

HINDU-MOSLEM RIOTS IN INDIA

WILL STOP STRIKES AND LOCK OUTS

New Law is to Go Into Force in Italy on Thursday.

TO SETTLE ALL DISPUTES

Law the Most Important Passed by the Present Regime.

(Special cable to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)
Rome, April 28—On Thursday the new law regulating the relations between Capital and Labor will be enforced here. The law establishes a magistracy of labor for the settlement of disputes between employers and employees and strikes and lock-outs are forbidden, whether in public services or in privately incorporated enterprises.

The Law is the most important of any yet passed by the present regime and will be the cardinal point and pivot of the entire social order.

The cabinet council will examine the question of diffusion of the most important clauses of the New Law so that both sides concerned may be perfectly cognizant of their new responsibilities. Strikes will be criminal offences from now on.

POOR HONEY SEASON IN NOVA SCOTIA

Springhill, April 27—The sugar making season in this vicinity has to date seen a decided failure, with very few good runs of sap, and the six feet of snow still in the woods hindering the sap gatherers greatly in their work.

A good many farmers did not go into the woods this year, considering it hardly a paying proposition in the face of such hardships. There will be only about two more weeks of the season, consequently there will be very little syrup and sugar exported this year.

SPANISH GIRL WILL INHERIT MANY TITLES

Madrid, April 28—A baby girl, yet unborn, born to the Duke and Duchess of Alba and Berwick, will, unless a brother is born, go through life holding 60 titles, 24 inherited from her mother and 6 from her father. Her father is eight dukes, 11 marquises and 17 counts. In addition, he is 14 grantees of Spain. The little girl sleeps as peacefully, however, as though she was not confronted with all that.

THE COWS SURE DID WANDER BACK AGAIN

El Paso, Tex., April 28—If your automobile has been stolen, here is a suggestion from a newspaper in this state for its recovery that may appeal to some.

A Texas farmer ran the following advertisement in the local paper: "Strayed—One Jersey heifer. To the one who returns her I will give a drink of genuine Four Roses whiskey 10 years old."

The next morning there were nine men with Jersey heifers waiting in the yard.

GANGSTERS KILL THREE MEN IN CHICAGO STREET

War for Control of Beer Traffic Was the Cause.

MADE USE OF MACHINE GUNS

An Assistant States Attorney Among the Victims.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

Chicago, Ill., April 28—War for control of Chicago's beer traffic was blamed today for the slaying of three men including an assistant States Attorney, by a group of gangsters armed with a machine gun.

"Looks like the old beer feud", snapped Capt. John Stege in command of all officers investigating the case.

"The Irish were gaining the upper hand the Italians resorted to guns."

"Stege said he was convinced that assistant states attorney William McSwiggin had been shot down by accident while conversing with two notorious beer runners, James Doherty and Thomas Duffy. He abandoned the theory that McSwiggin had been slain in revenge for his strong protection of gunmen."

GARDEN OF EDEN ORIGINALLY AT ONE OF THE POLES

At Least So Opines Donald McMillan, Famous Arctic Explorer.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

New Haven, Conn., April 28—Evidence has been uncovered strongly supporting the theory that the Garden of Eden was originally at either the North or the South Pole, Captain Donald McMillan, famous arctic explorer said, in an address here under the auspices of the Boy Scout's council.

McMillan pointed out that the earth was originally a ball of fire and that the poles being the coldest places now, must have cooled first, allowing life to get a start there. Man, also probably made his first appearance at one of the poles, McMillan said.

He told of discovering the greatest seam of coal in the world in the Arctic estimated to be more than two million years old.

He also found fossil remains of 36 kinds of vegetation now common to the temperate and tropical climes including a tree in digpit to California as evidence that the first paradise must have been at the poles.

FIVE MONTHS' TEST OF THE LIGHT'S SPEED

Chicago, April 28—Prof. A. A. Michelson, University of Chicago physicist, will spend five months this summer at the Mt. Wilson observatory, Pasadena Cal., where he will continue his measurement of the velocity of light. Recent experiments of Prof. Michelson here have substantiated certain parts of the Einstein theory.

