Drives Out Rheumatism Subdues Lumbago

Brings Ease and Comfort to the Sufferer at Once

NERVILINE A KING OVER PAIN

Those who seek permanent relief from the grinding pain of rheumatism and Lumbago should read the letter of F. E. Normand, from Georgetown, who writes:

"I was fairly crippled with aching joints and Rheumatism. Nerviline must have been what I needed, because it cleared up my trouble quickly."

"If you need a reliable, strong, penetrating pain remedy, one you can depend on, get a 35c. bottle of Nerviline today; it will make you well quickly."

Where An American Hangs His Hat

Once a hat was not just a hat; it was also a badge of sectionalism. That was when the broad-brimmed Stetson and the nobby derby seldom met. When South, East, North, West lived differently, dressed differently, and thought differently. When a traveling American could feel like a stranger in his own land.

Before advertising—

But now Mrs. Green of Boston and Mrs. Brown of El Paso use the same vacuum cleaner, face powder, soap; Adams of Boston and Sims of Seattle are alike in the cut of their clothes. And where an American hangs his hat, within the borders of these United States, he feels at home. Advertising did that.

Advertising is still at work helping to make these states united. Here is a better bed, a handsomer shoe, a more delicious food. Let it be known from Maine to California, from Washington State to Florida! Here's a healthier way to live, another safeguard for your family, a new service of self-improvement. Spread the news everywhere!

MANY WILL GO TO CHICAGO FOR EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Largest Special Passenger Traffic Movement in History of Canadian Railroads is Looked For.

According to advices received by Passenger Traffic Officials of the Canadian National Railways, one of the largest special passenger traffic movements in the history of Canadian Railroading will take place in June next in connection with the Eucharistic Congress at Chicago.

Preparations are being made in Chicago for the reception of more than a million pilgrims during the Congress which will be held from June 20th to June 24th, and the problem of transport for this multitude is already engaging the close attention of both American and Canadian Railroad Officials.

The Canadian Delegation will, of necessity, be a very large one, and will be thoroughly representative of the whole Dominion. Already the Canadian National Railways have contracted with various Organizations for ten special trains from the Maritime Province as far west as Alberta. Most of these specials will be operated from Quebec and Ontario, but already enough travel is assured from the Maritimes for a special train to leave Moncton at or about 2.30 P. M., on Friday, June 18th. This train will reach Chicago early Sunday morning. The train equipment will be of the very best, and standard C. N. R. diners will serve meals enroute. The return trip will be made by special, leaving Chicago Thursday, June 24th, allowing side trips to Niagara Falls and Ste. Anne de Beaupre, reaching Moncton on Monday, June 28th. Delegates from Saint John and all Maritime Provinces points, outside of Moncton, will make their connection with the special train by the regular C. N. R. train services.

This tour includes five days in Chicago, and a half day side trip to Niagara Falls. There will be one whole day at Montreal, and one at Quebec or Ste. Anne de Beaupre. It will be a notable tour under the very best auspices, and in the Railway Service there will be nothing lacking.

All applications for transportation, fares and reservations on this special train should be made to Reverend J. E. Brown, Secretary of the Congress Pilgrimage, care Bishop's Palace, St. John, N. B.

BEAUTY SURGERY NOW APPLIED TO OTHER PARTS OF THE BODY IN ADDITION TO THE FACE

New York, March 12—Beautifying the face by surgery is now being extended to beautifying the body by surgery, as demonstrated at the convention of the American Master Hairdressers Association now in session at the Hotel Commodore. An extremely frank display showing what can be done to "take up the sag" in the body after the manner of chin lifting astonished an audience at one of the gatherings of the convention yesterday afternoon.

The audience included several men as well as a large number of women. The men were not asked to leave the room when a lecturer on "cosmetic surgery" who appeared on the program as "Dr. Pratt, M. D.," announced that a young woman whose sagging bodily muscles had been lifted by taking out a section of skin had consented to pose as an example.

Model Poses at Lecture.

The very pretty young woman came to the dais of the East Ballroom where the lecture was being given. Her face was nicely rouged and powdered. Her shining hair bore evidence of careful arrangement. She appeared to be dressed in a red satin draped gown.

Standing on the platform beside the lecturer, the young woman smiled at the audience. Then she dropped her red satin drapery to the waist line, leaving her body exposed. Across her shining flesh just below the line to which a daring evening gown may be cut were two slight long scars.

Where the scars showed, the lecturer explained, a section of skin had been taken out and the edges drawn together so that the sagging flesh was lifted.

A woman in the audience asked whether it was necessary to take any of the flesh out also.

"Sometimes the loose fat is dissected out," she was told, "but usually it is sufficient to take out a piece of skin."

Taking Out the Sag.

Face lifting which unsophisticated women still regard as a great mystery is an old story to many women, it was said. The face begins to sag in some people in the early twenties and many actresses and "screen girls" who want to be free from even the suggestion of approaching age are having their faces lifted before they are twenty-five. It is nothing for a facial surgeon to take up a few inches of skin and make a good job of it so far as quick and safe healing is concerned; but it was pointed out by the cosmetic surgery expert that more than a neat job is required in face fixing. The facial surgeon must possess esthetic feeling as well as surgical skill or a beauty pilgrim will find herself looking quite a different person when she regards herself in the mirror after a facial operation.

