NEW TRADE AGREEMENTS WITH THE WEST INDIES

The Mutual Preference Has Been Increased to Fifty Per Cent.

—Canada to Provide Vessels for a Fortnightly Service—

Tobacco and Booze Not Included in the Preference—Various West Indian Governments Will Provide Subsidy.

Ottawa Aug. 3—The new trade agreement concluded between Canada and the British West Indies was made public today. It increases in certain instances the present mutual preference of twenty per cent, to fifty per cent; it extends the free list; it provides for an increased steamship service, with a weekly service between Canadian ports and the eastern group of the British West Indies and a fortnightly service between Canadian ports and the western group. The weekly service is to come into operation as soon as possible and in any case within three years; the fortnightly service with the western group is to come into effect not later than January 1, 1921. The agreement provides that the various governments of the British West Indies will contribute towards the necessary subsidies.

In the case of the fortnightly service to the western group—the Bahamas, British Honduras and Jamaica—the vessels are to be provided by the government of Canada. Here, if the service proves unremunerative, the three West Indian colonies mentioned will contribute twenty-five per cent of the loss within certain restrictions. The agreement concludes with a declaration that the representatives of Canada and of the West Indian colonies will recommend for the consideration of their respective governments that British owned and British controlled cables should be laid as soon as possible without waiting for the termination of the agreement with the West Indian and Panama Telegraph Company to connect Bermuda with Barbadoes, Trinidad, British Guiana, the Windward Islands, the Leeward Islands, and Turks Island of Jamaica.

In regard to trade Canada affirms the principle of granting a preference on all goods being produce or manufacture of any of the British West Indies imported into Canada which are now subject to duty or which may be made subject to duty at any future time.

Fifty Per Cent Preference

The Canadian customs duties on all goods (other than tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and spirituous liquors) being the produce or manufacture of any of the British West Indies, are not to be more than fifty per cent of the duties imposed on similar goods when imported from any foreign country.