He will seek to bring the measurements of light's speed to a greater degree of precision than has even been reached.

Dr. Michelson, now in Washington attending a meeting of the National Academy of Sciences, will leave for California Wednesday.

C. A. Emerson of Saint John is in the city today on business.

The Riots in Calcutta Are the Most Serious In History of the City

Armored Cars and Indian Cavalrymen Commanded by British Non-Commissioned Officers Patrolling the City Streets Today—More Than Sixty Persons Have Been Killed and Four Hundred Wounded—Business is Still Paralyzed.

(Special to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

CALCUTTA, April 28—Armored cars and Indian cavalrymen, commanded by British non-commissioned officers, today patrolled the streets of Calcutta, where sixty persons have been killed and more than four hundred injured in riots since last Friday. The appearance of the military was in response to demands of the population that the most effective means at hand be adopted to stop the terrorism. Business was still paralyzed today, although the detail of troops to patrol the city had tremendously relieved the frightened population. The lower classes continued their evacuation of the city.

From an economic standpoint, these latest riots growing out of the jealousies between the Hindus and Moslem population were the most serious in the history of the city.

TWO GRAND FALLS BILLS TO BE BEFORE HOUSE ON THURSDAY MORNING

Fraser Bill to be Ready Thursday Afternoon—Corporations Committee Recommended the Saint John River Developing Co. Bill and N. B. International Paper Co. Bill This Morning—Lieut.-Governor-in-Council to Control Taxation and Rate to Public, the Report.

The first morning session of the Legislature is expected to be held Thursday morning according to the announcement made by Premier Baxter early this afternoon after the Corporations Committee rose. That committee had under consideration the three bills relating to Grand Falls development. The New Brunswick International Paper Company bill and the Saint John River Developing Company bill were recommended by the Committee with amendments and will be before the House Thursday morning.

The bill relating to Fraser Companies Limited will have to be extensively re-drafted and will be reprinted in time for presentation to the House Thursday afternoon.

the Mirmachi Lumber Co., Ltd. The latter companies are subsidiaries of the International. P. J. Hughes, K. C., appearing for the N. B. Telephone Co., proposed a section which would safeguard the lines of that company and also its interests in the matter of telephone line construction in connection with development.

Some Amendments

Some amendments were made in private session the Committee considering the bill in private after one o'clock. The section with regard to the tax of $2 per horse-power on other developments on the Saint John River was amended so extensively that it was remade. The Lieut.-Governor-in-Council, it is understood, is to have control over the rate of taxation and also over the price at which current is to be sold to the public.

In Public Session

Authority to take over the timber licenses now held by Stetson, Cutler Co. by Fraser Companies Ltd., upon payment of such a fee as the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may decide was granted by the corporation in its consideration in public session of the bill granting Fraser's the right to construct a transmission line from Grand Falls. A similar provision was inserted in the N. B. International Paper Co., Ltd. bill regarding the transfer to the International of licenses now held by the Dalhousie Lumber Co., Ltd. and

ANTI RELIGIOUS CONGRESS IS SUMMONED

Special cable to the Daily Mail by the British United Press)

Moscow, April 28—Representatives from all districts of Russia have been summoned to meet in a great anti-religious congress to consider the best means of circulating anti-religious propaganda, especially among the sects which have gained strength since the revolution.

BRICK MASONS AT THIRTY-FIVE CENTS A DAY

Pekin, April 28—Brick masons in Peking want their pay raised to 35 cents a day, and if they don't get that much they intend to strike. This decision was reached at a mass meeting. It was not stated what they are receiving now, but all of Peking's hand workers are paid low wages because of the over-supply of manpower.

DIRIGIBLE MAY START TONIGHT FOR NORTH POLE

To Leave Leningrad En Route for King's Bay.

REPORT COMES FROM OSLO

Expedition Leaders are Awaiting Craft at King's Bay.

