MOVEMENTS OF THE STARS
IN FILMLAND

Doug Fairbanks' leading lady for his new picture, "The Makings," will be Ruth Renick, who has made most of her reputation on the stage as an ingenue. Work on the production has begun.

After a year's absence from the films Burr McIntosh is now at work before the camera in Leah Baird's new starring vehicle, "Cynthia-of-the-Minute" by Louis Joseph Vance. And he has drawn no simple assignment for his return, his part in the story being second only to that of Miss Baird.

Alice Joyce will have two new members in the supporting cast of her next production—Robert Gordon and Crawford Kent. Both are well known on the screen, having been the featured players in big productions.

Cullen Landis is to appear in the leading boy's part in Mary Roberts Rinehart's story, "Empire Builders," soon to be started.

Many film followers will be interested to learn that the famous Lee Kid-dies have gone into vaudeville. For some time past they have been inactive in the studios. Now it is announced that their act is being tried out preparatory to a presentation in New York.

Ernest Truex, the star of the screen comedy, "Too Good to be True," is now playing on the speaking stage in a farce called "No More Blondes."

Harold Lloyd found one of the extras in his company reading between scenes. "People should read books if they want to get anywhere in the world," the extra told Lloyd. Lloyd looked at the book. It was "Life and Adventures of the James Boys."

ONE GREAT ESSENTIAL TO A WOMAN'S HEALTH IS HER NERVES

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health. Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night, and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEART SO BAD

Was Not Safe to Leave Her Alone.

Miss Eva P. Yatenan, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, whenever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day, seeing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them, and before I had taken more than two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me, and I advise any one troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ONLY ONE IMMUNE.

A public gathering in a small town was interrupted by a man who entered hurriedly and made his way to the platform and whispered excitedly to the chairman.

"Is Mr. Smith in the audience?" broke forth the presiding officer. "I am informed that his house is on fire."

Forty gentlemen sprang to their feet.

"It is the house of Mr. John Smith," added the chairman.

"Thank God," fervently exclaimed one of the forty, resuming his seat.

An English Custom Becoming Quite Common in Canada

Every country has its national customs and habits.

For instance, England has the custom of serving afternoon tea.

English homes, stores, offices, factories, work shops, hotels and tea rooms serve afternoon tea. It is part of the national life of England.

Our soldiers poked fun at it, but were not long in acquiring the habit.

And they are not giving it up now that they are back home.

They are influencing a more general adoption of afternoon tea in Canada.

To-day this English custom is quite common in Canadian homes.

It is spreading. New tea rooms are opening all over Canada. Hotels are making a specialty of afternoon tea. The habit is invading offices, stores and work shops.

A few minutes rest in the afternoon with a cup of good tea is a wonderful reviver, giving new zest to the busy business man, stenographer, clerk and worker.

Afternoon tea is a good business proposition.

Easily and quickly made. Very inexpensive.