Perhaps all the sag will be out of her face, but like the old woman who had her petticoats cut all around about by a humorous peddler when she fell asleep on the King's highway, the facially renovated patient will remark after a glance in the mirror: "Laud a mercy on me, can this indeed be I?"

This is what will happen if she has tucks taken in her face by an able facial surgeon with no sense of the esthetic. If the surgeon she employs is an artist as well as a good technician she will find herself after an operation possessed of a sagless countenance which she and her friends can still recognize as her own.

Repeated Facial Uplift.

Four or five faces can be fixed over in the course of an hour by an able practitioner if all that is needed is to take out a slice of skin and sew the edges together, it was said.

The nose, it was said is one of the simplest things on the face to fix, and the slack under the eyes can usually be removed without the slightest difficulty and in very short order. No facial surgery takes very long, it was stated. Many actresses have their faces lifted in the morning and appear in their parts the same day. Complete healing takes from four to six days only. Face lifting endures six or seven years with the average person. It can be done any number of times and instances were cited where persons have had their faces lifted twenty-two times. Ears can readily be altered also, but as the movement for nude ears has not yet triumphed none of the women at the convention showed any interest in ear surgery.

Tonight the great battle of the bob will be fought out at the convention. Charles Nessler, president of the association, has announced that "ladies are requested to appear at the annual banquet, which is to be followed by a hair dressing contest, with their bobs covered." Mr. Nessler is the leader of the movement to replace the bob by long hair, either actually or by transformations for evening wear but there are equally strong advocates of the bob as the only up-to-date style for all occasions among the delegates to the convention.

"Be bobbed and boyish by day if you will, but be feminine and romantic in the evening," pleads Mr. Nessler.

"Feminist rather than feminine," insist the bob advocates.

SUES SUICIDE FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

(Boston Globe.)

Claiming that John Jackimoviez of Hyde Park committed suicide a few hours before the time set for his wedding, Sophie Stanion, his alleged fiancée, filed yesterday in Superior Court a breach of promise suit against his estate in which she asks $25,000.

The plaintiff takes the position that Jackimoviez' estate is as much responsible to her as he would have been if he had failed to carry out his alleged promise to marry.

Jackimoviez, a mill hand, accumulated a nice little fortune it is said through real estate investments. According to the papers filed by John F. Hurley, the plaintiff's attorney, the wedding was set for Oct. 24. It is said John went about a week in advance of the ceremony and invited many of his friends.

It is said presents were sent to the Stanion home, River st, Hyde Park, and to Jackimoviez' residence 15 Easton av. On the morning set it is alleged John's two sisters called a policeman and found John dead from inhaling illuminating gas.

The doors and windows of the room were sealed it is alleged and the case was declared a suicide. There was also a note saying: "Sophie is a good girl; I am no good."

The case is said to be the first of its kind.

VACATIONING IN CANADA.

Those who most enjoy a holiday are those who truly earn it—earn it by attention to business detail or household cares, earn it by planning and saving for it. Canada is the greatest vacation land on the globe—from Halifax, guardian of the East to Victoria on the Pacific, there is scarcely a mile of country but has its own charm. Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, "The Grey Old East," with their lakes and rivers, their modest hills and valleys, pleasant farms and comfortable homes, where life is easy, and rest and peace.

The Province of Quebec, simply another spelling of romance, with its tiny strips of farms, running back from the road in the old French fashion, its great churches with gay roofed cottages grouped round about to form a village—its great elms, noble river and unguessed possibilities for development along many lines. A leisurely jaunt through the province will well reward the traveller.

Farther on Old Ontario where almost every lake or river means pleasure. Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton London, hundreds of towns familiar by name from childhood and in the newer Ontario, Sudbury, North Bay Port Arthur and Fort William, any and all of them worth discovering. By rail or lake, get acquainted.

On West across the spreading prairies, Winnipeg and Calgary then on into the Mountains. Banff, with its thousand and one points of interest; lovely Lake Louise, and Lakes in the Clouds, side trips by motor to Windermere and the Okanagan and the Kootenay, visits to charming bungalow camps and magnificent hotels; Field, with the floating glaciers in the vicinity and fairy-like falls; the noble range of the Selkirk and adown the slope to the Pacific. Vancouver, the great Gate on the West by boat to Victoria, regal in situation and dignity, Vancouver Island. The whole a journey of never-ending interest and new delights.

And from Vancouver, by splendid steamer up to Alaska, the Land of the Midnight Sun, through the sheltered seas, where sheer precipices frown down upon you, and gaudy totem poles make a dash of color and romance. Such a trip can only be realized by the taking. Any Canadian Pacific Railway Agent can map it out for you, give you details fares, train schedules any of the many little matters which make the trip a pleasure.

Summer Tourist Fares are effective from May 15 to September 30 and by planning early, the trip will be a possibility and then anticipating the wonders and pleasures of it all makes it doubly dear. Get hold of some of the charming folders the Canadian Pacific publishes see the photographs, then make your call at the office.
