

RUSSIAN REFUGEES ARE IN APPALLING CONDITION

Constantinople, Nov. 26.—The condition of the refugees aboard the 90 or more ships strung along the Bosphorus is appalling and a terrible catastrophe is feared unless the promptest measures are taken to land the thousands who are writhing in misery and in pain.

The correspondent visited several of the floating hospitals and madhouses today and returned to shore with forebodings of impending calamity. None of the refugees has as yet been taken ashore, excepting the sick, diseased and insane. The insane have been extremely numerous.

As the correspondent rode across the Bosphorus an unpleasant smell from the ships was wafted to his despite a strong, cold sea breeze. An American relief officer accompanied him. As soon as the pair boarded the ships the clothing of both was virtually torn off by the half-maddened refugees begging to be taken to land on the open hills which border the Bosphorus.

Men, women and children, regardless of age or sex, are herded together promiscuously on the ships day and night, in a state of appalling filth and misery. Many women of refinement, despite their bedraggled appearance, offered to barter their valuables, jewels and furs for a crust of bread or a glass of water. In some cases the refugees have been without water for 11 days.

Numerous Suicides.

The correspondent heard that there had been numerous suicides of desperate refugees going insane during the night hours. They spoke of ghostly temptation and the sobbing call of the sea at night when they were dying from thirst. Many of the refugees were restrained from jumping overboard, while many succeeded.

The American Navy is assisting in transporting sick women to hospitals and the Near East Relief also has been prominent in the work. War-hardened relief nurses were moved to tears by maddened mothers offering their children to visitors, and the scenes of separation have been be-beyond description. The death rate has been abnormal as the result of the biting cold and the lack of food. The American Red Cross is offering 36,000 rations daily and several Americans are offering donations and subscriptions.

The French Government, which is in full charge of the relief work is incapable of dealing with the situation and is appealing to the Near East Relief, whose funds are limited. The fear was expressed by the ships' officers that cases of cannibalism would occur unless food supplies are received promptly. In many cases they had to fight off maddened men from slaying children, they declared.

The American hospital in Stamboul is crowded to suffocation and the American Red Cross is giving all its available medical supplies.

MOONEY BOMB PLOT CASE TO BE REOPENED

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—Reopening of the Mooney bomb case that has agitated California and the country for four years, appears certain in view of announcement by District Attorney Mathew Brady, who said the County Grand Jury would be asked to investigate statements by Policeman Draper Hand and other persons that the convictions of Thos. J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings on the charge of exploding a bomb during the preparedness day parade here, in July, 1916, were due to fraud.

Mr. Brady said that the Grand Jury findings would be presented to Gov. Stephens, on whose clemency Mooney is now serving a life sentence in prison instead of having been executed.

According to Mr. Brady the Mooney case will be presented to the Grand Jury from every aspect. Mr. Brady has been moved not only by the statements of Patrolman Hand but also

FAILURE TO STAND CAUSED SOME TROUBLE

Brooklyn, Nov. 26.—The jury in the case of Timothy Lynch of Brooklyn, who brought a civil suit in the Superior Court against Dennis McCarthy and John J. McCarthy for alleged injuries received May 30, 1918, returned a verdict awarding $104 damages to Lynch.

All three belongs to Smith-O'Brien Branch I. N. F. The testimony showed that May 30, 1918, at the close of a regular meeting of the branch, those present stood up and sang "God Save Ireland." It is said that Lynch did not stand up and the respondents got after him. A free-for-all fight resulted in which Lynch was beaten.

Our Travelling Salesmen Enjoy Selling Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea

Travelling salesmen work very hard as a rule. They put in long hours, and the pleasure of travelling is not so great as to those of us who mostly live at home.

Naturally, therefore, these men must get a great deal of their pleasure and satisfaction from their work—they like to sell the finest of products and represent a good "house".

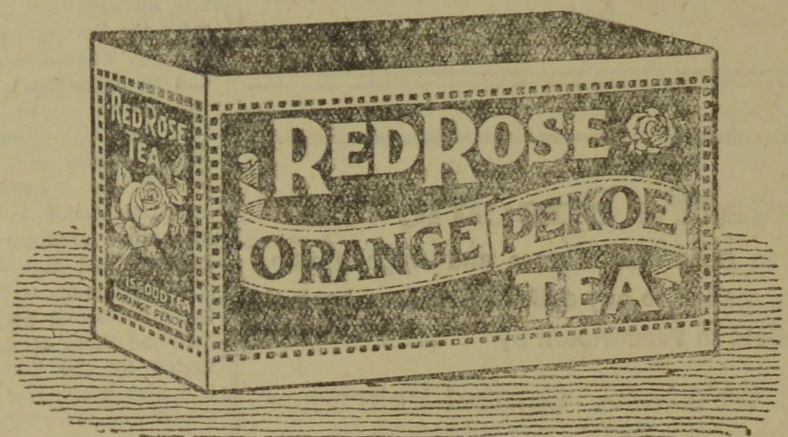

Our travelling salesmen are exceedingly critical of the products which they are asked to sell, and when we told them last January that we wanted them to sell a new tea of extra quality—much finer than has usually been sold in Canada—they were keenly interested, put the new tea to many tests amongst their friends, and gave it a lot of time and thought.

Having convinced themselves of the extra fine quality of Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea, they started on their trips full of enthusiasm.

Their satisfaction, however, has been much greater on their later trips, because of the splendid renewal orders which are following their first sales.

Like good merchants, our salesmen enjoy selling the very finest tea—Red Rose Orange Pekoe.

Try the tea which has met with so much success.

MOVEMENTS OF THE STARS IN FILMLAND

Talmadges Sign Huge Contract.

Norma and Constance Talmadge are close runners up for some of our best war patriots, and when the bank balance is struck it may be that some of our mere coal, sugar, clothing and other gentry will be revealed as mere apprentices in the dear old game of getting it while the getting is good. Both the sisters have some looks, but all who know them assert that their brains require precious little calcium, and their medulla oblongata, function with precision. They have just signed a contract for three years with the First National Company and more than $20,000,000 is involved in the future productions of these film stars. When the present management of the First National completed its great task of getting 6,000 of the country's picture houses exclusively franchised, they had to feel their way. They wanted to find what the people wanted. So they had a ballot taken in many places among movie fans to determine the actresses to be secured for the great new series. Overwhelmingly the vote was for Norma and Constance—they having garnered from their years of careful sowing. Mary Pickford's income of the past pales into mere pin money when compared with what the Talmadge girls will salt for future reference.

Grand Glorious Feeling.

Do you ever read those pictures called "Oh, Boy! Ain't it a Grand and Glorious Feeling?" You know how true they are, for sometimes your own experiences are pictured. Well when I am most awfully weary and something happens which brings me luck and happiness, it sure is a grand and glorious feeling. You know Betty Compson came home tired out. She had been playing in some little comedies trying to make a living for herself and her mother. There was a message for her to call a man named Tucker, but she was just too weary to bother about it. This same Mr. Tucker must have sensed her feelings, for he telephoned her and said that he was George Loane Tucker, the director, and wanted Miss Compson to work for him. Tired as she was she went to see him and he offered her a position telling her that it was a weary little girl he was looking for. This was her start, which proves that you never can tell just what will happen next.

Katherine Macdonald will have a splendid cast in her next picture. Among the players will be the star's younger sister, Miriam Macdonald.

A close imitation of Westminster Abbey has been built for use in The Great Adventure, Lionel Barrymore's third picture.

"To get psychic communications," explains an expert, "empty the mind." Many telephone conversations are prolonged on the same principle.
