BOBBED HAIR IS HELPING OUT THE BARBERS

Chicago, Oct. 21—The tonsorial business and its accessories, since the advent of flappers and their elderly imitators has moved into the billion dollar rank along with steel and motors, N. S. Sherman, of Indianapolis, told the Barbers' Supply Dealers Association of America today.

"Vogue of the bob has added $150,000,000 yearly to the revenue of American barbers," he said. "Five million women in the United States visit barber shops regularly. But men still are the main support of the barbers' trade. They leave an average of $750,000,000 a year in America's 170,000 tonsorial establishments."

Incidentally, he added, men alone spend $100,000,000 for facial massage and clay pack treatments.

DIGBY MAN HAD SCRAP WITH WOUNDED DEER

Digby, Oct. 20—It is learned that while hunting in the woods about a mile from his home on Saturday last, the first day of the open season for deer, Freeman Handspiker had an experience with a wounded deer that almost cost him his life. After hunting a few hours he sighted a deer and brought it down. He came up to the spot and was bending over it when suddenly the animal began to thresh about in a savage manner. Handspiker, who tried to dodge the flying hoofs was late getting out of the way and was kicked in several parts of the body. The sharp hoofs barely missed his face and head, but connected with his clothing, which were torn to ribbons. He suffered many bruises and had considerable difficulty in reaching his home. The deer, which had been one of the first shot in the county this year, was taken to the hunter's home later.

SAYS LIBERALS WILL STAND BY THE O. T. A.

Ontario Liberal Leader Has Issued a Statement.

DEFINES HIS POSITION

Says Govt. Has Disregarded Wishes of the People.

Toronto, Oct. 21—In line with his declaration in the Legislature last session, William E. N. Sinclair, K. C., Liberal Leader, issued a statement late yesterday afternoon, proclaiming in clear-cut fashion the intention of the Liberal party to fight with all its force Premier Ferguson's attempt to reintroduce the legalized sale of liquor in the Province of Ontario.

Mr. Sinclair's statement is a more or less preliminary reply to the election manifesto issued on Monday night by Premier Ferguson. A more complete and analytical rebuttal will be forthcoming in the next few days.

The Liberal Leader declares that the liquor policy announced by Premier Ferguson is, on the part of the latter, an arbitrary disregard of the wishes of the people of Ontario as expressed in the plebiscites of 1919 and 1924, and is the very antithesis of the policy announced by the Prime Minister not very long ago.

As to the remainder of the Ferguson statement, it gives "neither evidence of good government in the past nor assurance of good government for the future."

Rev. Ben H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, published a letter in the Globe, in which he calls upon prohibitionists to oppose the Ferguson administration.

CAN'T MAKE THEM WEAR COTTON SOCKS

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 21—Women can't be induced to wear cotton stockings to please the farmer or anybody else, is the opinion of David Clark, publisher of the Textile Bulletin, but he thinks they might be prevailed upon to help the hard pressed planter by increasing their consumption of cotton socks.

"Smocks are very useful and practical both for girls in offices and factories or for housework, and they also are in style," he pointed out. "It would be possible to start a movement to induce every woman in the South immediately to purchase a cotton smock and thereby stimulate a demand for cotton goods, which would help greatly at this time."

MINERS WERE MOBBED IN WELSH TOWN

MARRIAGE MARKET OF MOROCCO IS VERY ACTIVE AT PRESENT

The Sultan and His Three Sons to Enter the Lists This Week—Celebration of Sons' Marriages to Begin on Saturday — Crushed Henna Leaves to be Smear on Foreheads and Feet of Brides.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

CASABIANCA, Morocco, Oct. 21—Morocco's marriage market is a busy one this week with the pre-nuptial feats of the Sultan Mouley Youssef and three of his sons in process of celebration.

The Sultan himself is marrying the former wife of his brother, the ex-Sultan Mouley Haffid, and this ceremony will be conducted quietly in comparison with the marriages of the three sons. The ceremony incident to the sons' marriages will begin Saturday with the traditional smearing of crushed henna leaves on the foreheads and feet of the future brides. Each bride will be marked with some permanent identification.

French High Commissioner Steeg will participate as the representative of France during the elaborate three day programme.

COMMISSION LIKELY TO HAVE WIDE POWERS

Toronto, Oct. 21—Premier Ferguson intimated yesterday, on the heels of his election pronouncement that whoever is appointed head of the Commission that will administer the stated policy of Government control of liquor with local option will be a man not only of the highest repute, but one in whom it is the Government's intention to vest wide powers. While Mr. Ferguson professes to have "the very man for the job" in mind, he declined even to hint as to the identity of the prospective official.

Although the Prime Minister had no revelation to make on the question, it is believed in well-informed circles that the contemplated Commission may be a one-man affair. He, according to the Premier will be given considerable scope in the performance of his work, especially where it touches upon the local option arrangements under which petitions for sale of beer in hotels can be launched by residents of certain municipalities. The Commissioner will be able, without first seeking Cabinet sanction, to authorize action instead of merely recommending it on any question that may arise from his negotiations with petitioners.

