were but 220 car owners, in 1919 the number of registrations totalled 324,886. By provinces the registration of cars is as follows: Ontario, 139,288; Saskatchewan, 54,792; Alberta, 34,000; Quebec, 29,183; Manitoba, 29,163; British Columbia, 19,500; Nova Scotia, 9,900; New Brunswick, 8,061; Prince Edward Island, 999.

At the present time the sum of $50,000,000 is invested in the Canadian motor industry, and its various lines account for the employment of more than 15,000 people. The estimated aggregate sale of cars in Canada last year was over $100,000,000 and expert investigation has elicited the probability of a 35 per cent increase over these figures for the year 1920.

Ontario Canada's Motor Province.

Ontario is the motor province of Canada in manufactures as well as ownership. Windsor, with its surrounding communities of Walkerville and Ford City, Oshawa and Toronto are the most important manufacturing towns. The Ford Motor Company at Walkerville employs 3,470 employees at the home office. The plant covering 9 acres. The recently completed plants of the Canadian Products, Ltd., division of the General Motors of Canada, constructed at Walkerville, cost $6,000,000. Other large plants in the Windsor district are Maxwell's and the Studebaker Corporation, in addition to which there is a large number of plants turning out accessories and automobile parts. At Oshawa, the General Motors Corporation of Canada has three large plants, where McLaughlin, Chevrolet and Oldsmobile cars are manufactured. Last year between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 was spent in this town on extensions and improvements in connection with the industry. In Toronto the Willys-Overland is the principal plant, whilst London, Chatham, Kitchener, Hamilton and Brockville are also interested in the manufacture. Montreal, in Quebec, is also largely interested in motor industries.

Imports and Exports.

Canada is largely interested in both the import and export of automobiles. In 1919 the imports of cars, parts and accessories amounted to $12,201,119, while exports for the same period were valued at $10,889,234. The imports were practically all from the United States. The growth of the export trade can be seen from a comparison with the figures of 1917 and 1918 which were $3,210,120 and $4,418,976 respectively. Australia was the Dominion's best buyer last year the Commonwealth buying $2,440,000 worth of cars. New Zealand came next with $1,185,000, then the United Kingdom, $721,000 and India $664,000. Turkey took freight automobiles to the value of $621,023, exports to the United States totalled $329,068, mainly parts, and to the Argentine Republic $552,460.

The British preferential tariff which went into effect on September 1st, 1919, is expected to impart a considerable stimulus to the Canadian automobile industry. It grants preference of one-third provided that not less than 25 per cent of the labor on the finished car shall have been done within the British Empire.

St. John Water Supply

In connection with the statement made in the House of Assembly by Thomas Carson, M. P. P., for St. John County last week, the Minister of Health Hon. W. F. Roberts has made a statement through the St. John that conditions surrounding the source of supply of water used in St. John City were investigated by his Department in 1918 and a recommendation made that the city acquire a zone a quarter of a mile wide around the margin of the lakes from which the water is taken.

Libel Suit Threatened

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works, has threatened suit against L'Evangeline an Acadian weekly published in French in Moncton and edited by Alfred N. Roy. Hon. Mr. Veniot takes exception to a letter from an anonymous correspondent concerning his relationship with the Caraque Railway Company.

A city boy is almost always happy on a farm, but no one thinks of suggesting that he take up farming.
