CASTORIA

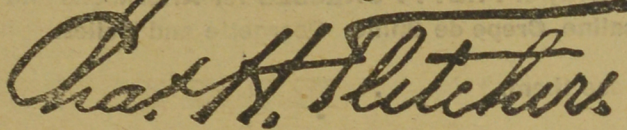

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Mrs. Clymen was Some Financier—Mrs. Howard Gould Doesn't Believe in Divorce.

Mrs. Eliza Clymen, who at 70 went to St. Louis from the South to see if the profiteers had left any money, recently died and her estate reveals that she cleaned up close to $300,000 in real estate dickers in five years, and in the meantime kept a lot of poor relations at a distance by sending them enough money to keep them interested where they were. Yes, she was a widow.

Mrs. Howard Gould (Katherine Clemmons) is tired of being considered a divorced woman. The Gould matrimonial tangles have given some the impression that all the smashes were entire. Not so with the Gould-Clemmons alliance. "I never sued for a divorce and never shall; I am Mrs. Howard Gould and always will be," she says. I obtained a legal separation, not divorce, and I wish the public generally would get this straight."

Miss Mayme Gasrett made monkeys out of the Drake University, Iowa, ball attendants. The endowment fund was being fattened and they were thinking how to get more. Miss Garrett decided to auction off a kiss. She is quite kissable. Bidding was spirited and although the auction ran hard for some of the lads, Lewis Smythe won, at $375 cash. He paid his money—and Miss Garrett gave him her hand to kiss.

Mrs. Edith Von Tilzer received two decorations and a citation to exhibit proudly to the public at large. Decoration No. 1 is a discharge in court; No. 2 is the paperweight champ belt, and the citation is the approbation of judge and court audience—and all because she stabbed her big hubby and got away with it. He is Jules Von Tilzer, the rich New York music publisher, and he weighs a little more than 240. She's a mite of a thing weighing a few ounces less than 90 pounds. Jules has printed and read so many nice mushy popular songs of "love, sweet love," that he did a little personal sleuthing to see if Cupid really is the little rascal the verse makers say he is. Anyway, Mrs. Jules got peeved and it was worse after the usual mysterious woman phoned her about the way that man was gallivanting around with other women. Jules got in late and the catechism was distressing. Mid-get wife was eager for dialogue, monologue or hostilities; she wanted to start something. Jules told her to shut up and go to sleep, or he'd put her to sleep. He didn't really mean it, of course; but with dramatic fervor Mrs. Jules fished out the potato parer and jabbed it in Jules' neck as far as it would go—which wasn't very far. He yelled and wanted surgeons and clergy and police all at once. Mrs. Jules was pinched for felonious assault in the first throes of excitement and in court Jules wanted it changed to disorderly conduct. When the judge heard it all he grinned and told the little woman to hurry home before the goldfish starved.

Pauline Frederick spent four hours learning how to operate a roulette wheel for the picture "Roads of Destiny," shown some time ago in Fredericton. Not being a gambler by nature, she had to engage a professional player to teach her the art of spinning the wheel.

AROUSING INTEREST

"Young girls," sternly said the presiding elder, "immodestly clothed, spend half their nights dancing immoral dances, and—"

"Whur at?" interrupted a prominent resident of Sandy Mush, Ark.

After having examined a score or so of fashion "ad" illustrations, we arrive at the conclusion that it is no longer possible to refer slantly to debutante as being no slouch.

A Chicago man wants to get an injunction against his mother-in-law. The difference between this man and other ones being that he dares to go to court with what he wants.

"Don't you want a Rock Monument?" says a nearby advertiser. As a matter of fact, we don't want a rock monument. But then, that doesn't prove anything, anyway—we have such peculiar tastes.

KILLED BY BLOOD POISONING

Used an old razor for paring his corns. Foolish, because a 25c. bottle of Putnam's Corn Extractor will cure all the corns in a family for a year. Safe, because purely vegetable. Use only Putnam's Corn Extractor. 25c. at all dealers.

MAIL CONTRACT

A Soldier Appointed

William Mersereau, of St. George, a returned soldier, has received an appointment having been named fish warden for the counties of Carleton, York and Sunbury. He will reside in Woodstock.

Mr. Eagles was a frequent visitor to New Brunswick and was in St. John and Fredericton about three years ago. He has many relatives and friends in the province who will regret to hear of his death.

Men in town can't understand what is the matter with the farmers. And the farmers can't understand what is the matter with the men in town. As soon as the weather is fit they ought to go fishing together. They would come back knowing each other better.

You Can See That
Grape-Nuts
contains its own sugar and the first taste verifies it

Hold some Grape-Nuts in the palm of the hand under a good light and you will see tiny shining particles on each granule. This is dextrin—partly converted sugar. But with your first spoonful comes the sweet taste you recognize, the fully converted sugar within the granules.

The famous Grape-Nuts method of making, converts the starches of wheat and malted barley. You get the result not only in flavor but easy digestibility and valuable nutrition.

Other cereals lack this sugar

Isn't this a good thought in connection with the high price and scarcity of sugar?