Premier Ferguson said yesterday that it was his belief that the permit system would prove very effective in that it provided a necessary and open "check" on the buyer and would place the onus on offenses against the act where it rightfully belonged.

According to the Prime Minister, no change in the present system of enforcing the act is in contemplation. That is, enforcement will be left to the Attorney-General Department, as at present, and not transferred within the jurisdiction of the new Commission, one-man as it may be, or otherwise. Wines, he pointed out, would be available through permits only.

COSTS OF THE TELEPHONE DECLINING

Ottawa, Oct. 21—In continuing his evidence on the probable trend of cost of telephone service in its various phases, in the hearing of the Bell Telephone Company's rates application this afternoon, J. G. Wray of Chicago, consulting engineer, offered some interesting figures. He stated that his study of the subject led him to the conclusion that while operators' wages in 1925 were $13.04 per station, they would drop to $6.42 in 1930 and to 90 cents in 1936. These figures refer to the Toronto business only, and are based on the assumption that during the next decade the automatic will be progressively supplanting the manual system in that city and the conversion will be completed in 1936.

On the other hand central office repairs will increase, though at much smaller percentage. In 1925 this item averaged $2.42 per station, in 1930 increasing to $3.13 and in 1936 to $3.50, he said. Depreciation would also increase from $3.04 in 1925 to $4.37 in 1930 and to $5 in 1936. In 1925 the total cost per station was $21.505. In 1936 it would drop to $13.20.

As a confirmation of the correctness of his estimates, witness pointed out that the forecast by the company's own engineers of the saving which would result by the adoption of the mechanical or automatic system had proved exactly accurate so far as such changes had been developed.

A DOG SAVES FIREMEN AT GALT, ONTARIO

Galt, Oct. 20—Galt's firemen claim that their little Boston-bull mascot Lady, deserves recognition, since she discovered a fire in the fire hall at midnight. Though young in the service having replaced Rex, who met a violent death answering an alarm, Lady knows the scent of fire. Her continuous barking shortly after midnight woke Fireman Fred Jones, who detected smoke in the air, and he at once aroused his eight companions in the hall. Down came the ceiling in the bathroom. The alarm was rung—for a fire in the fire hall. A line of hose had to be run into the attic to extinguish the flames which did $200 damage and cost several of the firemen their beds for the night they having been drenched. A rat is blamed for the fire. The firemen think the City Council should reward Lady with a medal, since there is no insurance on the building it having been taken off two years ago in an economy program.

QUEEN AND PRESIDENT WERE SILENT

Exchanged Very Few Words at the White House Dinner.

CHATTED WITH MR. KELLOGG

He Knew Her Relatives When Ambassador to England.

(Special to the Daily Mail by British United Press)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21—What President Coolidge and Queen Marie said to each other as they sat side by side during the White House dinner wasn't very much.

One of the guests at the dinner who collected statistics on this point reported that the Queen spoke to the President only two or three times and that he replied briefly each time, his total wordage amounting to five or six short phrases. The Queen chatted most of the time with Secretary of State Kellogg who sat on her right and knew her royal relatives in London when he was ambassador there some years ago.

WANTS PROBLEM SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED

Toronto, Oct. 21—Asked last night if he had any comment to make on the reception given by the public to his recent announcement. Premier G. Howard Ferguson said in an interview.

"I have nothing to say about the comment made by a number of people, because, apparently they haven't criticized in any respect the grounds I've given in reaching my conclusion."

"I put before the public the general conditions as I see them and am asking for a careful discussion and consideration of the problem."

"I doesn't serve any good purpose to simply declaim and shout 'Ferguson is tied up with the wets.' What 'Ferguson' desires of the general public is to consider seriously this great question which touches so closely the moral welfare of all manhood and womanhood of this Province."

"If they will do that in a quiet, deliberate way—dealing with the matter as a condition and not as a theory—I'll be quite content with any verdict they may pronounce at the polls."

REV. DR. SHIELDS IS OUSTED BY THE BAPTISTS

Toronto, Oct. 20—Following a motion of censure passed last night on Rev. Dr. T. T. Shields, pastor of Jarvis street Baptist church, Toronto, in connection with the campaign of criticism conducted by him in a paper called the Gospel Witness, delegates to the Baptist convention of Ontario and Quebec today passed a resolution which was sent on to the resolutions committee and which virtually puts Dr. Shields outside the convention.

The resolution reads: "No person may act as a delegate to this convention whose conduct has been declared by a resolution of the convention to be inconsistent or injurious to the purposes and enterprises of the convention as set out in Section 3 of the Act."

The vote of censure passed last night identifies Dr. Shields as a delegate effected by the motion.
