Gold Watch and Fountain Pen. As a testimonial of esteem and regard for their worthy chief, the police inspectors stationed at various points along the Eastern Lines of the Canadian National Railways, met at the office of C. N. R. Special Agent A. J. Tingley, Moncton on Thursday and completely surprised him with an address and presentation of a gold watch, with inscription, the occasion being Mr. Tingley's 60th birthday anniversary. The recipient in his usual happy style made a most suitable reply. Chief Inspector Paige was also remembered by the officers under his charge and was presented with a gold-mounted fountain pen. Chief Paige expressed his warm thanks for the kind remembrance. Among the inspectors present were Messrs. Culligan of Campbellton; Dunphy, Moncton; Trenholm, Amherst; Lawson, Campbellton; Powers, of Halifax and others. Messrs. Paige and Tingley both were in Fredericton recently in special sale on Building Lots on Grey ton and County of Sunbury.
