THE PREMIER OF ALBERTA HAS QUIT POST

Hon. Herbert Greenfield Will Go Back to the Farm

IS THROUGH WITH POLITICS

Att. General Brownlee Takes Over the Premiership.

Edmonton, Nov. 23—Premier Herbert Greenfield, leader of the Farmer Government since he took over the reins of office from the former Liberal administration in 1921, submitted his resignation to Lieutenant-Governor Egbert today, recommending that His Honor ask Attorney-General Brownlee to form a government.

Premier Brownlee was sworn in immediately thereafter, followed by his ministers, the official duty being performed by His Honor at his chambers in the government buildings.

Other Ministers Stay.

While some changes have been made in the new cabinet, no changes in personnel have been made, neither is a new attorney-general named to replace Premier Brownlee.

The new cabinet is now named as follows:

Premier and Attorney-General—Gen. John E. Brownlee; Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Municipalities—Hon. R. R. Reid; Minister of Agriculture and Public Health and Provincial Secretary—Hon. Geo. Hoadley; Minister of Labor and Public Works—on. Alex. Ross; Minister of Railways and Telephones—Hon. V. W. Smith; Minister of Education—Hon. Perron Baker; Minister without portfolio—Hon. Irene Parby.

Only Change Noted.

The changes in portfolio are that Premier Brownlee while retaining his portfolio as Attorney-General, relinquishes that of provincial secretary to Mr. Hoadley, while the portfolio of Minister of Municipal Affairs held formerly by Mr. Greenfield, goes to Mr. Reid, who retains also that of provincial treasurer.

Mr. Greenfield was not a candidate at the general election in 1921, but he was called upon to form a government after Henry W. Wood and Hon. J. E. Brownlee had both declined to take office as premier.

On August 13, 1921, Premier Greenfield assumed office. He was elected a member of the provincial legislature for the Peace River constituency on December 9, 1921, following the resignation of D. M. Kennedy, and has held the principal seat in the farmer government ever since.

"Back to Farm," He Says.

Rumors that the former Premier would take some official position, possibly on the Utilities Board, are denied by Mr. Greenfield.

"Back to the farm for me," was his only comment this morning. "I'm through with politics for good and all."

TRIBUTES PAID TO BELOVED QUEEN MOTHER

London, Nov. 23—The love which the country bore for Queen Mother Alexandra and the sympathy felt for her son in his bereavement were recorded in addresses to the King, adopted by the House of Commons and the House of Lords this evening.

In the Lower House the motion was introduced by Premier Baldwin and the House passed it by rising and standing in silence. Mr. Baldwin as Prime Minister and Ramsay MacDonald and Lloyd George as leaders of the Opposition, paid tributes to the dead Queen. It was remarked as a coincidence that these leaders represented England, Scotland and Wales, and when T. P. O'Connor added the voice of Ireland, all sections of the British Isles had spoken.

Love She Inspired.

All the speakers spoke of the love Queen Alexandra inspired in all classes irrespective of rank. Mr. MacDonald representing Labor, summarized this sentiment thus: "We have had for two generations in our midst the presence of a lady of very sweet grace, of human consideration and of a simple tenderness of heart, who symbolized to the country, irrespective of class, the dignity of royalty and the kinship of humanity."

Similar speeches were made in the House of Lords, where there was a large attendance of the peers. A number of peeresses dressed in black were in the galleries.

A Youthful Landlady Put in a Claim for $10,000.

KISS SKIDDED TO THE EAR

The Defendant Described as a Sprightly Octogenarian.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 24—Wm. Perske, aged 81, admitted kissing his twenty-eight year old landlady Mrs. Despins Lolakes when the latter's $10,000 damage suit came to trial yesterday but the sprightly octogenarian thought $10,000 was too much for a little thing like that. SEES CANADA ON THRESHOLD OF PROSPERITY

Paris, Nov. 23—"Canada is on the threshold of great prosperity," stated Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, today when inspecting the work of rebuilding the Hotel Scribe which promises to be one of the finest railway offices in Europe.

"The Duke-Price Aluminum development at Chute a Caron, Que., is only a forerunner of what is coming. To accelerate it the Canadian National Railways has secured at Fifth Avenue and Forty-Third street, New York, a floor office, which with the offices here will certainly attract American business. We cannot go on living on ourselves and we must have a policy to draw from the outside. As traffic is the solution of Canada's railway problem so service is the way to obtain it. The returns show that we are now giving service."

In reference to his prediction of prosperity, Sir Henry said: "The causes are purely economic. The higher standard of living since the war has created a greater demand for cereals which the United States and other wheat producing countries cannot satisfy. The Dominion of Canada therefore must supply it and we just have to dig in whether we want to or not. More people complain about the American capital invasion of Canada, but money has not nationality. Even if it had, so long as it builds up our country and provides our people with work we shall welcome it."

Questioned about his return to Canada, Sir Henry replied that he would sail on the Berengaria on Saturday next.

"To dig," he added.

Taken From a Steamer Which Reached N. Y. Yesterday.

(Special to the DAILY MAIL by the British United Press)

New York, N. Y., Nov. 24—Opium valued at almost a quarter of a million dollars to be sold surreptitiously, was seized by customs agents when the steamer Eastern Prince arrived here from the Orient yesterday.

This was the largest opium haul made by Federal agents in the port of New York in some time and customs agents estimated that the over the counter value of the seizure was $88,200. The customs officials had made the usual inspection of the ship without finding anything suspicious until they searched the ice boxes, where they found that the cork linings of the refrigerators had been removed and that 443 cans of first grade smoking opium had taken its place.

The personnel of the ship denied all knowledge of the presence of the drugs on the vessel.

During his stay in Toronto, Hon. Mr. Smith met Hon. John S. Martin, Ontario's Minister of Agriculture and along with ministers of agriculture from other provinces was his guest at a luncheon in the Parliament buildings.

While en route Hon. Mr. Smith and party stopped at Ottawa and they also spent a day at Montreal, where they met by appointment some of the principal buyers and exporters of farm and dairy produce and made an inspection of the big cold storage plants. It is needless to say that they saw a lot which interested them and picked up considerable information which should be of value to them in the future.
