

"I Was in a Habit Rut."

"I had always used a safety razor. I'd insert a new blade—a good enough first shave; then each shave worse.

"The blade got duller and duller, until in a fret I'd throw it away and insert a new one. A constant annoyance, an expense.

"I thought I'd go through life shaving this way. Ever dissatisfied. I was in a habit rut.

"But now I own a Valet AutoStrop Razor. I sharpen the blade, I shave, I clean the razor, all without removing the blade.

"I'd never go back to the old way."

And neither will you go back to the old way when you have used the Valet AutoStrop Razor with the automatic self-stropping feature built right into the frame of the razor. Not only does it mean a "first shave" edge every day on the same blade, it also means a quicker and smoother shave.

Just switch for awhile. See if you'd go back to the old way.

A LITTLE THING

THE power called habit is a little thing * * * * but it can pull your eyes open at a certain hour every morning, determine whether you dress the right or left foot first, drop a fixed amount of sugar into your breakfast coffee—free your mind for thoughts that demand actual choice.

The little habit of glancing over these advertising columns daily, checking this and that which appeal to you, frees your mind from any guess-work about the merits of a product; helps you choose wisely when you buy. If you are familiar with newspaper advertisements, you can discriminate merits, weigh one product against another, these truths against those. And the habit of buying only advertised goods takes the hazard out of shopping; puts in a good, sturdy sure.

OVERALLS WERE GIVEN TO THE WOMEN

Atlanta, Sept. 23—The wind blew so hard in Miami during the gale that a guest in a hotel was imprisoned in his room because he was unable to open his door against it. A. C. Sydel of Evanston, Ill, said here today. Mr. Sydel who heard the man's cries for help, assisted in breaking down the door to release him.

"I was awakened about 2 o'clock Saturday morning by the winds" he said, "and realized that the storm was becoming stronger. Glancing out of the window I saw the transformers on the electric wire poles in flames. Soon the lights went out.

"I had just arrived at the hotel and did not know where the stairways were. I stumbled about until I found another guest of the hotel and he and I set out together to reach the first floor. As I descended I thought I heard someone calling for help. It was another guest, imprisoned in his room by the wind. He could not open the door against it, and the door had to be broken in."

Lorne W. Barclay, Boy Scout executive of Tampa, was on the first relief train sent toward the storm area. At Sebring a few miles from Moorehaven a section of the track had been blown away. On the other side of the gap was another train that was used as a shuttle train to and from Moorehaven. About 800 refugees were brought on it.

We had a quantity of overalls and these were given to the women," Mr. Barclay said. "All the people's clothes were dripping wet, some wore only bathing suits. One man said a pair of bathing trunks was all he had in the world."

There will not be any September session of the Provincial Government, according to Premier Baxter, but the October meeting will likely be held in the second week of the month.

Mrs.—I've found a way for me to keep cool this summer.

Mr.—How.

Mrs.—I'm going to buy some polar bear furs.

BALLOT BOX LOCK WITH KEY PUT INSIDE

Oshawa, Sept. 23—Declaration day in Ontario Riding brought forth no irregularities, despite repeated rumors regarding the balloting in Oshawa on election day. A great deal of carelessness in the sending in of returns was reported. Many of the envelopes, which the law requires to be sealed with sealing wax were said to be open. There was also said to be a laxity in the manner in which the returns were made out. Other instances of oversight were found by the Returning Officer. One ballot box had been padlocked with the key inside and force had to be used to open it.

MORRISEY'S MAJORITY 514

Newcastle, Sept. 21—Declaration proceedings passed off quietly in the Newcastle court house this afternoon. The proceedings began at one o'clock and were concluded at four. C. J. Morrisey, the Liberal candidate, was declared elected with a majority of 514 over C. E. Fish, Conservative candidate. 11,888 was the total vote, of which Morrisey received 6,201, and Fish, 5,687.

REDS IN FIFTEEN INNING TIE AT PHILADELPHIA

New York, Sept. 23—The battling Cincinnati Reds, hanging desperately on the tail of the league leading St. Louis Cardinals, today forced the Phillies to go 15 innings at Philadelphia before darkness finally ended the contest with no victor and the score 6-6.

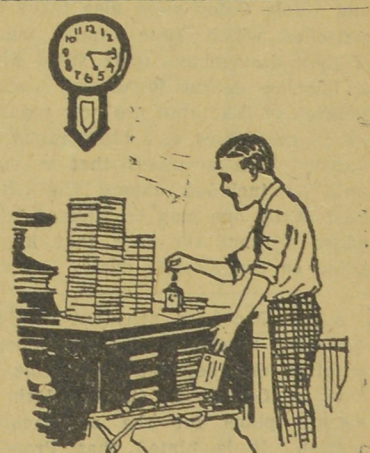

"Go away or I'll call my husband!" exclaimed the housewife as the tramp stood on the back porch.

"Oh, I know him," responded the tramp grinning. "He's the little feller who told me yesterday to go away or he'd call his wife."

Dora has a little brother.

Yes, that's why I call on Elsie.

BLUNDERS

WHY IS THIS WRONG?

When mail is allowed to accumulate in offices until closing time, it not only places an additional burden on the postal service, but is apt to miss important early afternoon train dispatches. This often causes a whole day's delay in delivery. Mail should be posted as soon as it is ready, and at frequent periods of the day.
