MARITIME PREMIERS IN CONFERENCE AT MONTREAL ON IMMIGRATION MATTERS

Montreal, Nov. 1.—At the conclusion of a conference here today of the premiers of the three Maritime Provinces with representatives of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways and of the Hudson's Bay Company, it was announced that while many details remained to be worked out before public statements could be made, yet the premiers felt substantial progress had been made in raising a basis of understanding as to colonization measures to be adopted for the Maritime Provinces.

The announcement was contained in an official statement which declared the meeting was "a preliminary conference, the results of which may be of the utmost importance to the Maritime Provinces," and also added:

"Further meetings will be held and it is expected that within a short time concrete proposals will be made to the Dominion government with a view to meeting Maritime necessities in every way. The Premiers were all very much encouraged by the sympathetic attitude of Hon. Robert Forke, minister of immigration, and were plainly hopeful of satisfactory results from the co-operation of the Dominion and Imperial governments, the provinces themselves, and the transportation and immigration agencies."

The meeting was called at the invitation of President E. W. Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Besides Mr. Beatty and Premiers Stewart, Rhodes and Baxter, there were present A. V. Sale, governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, Colonel Stanley of the Hudson's Bay Overseas Settlement; G. W. Allan, director of the Hudson's Bay Company, and Dr. W. J. Black, representing the Canadian National Railways.

While the premiers themselves made no separate statements on the conference, Hon. Mr. Baxter when asked if he thought the trip had been worth while from the point of view of results, declared that it was.

N. S. Developments.

Apart from the conference and its plans Premier Rhodes of Nova Scotia today announced important developments which the government of his province were working out. Full information will be forwarded to the province's agent-general in London regarding some 3,000 farms available for settlers and an attempt will be made to secure a good type of agricultural immigrant. It is hoped to reach an arrangement by which, in addition to the $1,500 loan available from the Overseas Settlement Board, immigrating farmers may be relieved of paying interest charges during their first three years. The Nova Scotia government plans to establish a farm on which 250 boys will be trained every year. A farm in the vicinity of Falmouth, N. S., is under consideration.

Premier Baxter of New Brunswick also described the cooperation of his province with the Overseas Settlement Board and the Canadian department of Immigration for the settlement of vacant lands in New Brunswick.

Market For N. B. Farmer.

The New Brunswick premier felt there was a large market for the New Brunswick farmer in stock raising and dairying.

"We are not feeding ourselves. We are importing beef when we should be exporting it," he said. He pointed out that good cattle could be raised in New Brunswick and the port of Saint John offered easy access to overseas markets. Pig raising should also now be profitable, with the establishments of an abattoir at Saint John. New Brunswick farmers had been doing good work in making dairy products, but with Saskatchewan shipping to Europe from a much greater distance, the New Brunswick farmer should be able to create a much larger market with an ocean port at his door. He felt that cooperative marketing could do much in this respect.

Despite certain aspects of the present situation which were not encouraging the premier left there was confidence in the province of New Brunswick of increasing prosperity. The fact that foreign capital was willing to come in, as instanced by the International Paper Company, was an evidence of this. The pulp and paper industry would be of the highest importance in the industrial future of the country. The development at Grand Falls and the utilization of its power would mean the employment of thousands of men.

A GOOD PLAN TO KEEP THE MOUTH CLOSED

(Eastern Chronicle.)

Chemists are setting forth that they are on the eve of discovering a medicine that will do away with the necessity of sleep. A contemporary remarks that such a medicine will destroy the great industry of snoring. We will believe in the chemists' pellets when we try and find them efficacious; even then we won't have anything to do with them, because the luxury of nine hours sleep daily is necessary for the recuperation of our poor old bones and muscles.

As for snoring, it is not natural; it is a habit. Snoring is caused by an unnatural position of the head and neck when sleeping. A man may be as meek as Moses or as valiant as Joshua, but if when he sleeps, or before he sleeps he throws his head back he will snore because his mouth will fall open. A closed mouth is a great virtue asleep or awake; but an open mouth conduces to snoring. If when a person lies down to sleep he places his head straight with his body, or inclined a little forward as it generally is when awake and either sitting or standing his mouth will stay shut as it should be. With his mouth closed he cannot snore—with his face inclined forward his mouth cannot open, hence he cannot play with the bass fiddle that sounds with that horrible melody of snoring.

POACHING ON HOBBO RIGHTS

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 12.—Another last refuge of man has been invaded by women. Take it from the secretary of the National Hobbo convention here, Wayne Willie is quitting the rods of railroad trains for automobile cushions but the girls are beginning to give him close competition in begging lifts. The convention has protested against the presence of Queen Marie in the United States.

ARMISTICE PROGRAM BY THE C.N.R.A.

(Special to The Daily Mail.)

Montreal, Que., Nov. 12.—A special Armistice Day programme was broadcast last night through CNRM the Canadian National Railway radio station at Montreal, at CNRO their station at Ottawa, both being "tied in." For the occasion Canon Scott, C.M.G., D.S.O., well known to all returned men as the senior Padre of the Canadian Expeditionary Force renewed his acquaintance with his fellow comrades by broadcasting an address entitled "The Message of Armistice Day". The programme was made up of patriotic airs, marches and songs, the Canadian National Rys Symphony Orchestra and the Canadian National Recreation Club had provided the instrumental part of the programme the vocalist being Miss Viola Benoit, Mr. R. H. Dumbrell and Bill Tennant, late of the Dumbbells. Immediately preceding the studio programme given through the studio at CNRM the Chateau Laurier Orchestra gave a special programme direct from the main dining room of the Chateau Laurier, while the Chateau Laurier dance orchestra followed on with a special programme of Dance music from the grill room of the Chateau.

