GUY M'KINNEY BRINGS WINNINGS TO $55,000

Has Won Three Futurities and Hambletonian Stake—Horse Review Futurity His Latest Triumph.

Detroit, Sept. 9—Guy McKinney's record as an unbeaten three-year-old continues after the renewal of the Horse Review Futurity which he won this afternoon in the presence of a great crowd.

This makes three futurities and the Hambletonian Stake to his credit, his net winnings thus far about $55,000, far ahead of any horse in years.

Station Belle set the pace in the first heat until the middle of the stretch where she gave up and Guy McKinney came by and beat Ellie Trabue a length, with Guy Dean lapped on her.

It was a tighter fit next time. Again Ray started his drive in the stretch. Wearing down Station Belle and Ellie Trabue, he was comfortable until the last 100 yards when Guy Dean starting too late, came up with a rush. Ray subjected Guy McKinney to a drive to win by part of a length, the last quarter in 29 seconds.

BASQUE BERET WORN BY PRINCE

Biarritz, France, Sept. 9—Jean Borotra, the tennis star, who set the fashion of the Basque beret or cap in England, has a distinguished follower in the Prince of Wales.

Basque country people now realize to what extent the beret has won favor under the grey skies of the north since their townfellow introduced the fashion while playing tennis at Wimbledon. They realized it to the full when they saw the Prince of Wales, accompanied by General Trotter appear on the golf course both wearing berets adjusted at exactly the right Borotra angle.

Fredericton High is Working Out Big Squad Of Rugby Players

Local School Holds New Brunswick Title—Should Have Another Good Team—University of N.B. May Not Have All Players Back.

Fredericton High School, holding the New Brunswick Interscholastic rugby football title by virtue of defeating Mt. Allison Academy and New-castle High last season, is out again with a big squad of players to work up a team for 1926. The Yellow and Black is working at the race track and has had good turnouts this week. A number of new players are out to get places and to fill the vacancies.

Egbert Cass who has been successful coach of the Fredericton High teams for several years is instructing them again. Nairn McCaffrey and Earle Hickson of the University of N. B. squad are assisting. It is believed that a strong team will again wear the Yellow and Black.

Rothsayer Collegiate School is to reopen next week and the league meeting to arrange a schedule will come some time later.

University of N. B. Prospects.

The University of New Brunswick will resume lectures on the 20th. Football material is expected in the incoming freshman class. There also is the possibility of members of the 1925 team which won the MacTier Cup, not returning to college. In fact it will not be until Coach C. B. Burden calls the first practice and possibly after that that it will be known how the Red and Black will stand in regard to material.

Dougan last year with Fredericton High will go to Acadia but it is reported will not play football.

FERET IS PRO WITH SUZANNE

Paris, Sept. 9—Paul Feret, noted French tennis player, announced today that he would turn professional this year and accompany Suzanne Lenglen on her tour of Canada and the United States.

Feret is the third player of international prominence to turn professional this year, having been preceded by Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen and Miss Mary K. Browne, of California.

Ouring the Franco-American series earlier this season he defeated Vincent Richards in Paris. He was later beaten in the same series by Howard Kinsey, of California.

PRESQUE ISLE RACE STOPPED BY HEAVY RAIN

Presque Isle, Me., Sept. 9—Rain stopped the races at the northern Maine fair this afternoon just as they were getting interesting to one of the largest crowds ever on the grounds. Two favorites, Hedgewood K. and Gwendolyn Aubrey had taken two heats and looked good for their events. The 2:16 class was split up. The epidemic of spills and runaways which appears to have struck all the Maine tracks this season hit here today. The veteran John Willard was thrown off, but not hurt when his own mare, Miss Simmassie, locked wheels with Helen Aubrey and raced around the track three times before she could be stopped. The races will be finished tomorrow morning and the rest of the card run off, including the free-for-all, in which John R. Braden is expected to start.

In the 2:16 mixed class, Peter Tan-lac won, with best time 2:13½. Hedgewood won two straight heats in the 2:20 pace which was unfinished, with best time 2:13½, while in the 2:21 trot class Gwendolyn won two straight in an unfinished event, with best time 2:19½.

