POLICE WRECK A BAR WITH THEIR HATCHETS

Chicago, March 12.—Police, armed with hatchets, raided a North Side saloon last night and wrecked it after the manner made famous by Carrie Nation.

In spite of the fact that an injunction had been obtained against police interference, the raiders chopped the bar, smashed the mirror and other equipment, and then emptied beer into the gutters.

The injunction told the policemen what they could and could not do, but after studying the writ Capt. Daniel Murphy decided it would not prevent him from stopping the illegal sale of beer.

The bartender insisted it was all wrong; there was an injunction. The captain agreed, meanwhile directing his men to do a creditable job.

TO ELIMINATE COAL NEEDS OF POWER PLANTS

Berlin, March 12.—Seeking to eliminate the tremendous consumption of coal in electric power plants, Dr. Walter Paul, electrical engineer, has devised a thermo-magnetic electric generator. He believes it will supplant steam-driven turbines for generating electric current even before the advent of super hydro-electric power combines.

Dr. Paul is said to have demonstrated his apparatus with success before the German Electro-Technical Society. It is based on the fact that the induced magnetism of soft iron decreases and increases as the temperature of the iron falls and rises.

The device consists of a heavy soft iron ring magnetized by an electrical current. In the centre of the ring is hung an induction coil. As the ring is heated by either a gas or coal fire and then allowed to cool, an alternating current is induced in the wiring.

One model which Dr. Paul has constructed is large enough to supply a farm with electric light and power. The heating is regulated automatically.