TESTIMONY CLAIM STIRS HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 12.—Stars of the film world are indignant over the disclosure made in Chicago that a testimonial company professed to be able to produce for a price, the indorsement of any product by certain screen luminaries.

A motion picture magazine which made a hurried check of the first 35 names on a list of 75 said to have been offered its customers by the testimonial dealers declared that 32 had denied they ever had any dealings with the Chicago company.

BRITAIN'S HEROES HONORED BY HIS MAJESTY

Sovereign Lays Wreath on the Cenotaph in Whitehall.

London, Nov. 11.—England's million war dead were honored today at the Cenotaph by the King and Queen, their royal sons and the premiers of the Dominions in the most impressive Armistice memorial service since the cessation of hostilities eight years ago.

Shortly after dawn historic Whitehall, in which Charles I was beheaded, began to fill with residents of the suburbs, many of whom had trudged miles in the rain, wearing pitifully drooping Flanders' poppies. There were more women than men, and many of them wore the medals of their dead sons or husbands.

"Colonels ladies and Judy O'Grady's" rubbed elbows with no thought of difference in station through the bond of common bereavement. By 11 o'clock Whitehall from Trafalgar Square to Westminster Abbey was a mass of humanity.

King Lays Wreath on Tomb.

Just before "Big Ben" boomed the hour The King, in a field marshal's uniform, stepped forward and laid a wreath on the empty tomb to the glorious dead. He was followed by the Prince of Wales, wearing the uniform of the Welsh Guards, and the Duke of York in the Air Force blue, who also placed wreaths. Queen Mary looked on from the adjoining home office balcony.

"Big Ben" Speaks.

Then "Big Ben" spoke. A gun boomed on the nearby Horse Guards' parade ground and London offered its two-minute silent homage.

The hush came so suddenly that it seemed to vibrate up the entire length of Whitehall and left the spectators in a medley of bewildered feelings. Some prayed silently, but openly, for the repose of the warrior dead; some women sobbed; some—veterans with flapping sleeves or crutches—only looked with steady eyes straight ahead. For them eight years were but a brief span which had failed to heal the scars and wounds of war.

3 Mobbed and Beaten.

Another service was held at the Unknown Warrior's grave in Westminster Abbey, in which the dean broke his own rule and permitted a tiny girl to place six roses on the grave.

In another part of the city three men walked past Smithfield market where hundreds were observing the silence. They were immediately mobbed by the angry mourners.

When they were rescued by the police their faces were bruised and their clothing was torn.

BRITISH M.D.'S NOT ALLOWED TO PRACTICE HERE

Montreal, Nov. 11.—A special cable to the Star from London says:

"It is officially announced that since New Brunswick no longer affords to registered practitioners of the United Kingdom 'such privileges of practising in the said province as to His Majesty seems just,' the Order in Council of 1913 under which New Brunswick doctors could register on the Colonial List of the General Medical Council of Great Britain, 'is hereby revoked without prejudice to the right of any persons whose names have been already entered on the register.'"

"For many years New Brunswick has accorded British doctors the right to practise in that province. The reason for the change is not known here."

New York, Nov. 12.—Such is the extent of Scottish thrift that the U. S. A. is exporting small savings banks to the land of the heather in response to rush order 5,000 are on the Camerona.

QUEEN TO COST FORD MORE THAN HIS PEACE SHIP

New York, Nov. 11.—Announcement that Henry Ford is paying the expenses of Queen Marie's American tour recalls the Detroit manufacturer's first famous venture into the realms of international affairs—the trip of the peace ship Oscar II.

Incidentally, Mr. Ford appears to be learning that it cost less to attempt to end wars than to entertain Queens—for whereas the entire expenses of the peace delegates were only $400,000, Queen Marie's trip is costing him $500,000.

The new announcement also recalls Mr. Ford's other contacts with royalty his experiences in public life and his other public benefactions.

The peace ship, however, was by far the most ambitious undertaking. Just who or what caused Mr. Ford to agree to back the trip has never been fully disclosed. Mme. Rosika Schwimmer the Austro-Hungarian member of the International Committee of Women for Peace, explained it by saying that she was lecturing in Detroit, where she inspected the Ford plants. She came to the conclusion that only a genius could have perfected the system she saw and she learned that the men in the plants felt the same way. She obtained an introduction, brought up the peace ship plan and Mr. Ford accepted it.

Mr. Ford himself said Miss Jane Addams first suggested it while, on the other hand, Louis P. Lochner, secretary for the peace delegates, declared recently that he brought the plan forward "rather in fun."

Invitations were extended to many men and women prominent in politics, literature, public associations and business. At first it was announced that many of them had accepted, but on December 4, 1915, when the Oscar II sailed from New York it had on board what Miss Addams described as "a group of very eccentric people." All of them were interested in peace, but each had his individual hobby, which ranged from the single tax to vegetarianism. There were also many college students aboard who were enjoying the prospect of a free trip.

The popular slogan of the expedition was to "get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas."
