

GEORGE CROWLEY
GIVEN SUSPENDED
SENTENCE TODAY

Found Guilty of Receiving Stolen Goods—Magistrate Lets Him Go Because of Aged Mother.

George Crowley who was charged with the theft of an overcoat the property of Kenneth Staples, this morning was convicted by Police Magistrate Limerick of receiving stolen property knowing it to be stolen. The magistrate suspended sentence on account of the aged mother of the accused.

Statement by Court.

In making conviction His Honor said that the evidence of John McGoldrick to the effect that he had stolen the overcoat out of a car some weeks ago, removed the charge of theft which had been laid against Crowley. Under the Criminal Code, however, the court had the right to make a conviction on any other offence which might be revealed by the evidence. After hearing the witnesses he could come to no other conclusion than that Crowley knew that McGoldrick had not come honestly by the coat when it was handed over to him to be sold. In other words he had received property which he knew to be stolen and for that he would be convicted.

His Honor explained that Crowley being the support of an aged mother would be allowed to go with sentence suspended but further conviction would put sentence in effect.

C. R. Barry appeared for the defence and P. J. Hughes, K. C., for the prosecution.

Chase Case on Monday.

The case against Seymour Chase charged with breaking and entering at the Quality Pharmacy and theft of goods there will be tried on Monday. E. Allison MacKay is to appear for the accused and Mr. Hughes for the prosecution. Mr. Hughes is City Solicitor and appears at the request of the police.

CITY AFFAIRS

To Teach in Massachusetts.

Miss Carolyn Currie of Fredericton Junction, late Domestic Science teacher in Moncton, has gone to teach in one of the cities of Massachusetts. Miss Currie formerly was on the staff of the Women's Institutes Branch of the N. B. Department of Agriculture.

To Assist Fire Marshals.

D. A. Noble, who for several years has been Chief of the British Empire Steel Corporation Police Department at Sydney, has been appointed special investigator for the Fire Underwriters Loss and Investigation Bureau of Canada, with headquarters at Moncton. Mr. Noble has had many years experience in police investigation work and his duties, which begin immediately, will be to assist the fire marshals of the Maritime Provinces in investigating causes of fires. He will be stationed permanently at Moncton, but will have scope over the three provinces.

Degrees at Oxford.

A recent issue of the Oxford Times carries announcement of conferring a record number of degrees among them being four for Maritime Provinces Rhodes Scholars. Two of them are New Brunswickers, A. R. McDougall, of Moncton, N. B., who completed his three-year term this year and who received the degree of Bachelor of the Civil Law; and Russell R. Sheldrick, of Kingston, N. B., who won the Bachelor of Arts degree. Mr. Sheldrick, who is a University of New Brunswick graduate, has one more year at Oxford. Mr. Dougall is a Mt. Allison graduate. Two other Maritime men, H. Borden and J. H. Webster, received B. A. degrees.

Appreciated Entertainment.

The Mount Allison Argosy Weekly speaks in kindest terms of the entertainment given the Mount A. rugby team and supporters last week by the U. N. B. under-grads. The Argosy Weekly says:—"In the evening a particularly brilliant dance was put on in honor of the Mount Allison team. There were gathered a good part of the beauty and chivalry of two Universities, and we could not help thinking that the lighter side of Education, while it may be backed off the boards from a utilitarian viewpoint is not to be despised as a means of entertainment. We shall welcome another opportunity of visiting the University of New Brunswick."

GREETINGS TO LOCAL LEGION
FROM MONCTON

Annual Armistice Day Dinner on Thursday Night at Windsor Hotel—Informal Smoker Later at Quarters.

The Fredericton Branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, last night received fraternal greetings from the Moncton Branch at the annual Armistice Day dinner. The greetings were extended by Ernest Doiron, official reporter of the Appeal Court who was in the city officially and who attended the dinner as a guest.

The dinner which was given at the Windsor was one of the most successful in the history of the Fredericton Branch. A brief toast-list followed the dinner after which the banqueters marched in a body to the Legion quarters, Queen street, where an informal smoker occupied the rest of the night and the early hours of the morning.

The Toasts

The repast served by the Windsor was excellent and all arrangements were carried out smoothly. C. L. Dougherty, president, was in the chair and C. Archie Williams was toastmaster.

"The King" was received with musical honors.

"Our Country—Canada" was proposed by James Pringle and was received with the singing of "O Canada".

"Departed Comrades" was received in silence.

"The Canadian Legion" was proposed by J. T. Mavor and Ernest Doiron was called upon to reply. Mr. Doiron said that the pleasure of attending the dinner of the Fredericton Branch, had been unexpectedly his as business had detained him in Fredericton longer than he had expected. He bore to the Fredericton Branch the best wishes and fraternal greetings of the Moncton comrades. Unfortunately the Moncton Branch was not so well situated as that in Fredericton as no club-rooms were available. Nevertheless the Branch was in existence with a membership of 125. He could say that the Fredericton Branch was considered to be closer to that in Moncton than by any other.

The 'March Around'

At midnight the customary "march around" took place the members who were celebrating the day turning out in large numbers and marching about the square of the quarters.

Upwards of one hundred members and guests turned out to observe the day.

After Big Game.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Potter of Boston, Mass., and J. Judson Dean of Winchester, Mass., are at the Queen. They are on their way to the woods after big game.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fairn of Aylesford, N. S., are at the Queen.

TWO OROMOCTO
INDIANS HELD FOR GAME VIOLATION

Peter Atwin and Michael Polches Arrested at French Lake—Two Violations are Charged Against Them.

Two Indians from the Oromocto Reserve were placed in the police cells here last night for safe-keeping at the request of Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon. They are charged with violation of the Game Act in two particulars, having a muskrat in their possession and also having firearms in the woods without license.

The Indians are Peter Atwin, aged 26 years, and Michael Polches, aged 32 years. Both are well known residents of the Oromocto Reserve. They were arrested at French Lake, Sunbury County, not far from Rusiagornish, by Game Warden Thomas A. Mersereau of French Lake.

First Prosecution in This Section.

The prosecutions are the first to be made in this section of the Province this season. Although there have been quite a number of game cases elsewhere, in this vicinity the law has been well observed.

Claim Treaty Rights.

The usual claim of an Indian when prosecuted for violation of game or fisheries regulations, is that they are not amenable to the law as treaty rights gave their people perpetual rights to game and fish in the lands which they ceded to the British Crown more than one hundred years ago. This claim is not recognized by the courts.

The Indians appeared this afternoon before Police Magistrate Limerick.

OPERA BY RADIO IS CRITICIZED.

London, Nov. 12—Opera over the radio in the opinion of Sir Thomas Becham, conductor, who is quitting England for the United States, resembles the real thing as much as a roaring bull does Galli Curci. He thinks subsidized broadcasting is ruining England's musical future.
