Of Interest to the Women

NEW FASHIONS

IN BRIDAL GOWNS.

While prospective grooms are looking over railroad time tables, their intended brides are picking out their trains. The train of the wedding gown has been sort of side-tracked of late. It may start anywhere and end anywhere, despite the fact that tradition has urged them to start at the shoulders and end on the floor.

Trains of all Kinds.

Some of the modern girls choose trains that start straight from the hip falling below the hem and training on the floor. Others choose those side-panel trains that start at one shoulder only and fall in sweeping train effect. Still others combine both of the above fashions using the double train or the train with a cabosse attachment as where one train starts from one shoulder and the other starts at the opposite hip.

This season taffeta, satin and chiffon are the favored materials for the bridal gown. Hems are irregular often being shorter in front and dipping at the sides and rear. Bodices are semi-fitted with snug-fitting sleeves which extend down over the hands. Except in a few instances where the quaint old-fashioned wedding gown is chosen, skirts are short.

Bridesmaids' Costumes.

The bride's maids invariably wear bouffant frocks with skirts trimmed in tiers, ruffles, pleats, godets or circular floating drapes. Bodices are slender and little capes, wide berthas or floating wing panels aid in the bouffant effect. Organza in pastel colors is a favored material for the bride's maid. Often each maid wears a different shade giving a rainbow effect. Drooping-brimmed, horsehair hats match the color of the gown and they are either trimmed in velvet or with a single huge flower of harmonizing color. Satin slippers also match the maid's gown.

The fringed wedding gown is one of the season's new offerings. In this case the gown is of satin and falls in slender lines to the hem being trimmed in deep white fringe from hips to hem.

Delicate Chocolate Blanc-Mange.

Sift together one-third cup of corn-starch, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one-third cup of sugar, dilute with one half-cup of cold milk, add slowly to two cups of milk that have been scalded in the double-boiler. Cook over hot water fifteen minutes, stirring constantly until the mixture, thickens afterward occasionally; melt one and one-half squares of chocolate over hot water, stir until smooth then add to the cooked mixture; fold in the whites of three eggs beaten until stiff and add one teaspoon of vanilla. Turn into individual moulds that have been dipped into cold water and chill. Serve with sweetened cream or whipped cream.

NUWEDD SPEAKS.

I have a tender feeling.
That nothing can destroy
For a doctor who came stealing
To whisper, "It's a boy."

Sour Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Any drugstore.

PISCATORIALLY MAUDLIN.

I.
The bitter days of winter
Lie upon their couch of death
While beauty of the crocus
Fairly steals away my breath.

II.
As timid spring advances
With sprightly tread of hope
My winter weary spirits
For the pussywillow grope.

III.
O'er vaulted sky and meadow
Ma Nature smiles by turn—
But what can thrill an angler,
Like the year's first angleworm?
—URANIA MATZ HALLER in New York Sun.

Mrs. Highbrow (reading the dramatic section)—It says here that they are going to revive 'Julius Caesar' in New York.

Mrs. Lowbrow—Ain't science wonderful? And him being unconscious for nearly 2,000 years too!

A—I'm going to marry a girl who can take a joke.

Z—Don't worry! That's the only kind of a girl you'll get.