PROMENADE CONCERTS IN OLD LONDON

London, Sept. 9—"Everybody," of course, leaves London at the end of July. Social etiquette demands that. Nevertheless the "nobodies" who remain in town—some 6,900,000 strong—may derive some consolation from the thought that London enjoys its greatest musical treat during the months of August and September in its Promenade Concerts. Sir Henry Wood, just back from the United States, is again conductor this year. At no other time of the year does London have an orchestral concert every night of the week for ten weeks on end. They have been held every summer for the last thirty-two years. In recent years they have been performed at Queen's Hall in Langham Place. They are a most informal sort of concert, quite disconcerting at first. One pays the equivalent of fifty cents in cash and then walks into an auditorium entirely denuded of chairs.

The floor is packed with people standing, listening attentively to the music. Between the numbers one walks about and meets one's friends—hence the name promenade concerts. The air is thick with tobacco smoke—more women than men seem to smoke here—and during hot nights one is forced now and again to seek the street to get a little fresh air. Informal as it is, one soon perceives that London's promenade concert has its own code and one of the rules is that nobody must strike a match during the playing of a number. Each night is devoted to one particular composer—thus Monday evenings are given over to the playing of the works of Wagner. Saturday night is "popular night," but anybody who inferred from this title that the orchestra played jazz tunes then would be sadly disappointed.

She—No. Why can't you love me like the knight of old?
He—Get out! How'd you like to sit on a cast'ron knee?—Washington Forger.

PITTSBURGH SET BACK IN THE NATIONAL

St. Louis and Cincinnati at Top of League Did Not Play—Williams Batting Hard.

New York, Sept. 9—Pittsburgh and Chicago divided a double header today.

Both received slight setbacks in their efforts to catch up with the National League leaders, St. Louis and Cincinnati, who were idle. The Pirates won the first game, 2 to 1, but made a poor showing in the second contest which they dropped to the visitors 10 to 1.

The Phillies at home closed their season's series with Brooklyn by losing today's game by 12 to 6, after the Robins put on a 9-run rally in the final inning. Cy Williams hit successive home runs off Grimes in his first two times at bat, which gave him a feat of three consecutive homers that started with his last time at the plate in yesterday's contest.

Williams in 202 Homers
Runner-up to Babe Ruth, for lifetime circuit swats, Williams now has a total of 202 homers to his credit. In four consecutive games in the series with the Robins, Williams batted five homers that accounted for 11 tallies.

After tying the count with a one-run brace in the ninth, the Giants at Boston nosed out the Braves in the 11th inning, 3 to 2, in the final game of the series.

SUZANNE TO PLAY AT NIGHT

Philadelphia, Sept. 7—Miss Mary K. Browne, who has signed a contract to play professional tennis, will meet Suzanne Lenglen in a series of exhibition matches at the Sesqui-centennial Exposition, beginning Oct. 15, officials of the Exposition announced tonight. The matches will be held at night in the auditorium on the Exposition grounds.

AMERICANS WON FIRST GAME

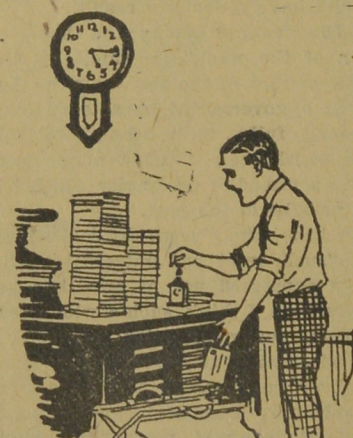

Philadelphia, Sept. 9—The United States triumphed over France today in the first match of the challenge round for the Davis Cup, world's championship tennis trophy, when William M. (Little Bill) Johnston vanquished Rene Lacoste, 6-0, 6-4, 0-6, 6-0.

BLUNDERS

WHY IS THIS WRONG?

When mail is allowed to accumulate in offices until closing time, it not only places an additional burden on the postal service, but is apt to miss important early afternoon train dispatches. This often causes a whole day's delay in delivery. Mail should be posted as soon as it is ready, and at frequent periods of the day.
