Of Interest to the Women

WHAT THEY ARE WEARING IN NEW YORK.

The tailored suit has ushered in the fox scarf and the scarf has learned a few new tricks.

No longer does it nestle about the neck and function only as a means of additional warmth.

No indeed. It has changed its technique entirely as well as its general course. The smart, ones are all worn on the bias fastened either under the arm or so low on the shoulder that the diagonal effect is the result.

Juliet Carlton's costume is particularly smart because it gives a tailored effect without being in the least tailored. It is really one of the very smart new plaid dresses with a beige colored coat lined with the silk and a vest of white silk. Her little brimless hat just matches her suit and her fur is a bit darker than the suit.

Imported Tweeds.

This modified version of the tailleur is much more liked by many women than the more severe type worn by Charlotte Potter. She wears one of the new imported tweeds cut on severely masculine lines worn with one of the English melts and a silver fox.

With this outfit you usually see the boyish blouse and the tie.

Jane Brady wears the tailored coat with the lighter silk frock showing beneath.

These girls are correct from hats to shoes and if you want any points about the street outfit for spring, study these.

And speaking of shoes, never before have I seen such intriguing footwear. Snakeskin, lizard and woven leathers with extremely high spike heels are the rule and matching the bag and the shoes seems to be quite the proper wrinkle.

The high oxford seems to be everywhere and has become a highly decorative affair with perforations and trimmings of contrasting leather.

Tan and Brown Predominate.

Tan and brown shoes seem to have quite outdistanced mere black and the plain black pump is suffering a temporary eclipse.

I've seen any amount of smart attire lately. A coat rock of blue checks took my fancy. It had the neatest possible cut and with a number of pleats and an easy swing but, it kept to the straightest possible silhouette.

Inevitably the smartest frocks are the simplest in line. And no matter what fashion says at the beginning of each season the straight line just will persist.

However I do believe the large hat is very decidedly on the way. Everywhere the large untrimmed model is worn with the simple afternoon outfit, or even with the tailored costume. I saw a thrilling model on Milly Heye a combination of black and scarlet that was just right. In these days of uniform millinery it is an achievement to be dashing and still correct.

Another smart and unusual bit of millinery was a marvelously cut and draped tam in red that just matched the red coat, trimmed with red feathers. The red, I must add, was a lovely mellow wine tint that was anything but conspicuous.

Jimmy—That bonehead's always wanting something he can't have.
Madge—Yes, his head's nothing but a wishbone.

Here and There

The maple sugaring industry is on the up-grade again. The yearly sugar production with its equivalent in syrup decreased from 22,000,000 pounds in the '80s to 20,000,000 pounds a few seasons ago. For 1925 production is equal to 26,512,289 pounds of sugar.

After one of the mildest winters in the known history of the Rocky Mountains, the Banff tourist season was ushered in during the first week in April, when a distinguished group of Australians, under Sir Frank Heath, of Melbourne, took the general drive through the surrounding mountains.

On the last leg of the 129-day Round-the-World Cruise, the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Scotland" passed through the Panama Canal, and Miss Katherine Kinney, a passenger, was elected to operate the controls of the two Miraflores locks. In doing this the young lady raised the vessel fifty-four feet. A toll of $17,211.25 was paid to clear the vessel at the canal.

Sir John Pickford, Chief Scout Commissioner and Commissioner for Overseas Scouts and Migration, recently laid before E. W. Beatty, President of the C.P.R., his plans for assisting boys over seventeen years of age to come to Canada. Sir John said that more British boys were going to Australia because the age limit for assisted passages to that country was higher than Canada's.

Increasing prosperity in the agricultural industry, resulting in re-awakened interest in the acquisition of Canadian farm lands, has had the result of raising the average value of western farm lands from $37 per acre in 1924 to $38 per acre in 1925. For the year Prince Edward Island shows the highest increase at $45 per acre, compared to $40 in 1924.

Of the grain stocks at the port of Vancouver, which are being steadily exported, European markets received practically 27 million bushels and the Orient 20 million bushels of the 47,640,647 bushels of the 1925 crop, which had been shipped to Vancouver. The amount of grain in store at Vancouver is seldom more than 4,500,000 bushels.

All local trains coming into Windsor Station, Montreal, from the Eastern Townships brought supplies of maple syrup which increased rapidly during April. Similar shipments poured into the Place Viger Station from the Laurentians. Dominion Express officials stated that the quantities were well up to the average of former years, while the quality was also up to the mark.

With the inauguration of the new "Redwing" special train service on the Canadian Pacific Railway line between Boston and Montreal, a group of prominent Bostonians were invited to Montreal on the initial trip of the "Redwing" from Boston. Montrealers went to Boston on the same special. The "Redwing" cuts several hours off the old schedule between the two cities.

According to the weekly crop report of the Canadian Pacific Railway the spring opening of the 1926 season, after one of the finest winters ever experienced in Western Canada, finds conditions very favorable. Feed was plentiful and winter losses less than usual. Prospects for coming season are fine owing to good moisture. There is a live demand for new machinery.
