SUZANNE MADE POOR GUESS ON THE BIG FIGHT

Leading Woman Tennis Player Leaves France for United States—Admirer of Dempsey.

Paris, Sept. 22—Suzanne Lenglen accompanied by her mother, a maid eleven trunks filled with the latest Paris creations and bearing only four tennis racquets today started for New York on her invasion of the United States as a tennis professional and an ambassador of the world of French fashions.

Hundreds of well wishers gathered at the St. Lazaire Station to wish her good luck on her tour. They were about evenly divided between tennis fans and leaders of fashion. The fact that Suzanne spent more time during the past three weeks at an ultra-chic dressmaker's establishment on the Rue de la Paix than on any tennis courts in the past three months is looked upon as indicating that her mission to America is two fold—tennis and styles.

Admires Dempsey.

Asked her opinion on the outcome of the world heavyweight championship bout in Philadelphia tomorrow night between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, Mlle Lenglen replied: "I do hope Dempsey wins. He is such a refined gentleman. I don't know where they get this tiger, man eating stuff about him. I had lunch with him and his wife while he was in Paris and if his ring tactics are as good as his table manners he is sure to win."

Paul Feret the fourth French ranking player and one of Pyle's converts to professionalism also is sailing on the steamship Parsi for the United States.

"We'll miss Jonesy when he moves."

"Yes, indeed! He has the only lawn mower in the neighborhood."

THREE NEW AMERICAN TEAMS IN N. H. LEAGUE

Chicago, Detroit and New York Come in—Status of the Western League Players Discussed.

New York, Sept. 23—Ten clubs, three more than last year, will comprise the National Hockey League this season, it was announced when club representatives gathered for a preliminary conference.

The new members will be Chicago Detroit and a second New York team. The conference today was to prepare preliminary plans for the opening of the league schedule which gets under way in two months. All clubs had representatives at the conference.

The following teams make up the league: Montreal Maroons, Montreal Canadiens, Ottawa Senators, Toronto St. Pats, Boston, New York Americans, New York Rangers, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Western League Discussed.

New York Sept. 23—Nothing definite concerning the plans for the coming season was done at the meeting of the National Hockey League held here. Representatives of the 10 clubs of the league were present and the gathering merely was a preliminary to the annual meeting which will be held in Montreal on Saturday.

Discussion chiefly concerning the relationship of the N. H. L. to the now defunct Western League. Certain of the N. H. L. Clubs are in doubt as to the exact status of players of the Western circuit.

Whether they are free or whether they still are owned by the Patrick interests on the Pacific Coast is evidently causing contract troubles. However it was intimated by President Calder that all would be straightened out in time to allow a smooth running annual meeting on Saturday.

PLAY PERIODS ONLY TRIED OUT IN U. S. FOOTBALL

Instead of Time-Limit Certain Number of Set Plays are to Comprise Period.

Boston, Sept. 24—The use of "play periods" instead of time periods first tried out by college teams last year, will get further showing on next Saturday when the Boston University football team will open its schedule against Bowdoin at Brunswick, Me. it was announced at Boston University yesterday.

The "play period" system was first used when Boston University now under the tutelage of "Ed" Robinson and "Reggie" Brown clashed at Providence last year with Brown then coached by the present Terries mentors. Much discussion followed as to whether or not the system worked satisfactorily.

The play-period system has long been sponsored by Harry Coffin, Boston football enthusiast and has a limited number of converts.

Coach "Reggie" Brown in announcing that the B. U. Bowdoin game would be played under the new scheme said that the B. U. coaches in proposing the project to Bowdoin found ready acquiescence.

The system as sponsored by Coffin calls for 40 plays for a full period. The opening game at Bowdoin would ordinarily call for periods somewhat shorter than the ordinary and as a result, probably 30 plays will be considered a period when the two teams meet at Brunswick next Saturday.

New York, Sept. 24—Eddie Anderson, Wyoming cowboy and Andre Routis, French featherweight, will meet in a ten round bout in Brooklyn on Monday night. In the semi-final Jimmy Darragh, Pacific coast middleweight will face Abd-El-Kebir, a pugilist from the Sahara desert.

GENE SARAZEN FAILED TO REGAIN PRO GOLF CROWN

Johnny Golden of Paterson, N. J., Too Much For Him—Veteran Put Up Hard Fight.

Garden City, N. Y., Sept. 22—Gene Sarazen ended a plucky fight to regain the Professional Golf Association crown he held four years ago on the 33rd green at Salisbury today.

Unable to match the masterful iron play of his opponent Sarazen resigned at that point to Johnny Golden of Paterson N. J., who thus dashed the hopes of two strong contenders in consecutive days with startling suddenness.

Both conquests of the New Jersey veteran came like bolts out of a clear sky, for Golden never previously has figured prominently in the competitions for America's major laurels. Both also were clinched on the 33rd green, where Golden topped Harry Cooper of Kansas City in the first round yesterday.

Colorful Player Out.

The passing of Sarazen, an old foe of Hagen took a colorful candidate out of the picture in a day otherwise marked by triumph for favorites. Hagen galloped away from 22-year-old Dick Grout of Oklahoma City, 7 and 6; Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y. smothered Dick Linnars of Long Beach, Calif., 6 and 5; Harry Hampton of Memphis, Tenn. had a similar margin over Tommy Harmon of Yonkers, N. Y. and Leo Diegel of New York finished six holes up on Neal McIntyre of Gray, Ind.

A lone knight of the niblick remained to carry on the banner of the West in the hunt tonight as the result of a verdict on the home green for Abe Espinosa of Chicago over Mike Brady of New York, 1 up. Their see-saw battle was eclipsed, however by a struggle between Bill Leach of Philadelphia and George Christ of Rochester N. Y. with the latter finally squeezing through after two extra holes.

In the eighth match of the round, Pat Doyle of White Plains N. Y. nosed out Marshall Crichton of Kansas N. C. 3 and 2.

Golden did the pace-setting in his match against Sarazen from their very first lunges at the ball lofting his approach almost under the flag on the first green for an eagle 3 to Gene's birdie 4. Sarazen trailed from that point until the fifth hole of the afternoon round where he finally squared the match.

UNKNOWN GIVE ATHLETIC FIELD TO TOWN

A great lover of sports, especially of cricket has purchased the historic cricket ground at Town Malling, Kent England, in order to save it from being disposed of for building purposes. The purchaser, who wishes to conceal his identity from the public states however that when he was a boy of seven years he saw Dr. W. G. Grace the celebrated English player, score a century on the Malling ground and the champion's wonderful batting made a lasting impression on him. It is said that the ground which comprises about twelve acres, will continue to be used for all kinds of sport.

RECALLED TO MAJORS.

Toronto, Sept. 24—Catcher Billy Skiff, who came to the Leafs from the New York Yankees on option just before the International League pennant was clinched by the Toronto club, has been recalled by Manager Huggins. Skiff will not be available to the Leafs for the Little World Series.

The conference of scalers and other officials of the Department of Lands and Mines which is being held in the large committee room at the Parliament Building was continued today. Methods of scaling and fire protection are among the subjects being discussed.
