MRS. GALLOP ON THE STAND IN MURDER TRIAL ON OWN BEHALF; DENIES SHE POISONED HUSBAND

Roberval, June 16—Emily Sprague, charged with the murder of her husband, Abraham Gallop, at Ile Maligne, on August 6, 1925, took the stand in her own defence today, and the entire session of the court was occupied by her testimony. The case is being heard by Mr. Justice Gibson.

Abraham Gallop, a native of Kingsclear, N. B., an employee of the Duke-Price Company, died at Ile Maligne and his body was taken to Kingsclear for interment. Later the body was exhumed and following this Mrs. Gallop was arrested. The trial began on Friday last.

Married For 15 Years.

Mrs. Gallop testified that she had been married to Gallop for 15 years. "A few days before his death," she said, "my husband was organizing a fishing trip with James Simpson. He asked me to go to the doctor to buy strychnine for the trip. I called at Dr. Bouille's, who got the medicine and gave it to me. My husband took part of the bottle and put it in another bottle, labelled 'medicine salt'."

"The Sunday prior to his death," continued the witness, "he went to Alma (St. Joseph d'Alma) and returned home drunk. He had the habit of drinking. He was so sick following his visit to Alma that he decided not to go for the long hunting trip, and he asked me to mail the strychnine to a friend of his in New Brunswick. The day after, he became very sick. I tried to get the doctor. I fainted when I was told he was dying.

"I went to New Brunswick for his funeral and on my return I was asked by Walter Simpson's mother to go to her place. Then I heard rumors that the body would be exhumed and I called on the doctor who told me he knew nothing.

"I went to Quebec with Walter Simpson and called on the attorney-general's department. I told them I had heard rumors. I asked for a full enquiry and left my address in New Brunswick."

By Allyn Taschereau, K. C., counsel for the defence: "Did you tell Simpson you had poisoned your husband?"

"I told him I had heard rumors to that effect," Mrs. Gallop replied. She explained that she had bought a black dress because her husband liked the color. She trimmed it with red and blue ribbons.

The evidence of Mrs. Gallop will be concluded tomorrow.

SHAW, LOYAL TO UNION, WON'T LEND HIS PLAYS

London, June 17—George Bernard Shaw will not break the authors' trade union rules even in the interests of other trade unionists, the dramatist made clear in a letter to organizers of a labor demonstration in North London today. In response to a request from the organizers who wished to include in the program "The Showing Up of Blanco Posnet" Mr. Shaw replied:

"Under no circumstances can any play of mine be performed without payment of the standard authors' fee." The dramatist added:

"It is hard enough for my poorer fellow-authors to meet the competition of my plays without having them performed gratuitously. You see the point I hope."

A DEER WAS RESCUED FAR OUT TO SEA

Yarmouth, June 16—Arthur Harris, a fisherman of Sandford, about seven miles from this town, had a unique experience yesterday afternoon. He was about two miles off the land when he saw some animal struggling in the water and went to its assistance. It was a yearling deer and the animal was practically exhausted. Harris ran his boat close up to the animal, which was so weakened that it permitted him to take it into his boat and he brought it ashore. As it could not walk, a drag was made and it was hauled up over the beach into the grass. There it remained for about an hour, when it gradually recovered its strength, got to its feet and disappeared into the woods.

Quebec, June 16—R. H. Gale, president of the Shoe Manufacturers' Association, tonight issued an emphatic denial to the report which went out from here today to the effect that the manufacturers had sought the support of the Royal 22nd Regiment to maintain order in the factory district.

"No manufacturer had asked for troops to intervene and no one is contemplating any such action," said Mr. Gale.

There was no disorder when the factories closed today, all the workers leaving, accompanied by armed policemen.

ONE SURE WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

Is Keeping the Blood Rich and Red—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make Rich, Pure Blood and Restore Health.

Thin, pale people lack the power of resistance to disease that rich, red blood gives. Nervous breakdown is the result of thin blood. So is anaemia, indigestion, rheumatism and many other troubles. People suffering from thin, impure blood need just the help Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can give. For more than a third of a century Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been famous as a nerve restorer. Thousands upon thousands of letters from grateful people have proved the rare value of this medicine. The first effect of the pills is usually to stimulate the appetite; then the spirits revive and restlessness at night gives way to health-restoring sleep. For sufferers from anaemia, nervousness, general weakness, digestive troubles, rheumatism; or the after-effects of influenza or acute diseases, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a restorative of the utmost value. If you are weak or ailing give these pills a fair trial and the result is sure to be beneficial.

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done wonders for me," writes Mrs. Russell Hill, Norwood, Ont. "I was run-down and could not eat or sleep and was very nervous. I was pale and would sometimes faint. I took a lot of doctor's medicine but it did not help me. It was a real trial to do any house work, or to go about, and I got so that I scarcely cared whether I lived or died. One day while reading a paper I saw an advertisement about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It described a case very much like my own and I decided to give the pills a trial. I had not been taking them long when I could feel a change for the better. I continued the pills until I had used eight boxes when I felt like a new woman. Every disagreeable symptom had vanished and I gained in weight, and a good color returned to my face. All this I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I am now never without them in the house, and any time I feel out of sorts they are my first aid. I gladly bear this testimony in the hope that it will benefit some other sufferer."

Two useful books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free by The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.
