SENATOR HARDING OF OHIO CHOSEN BY REPUBLICANS AS CANDIDATE

As the tenth roll call began delegates quit Wood and Johnson right and left and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. When the Keystone state was reached, the Ohio senator needed thirty-two votes to nominate him and Pennsylvania gave him sixty. It was Governor Sprout, himself the candidate of his state on every preceding ballot and mentioned many times as a possible dark horse who broke the dead lock when he announced the big Pennsylvania vote for Harding. Entering the coliseum floor for the first time since the balloting began, he made his way to the Pennsylvania standard, and amid cheers, released the delegation from longer supporting him. Then he took a poll, got the floor and threw in the winning Harding votes.

A demonstration of several minutes followed, most of the delegates and spectators standing and cheering while a procession carrying large pictures of the candidate and standards of some of the states that supported him took up its march around the hall. But it was too tired a convention after the gruelling excitement of the two sweltering days of balloting to long keep up such a demonstration. Senator Lodge presiding, rapped for order, and the delegates did not argue with him.

The final check up showed 692 for Harding with only 120 left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood and 80 for Johnson. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson's high point was 148, recorded on the third ballot on Friday.

A motion to make the nomination unanimous was passed on the great chorus of approval, but when opportunity was given for negative votes there were some "noes" from Wisconsin, whose delegates throughout the day had voted amid hisses and cat-calls almost solidly for Senator Robert M. La Follette.

The plan to nominate Senator Lenroot for the vice-presidency had the backing of many of the men who had helped put Harding over but the name of Governor Coolidge stirred the delegates and galleries to cheering and he was swept into second place on the ticket before the first roll call had gone two-thirds of its length. Again it was Pennsylvania which furnished the winning votes.

Governor Coolidge got 674 votes to 146 for Senator Lenroot and 68 for Governor Allen of Kansas.

Sketch of His Career

Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which state he has represented as United States senator since 1914. In private business life he is the publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star. He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county (Ohio) on November 2, 1865, the eldest of eight children. His father George T. Harding, was a country doctor, whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the Revolutionary War. The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland (Dutch) family, the Van Kirks. In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until fourteen years of age when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway. At seventeen he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a lin-type operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer and as a "make up man" is said to have few equals. The "lucky" piece he has carried as a senator is the old printer's rule he used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper. On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from "devil" to managing editor.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank and of several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented the thirteenth senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant-governor. At the 1914 election Mr. Harding was elected to the United States senate by a majority of more than 100,000 running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate he is a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

WILL ASK FOR EXPULSION OF SINN FEINER

London, June 13—Action by the British Government to end the activities of the Sinn Fein agitators in the United States and Canada is foreshadowed in action about to be taken against George Gavan Duffy, the member of Parliament representing South Dublin county.

The Government has been asked to draw the attention of the French Government to Duffy's activities in Paris, where for months he has been residing at the Grand Hotel and agitating for an Irish Republic. Request for Duffy's removal from French territory is expected. If this is approved by France he might naturally be returned into British sovereignty, where he would face trial under the anti-sedition laws. I saw today in the lobby of the House of Commons the personal card Duffy is using in France. On it is engraved in French "Envoy of the Republic of Ireland" and "Deputy of the County of Dublin."

WILL SELL THE LEVIATHAN

Washington, June 12—Bids for the sale of the Leviathan, the largest ship in the American Merchant Marine, will be opened June 30 by the Shipping Board. The Leviathan, which was taken over from Germany at the outbreak of the war, was built in 1914 at Hamburg by Blohm and Boss and has a gross tonnage of 54,282. The vessel has accommodations for 985 first-class passengers, 525 second class 848 third class and 1600 steerage.

Announcing its decision to sell the giant liner the board stated that the injunction obtained by William Randolph Hearst prohibiting the sale of the former German passenger ships was nullified by the new Merchant Marine Act which gives the board authority to dispose of its entire fleet. The ship will be sold "as is and where is," it was stated.

Pharmaceutica Results.

Announcement is made by J. B. Mahoney, registrar of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society of the results of the examinations held last week. Burt B. Boone and Frank J. Bowlen passed in all subjects, and Alonzo Brewer in general subjects.

To Attend Funeral.

A delegation from the Senate of the University of New Brunswick went to Hampton today to attend the funeral of the late Sir Ezekiel McLeod, ex-Chief Justice of New Brunswick. The Attorney General's Department was represented also and Judges of the Supreme Court, both Appeal and King's Bench divisions, attended.

SALES BY THE RETAILER ARE NOT LIABLE TO THE TAX OF 1 PER CENT

OTTAWA, June 12.—It has come to the attention of the Department of Customs and Inland Revenue that certain purely retail dealers are charging their customers with the sales tax on the sales made to consumers and showing such sales tax as a separate item on their bills or invoices. Under the resolution before parliament, the sale of goods by the bona fide retailer, selling exclusively to the consumer, is not liable to the one per cent. sales tax. The amount of the sales tax which the retailer has paid upon goods at the time of purchase from the wholesaler may be included in the retailer's bill to the consumer, provided that it is not included in the cost on which profit is calculated, and provided also that it is not shown as a separate item on such retailer's bill or invoice.
