OF THE STARS
IN FILMLAND

SHORT REELES
Work on Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's great drama, "Mid-Channel," with Clara Kimball Young in the role made famous by Ethel Barrymore, has been begun in Los Angeles.
Valerie de Chevalier, a former favorite of the Comedie Francaise in Paris, has been chosen for an important role in the first independently produced Allen-Holubar-Dorothy Phillips production.
Dorothy Cummins who scored a success as Evelyn Gree in Belasco's stage production, "Tiger, Tiger," has arrived in New York to take an important role in the "Idols of Clay," featuring Mae Murray and David Powell.
George Walsh, famous athletic star, has completed "Number 17," the Louis Tracy story. He soon will begin work on "The Plunger," an original story by Thomas F. Fallon.
William Farnum has begun work on "The Scuttlers."
Zena Keefe will appear in "Red Foam."

Director Charles Giblyn, who with 25 players in now at Pineville, Ky., awaiting the arrival of Pearl White from Europe, reports that he has obtained one of the most picturesque mountain locations ever photographed by a motion picture camera. The title of Miss White's third Fox photoplay is withheld for the present, but it is said that the role she will assume will be very different from any she has yet played.
Charles Ray's dog, Whiskers, held up work on the production of "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway" at the Ray studio for a few hours the other day while he was taken to the dog hospital. Something was said to have gotten into his ear. Whether it was a cootie or a rumor of the size of his master's new income as a result of his contract with First National has not been discovered. Whatever it was, Whiskers became awfully temperamental for a while.
Wallace Reid has returned from his vacation and begun work on "The Charm School," a picturization of Alice Duer Miller's story. The plot deals with the perplexities of a young man who falls heir to a girls' boarding school. It was a corking book, an amusing play, and it's bound to be a good film.

Another good book is going to be screened, "Torchy," the red-headed office boy creation of Sewell Ford, will soon be seen in a series of screen comedies. Seven volumes of the Torchy stories have been published and the screen rights to these and Ford's future stories have been acquired to star Johnny Hines, one of the best-known comedians.

London Punch says. Far be it from us to slip ashes in anybody's ice cream but the bird we'd like to mourn for is the one who reads movie titles out loud.

In addition to Mary Pickford two players who have since attained stellar honors are in the cast of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," the Arctcraft picture which is being reissued this month. They are Marjorie Daw, whom Marshall Neilan has just made a star, and Eugene O'Brien, Selznick's newest featured player.

When The Sea Gives Up Its Dead
A Talk On Thanksgiving

Do you really give thanks?—
What does Thanksgiving mean to you? Has it any spiritual significance, or is it merely an occasion for feasting?

It is not our purpose to preach, but it is our purpose to bring home to you some things for which, as a Canadian, you should give thanks.

Consider your welfare in contrast to the hopelessness of many Europeans, remembering that but for the spiritual and personal sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of our Soldiers and Seamen, Canada might be suffering as Europe is to-day.

Then consider those who still bear the loss of husbands and fathers and sons and who must continue to suffer this loss until the sea gives up its dead.

There are, in this country, wives and mothers and children whose husbands and sons and fathers just as surely laid down their lives for Canada's welfare and protection as did soldiers and sailors who died in battle.

Canada's Merchant Sailors—the unsung dead—the plain men of undaunted courage and spirit, who won for their grave the boundless deep. Cypress nor Yew shall weave for them their shade. Their memory is graven in the lonely hearts of waiting women and uncomprehending childhood.

During the war the people of Canada undertook to provide for such as these. They are the people's charge. The Navy League is merely their trustee—you are their hope and their refuge.

Special Note.—

After this year, the League expects to cease asking for funds for the relief of the Canadian dependents of Merchant Sailors who were killed on Active Service. With the Trust Funds now in hand, together with the sum set aside in the Budget, to be raised by public subscription this week, it should be possible to establish an endowment, the income from which will be sufficient to provide for these dependents until the need no longer exists.

But as many of these dependents are young children, the endowment must continue for a number of years, until they become self-supporting.

GOVERNMENT
NOW HOLDS
24 SEATS

St. John, Oct. 18—As the result of last week's declarations the government of Hon. W. E. Foster has twenty four supporters, the opposition party twelve, the United Farmers ten and the Independent Labor party two. The government gained one supporter, J. W. Scovil, of St. Stephen, on Saturday and the opposition lost one. The canvassing of the Charlotte county returns at St. Andrews on Saturday showed that Mr. Scovil had been elected by a majority of seven votes over Chauncey Pollard, Farmer. Mr. Pollard was also elected, having thirty-seven votes more than his nearest opponent, H. W. Mann, government. The figures were as follows: Dr. H. I. Taylor (opposition) 3781; S. D. Guptill (farmer) 3659; J. W. Scovil (government) 3632; Chauncey Pollard (farmer) 3625. These candidates were declared elected. The totals of the defeated candidates were: H. W. Mann (Gov.) 3588; J. M. Flewelling (Opp.) 3585; H. R. Lawrence (Gov.) 3580; Frank Kennedy (Gov.) 3439.

During the proceedings J. M. Flewelling contended that the figures given did not show his correct total, saying that in one poll at St. Stephen his vote was shown as 82 and he claimed that it should be 182. He expressed the intention of asking for a recount. He said that the added vote would be sufficient to elect him in place of Chauncey Pollard.
Kings County
Sheriff S. A. McLeod, at the declaration proceedings for Kings county at Hampton on Saturday, declared Colonel O. W. Wetmore (G), George B. Jones (O), and H. V. Dickinson (O), elected. It is rumored that there may be a recount. The official figures as declared were as follows:

Colonel O. W. Wetmore ..... 2753
S. I. Keith ..... 2682
James A. Murray ..... 2657
George B. Jones ..... 2730
H. B. Dickson ..... 2724
W. H. Huggard ..... 2517
H. M. Flewelling ..... 1510
J. F. Roach ..... 1497
St. John Recount
On an affidavit of John McKinnon of Fairville, alleging some irregularity in the counting of ballots in one of the booths in Fairville following the recent general election, application was made by J. MacMillan Trueman before Judge Armstrong on Saturday for a recount of votes in the St. John county polling districts. The judge fixed Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock for the hearing, which will take place in the grand jury room in the court house.