(Special to the Daily Mail by British United Press)

Oslo, April 28—It is reported here that the Amundsen-Ellsworth dirigible Norge may leave Leningrad en route to Kings Bay tonight. From Kings Bay the next leg of the flight will be the attempt to reach the North Pole.

Raold Amundsen and Lincoln Ellsworth, the expedition leaders, are awaiting their craft at Kings Bay. A mooring mast and hanger are available there.

AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE TO RECEIVE REPORT

The Agricultural Committee of the House of Assembly this morning heard presentations of Beekeeping and Elementary Education. H. G. Miller, Provincial Apiarist talked on the first subject and A. C. Gorham, Director of Agricultural Education upon the other.

Mr. Miller emphasized the value of beekeeping in producing a good profit on a small investment and aiding in fruit-growing. The province was free of disease. He said a colony of bees could be installed for $25 and would bring in $7 a year.

A. C. Gorham discussion school gardening and nature study. He said that home plots had been found more effective than school gardens. Poultry work among school children had been particularly effective.

Messrs. Dickson, Siddall and Moore were named a committee to draw up a report on the whole agricultural situation and submit it to the committee Friday morning.

The Minister, Hon. Lewis Smith, said that he wished the committee to feel free to express its opinion and criticize if necessary.

OLD DOBBIN BELIEVED TO BE COMING BACK

Des Moines, Ia., April 28—Old Dobbin is coming back. So believes W. H. Ritchard, 74-year-old Valley Junction harness maker, who declares that he has had 200 per cent as great a volume of harness-repairing business this spring as he had early in 1925.

But the deplorable fact, he says, is that there are not enough horses available. Spirited horses are a thing of the past; mares have dwindled in number and the proposition of raising colts is a serious one.

Ritchard has been plying the harness trade since June 8, 1868.

MAPLE HONEY WITH A KICK

Edmundston, April 27—Customs Officers Sirois and Dunbar yesterday seized a shipment of nine cases of "maple honey" at the C. P. R. station. When tested the "honey" proved to contain about 100 per cent alcohol. The shipment was made to a fictitious name.

TO REVIVE THE CUSTOMS CONFERENCE

Chinese Militarists Say They Want it to Go On.

DIVIDED ON PROPOSITION

Some Desire That the Conference Be Discontinued.

Special cable to The Daily Mail by the British United Press.)

Peking, April 28—The Chinese militarists who captured Peking from the Nationalists a fortnight ago sought today to revive the Chinese customs conference which first convened in Peking on October 26th, 1925. Representatives of Chang Tso-Lin, Wu Pei-Fu and Lich-in-Ling whose armies collaborated in the siege of Peking, informed the foreign diplomats that they desired the conference to go on. The conferees themselves are divided on the proposition. Some of them desire to discontinue the conference with announcement that nothing has been achieved.

COUNTERFEIT PLOT BARED IN EUROPE

Bucharest, April 28—Existence of another forged banknote scandal in Central Europe, which may rival in size that recently unearthed in Hungary, was disclosed today by announcement that Rumanian secret police have discovered a huge organization of Brassow—formerly Kronstadt—Transylvania, for the manufacture of forged bills.

Plates, which have already been found, were Czechoslovak and Rumanian notes of 500 and 1,000 crowns and other denominations. Several arrests were made. A number of others are in prospect, including several prominent persons.

PICTURE SHOCKS PARIS; ARTIST IS SHOCKED, TOO

Paris, April 28—Conscience outraged Paris has risen in arms against the public display of a drawing of a nude woman. The shocking picture is a poster by the Japanese artist Foujita, which was to have been hung in the Nord railway station as an advertisement of the artists' ball. Permission was refused by the authorities on the ground it was indecent. The artist said: "There would be nothing astonishing if this had happened in America or England—but France!"

PRACTICING NEW STEPS

London, April 28—With the opening of the Mayfair dancing season debutantes have been practising new steps to gramophone music. Not because they do not already know how to dance, but hostesses have given quiet hints that the Prince of Wales may turn up at some of their functions, and they want their girl guests to be quite up to date.

The intricacies of the Charleston and tango are being eagerly learned.
